Re: George Washington Steven HARRINGTON - Oakville

Mr. Glenn Stuart appeared on behalf of the Law Society. Ms. Kelly McKinnon appeared as Duty Counsel. The solicitor was not present.

A letter dated November 20th, 2000 addressed to the solicitor from Mr. Glenn Stuart and the Motion Record together with an Affidavit of Service served by courier was filed as Exhibit 3.

Ms. McKinnon indicated that the solicitor likely would not appear and neither she nor Ms. Jane Kelly had any instruction from the solicitor.

The Treasurer asked Ms. McKinnon to stay.

Counsel for the Society made submissions on the issue of penalty and urged Convocation to adopt the majority recommendation of disbarment.

There were questions from the Bench.

Both Counsel, the reporter and the public withdrew.

It was moved by Mr. Ruby, seconded by Mr. Porter that the majority recommendation be adopted and the solicitor be disbarred and pay costs in the amount of $27,501.23.

Carried

Both Counsel, the reporter and the public were recalled and were informed that the solicitor be disbarred and pay costs in the amount of $27,501.23.

Convocation took a brief recess at 10.25 a.m. and resumed at 10.45 a.m.
