A large number of members of the Bar were also present.

The Benchers, invited guests and members of the Bar attended in robes.

The Honourable N. W. Rowell, K.C., P.C., the Treasurer of the Society, accompanied by Mr. M. H. Ludwig, K.C., Mr. G. L. Smith, K.C., and the Secretary, received His Excellency at the Benchers' entrance of Osgoode Hall.

His Excellency was accompanied by Captain M. E. Adeane, A.D.C., and A. S. Redfern, Esquire, Secretary.

The Treasurer escorted His Excellency and staff to the Benchers' Convocation Room where the Benchers and Judges were assembled and were presented to His Excellency.

The meeting of Convocation took place at the easterly end of the Great Library on a dais on which were seated His Excellency and staff and the Benchers present. The members of the Judiciary and other guests invited to be present and members of the Law Society occupied seats in the Library.

His Excellency was presented for Call to the Bar and for conferring of the degree of Barrister-at-Law by Mr. M. H. Ludwig, K.C., in these words:

"Mr. Treasurer, I have the great honour of presenting to you and to the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada, for Call to the Bar of Ontario, His Excellency The Right Honourable Lord Tweedsmuir of Elsfeld, Governor-General of Canada, a Barrister of the Middle Temple."

The Treasurer addressed His Excellency as follows:

"Your Excellency, it is a long-settled custom of this Society that on the occasion of a Call to the Bar the Treasurer should address the candidates for Call, giving them advice and admonition as to how they should practise their profession. As Your Excellency's public duties will prevent you from entering upon the practice of your profession in this Province for some years to come, these words of advice and admonition may be dispensed with, and I forego this privilege with greater pleasure because in a few minutes we are to receive words of advice and admonition from you.

On behalf of Convocation I confer upon you the degree of Barrister-at-law, and Call you to the Bar of Ontario.”

His Excellency thereupon signed the Roll of Barristers.

Mr. I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., then moved a resolution for the election of His Excellency as an Honorary Bencher in the following words:

“Mr. Treasurer, the Honour and privilege has been accorded me of proposing a Resolution which I am sure will meet with the heartfelt approval of everybody present, but first let me say this is a red-letter day for Osgoode Hall, one long to be remembered.

It is the first occasion in which we have had within our walls a Governor-General of Canada who is a member of our profession. We have had many great statesmen as Governors-General, we have had great generals as Governors-General, and we have had a member of the Royal Family as Governor-General, but we have never before had a member of our Bar as Governor-General. Gentlemen, you have already heard that His Excellency is a member of the Middle Temple, one of the old Inns of Court of the Motherland, but he is more than that, he is a Bencher of the Middle Temple. His Excellency, however, has not confined his attention to law. Everyone has recognized his eminence in the literary field. Who, whether old or young, has not been thrilled with his novels or works of fiction such as The 39 Steps, Greenmantle, The Three Hostages, and a host of others, and who has not admired his efforts in the historical field and his delineations of such characters as Montrose and Oliver Cromwell?

Again, the versatility of His Excellency is such that he has occupied many posts in the service of The Crown, and all with distinction. He has also had a notable political career.

I think I may say that although we have come to respect and honour His Excellency as Governor-General of Canada, long before that we had esteemed and admired the man, John Buchan.

The Resolution I am about to move is that His Excellency Lord Tweedsmuir, be elected and enrolled as an Honorary Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada, a no mean Society, having a history of some one hundred and forty years."

The motion was seconded by Mr. W. E. N. Sinclair, K.C.

The motion was thereupon carried unanimously on a standing vote.

His Excellency thereupon addressed the meeting as follows:

"Mr. Treasurer, My Lords, Ladies and Gentlemen: You have done me a great honour and a great kindness, for which I offer you my sincerest thanks. It delights me to be back again among lawyers, for I feel that I am renewing my youth. In the words of the Roman poet, I, too, have lived in Arcadia; I, too, have been a lawyer. Thirty-five years ago I was Called to the English Bar, after having been ploughed once in my Bar Final, in company with a friend who is to-day one of the chief ornaments of the English Bench. I am, in a sense, a link with the past, for I was the last pupil of that great man, John Andrew Hamilton, afterwards Lord Sumner, before he took silk. I devilled occasionally for Sir Robert Finlay in the days when he was Attorney-General. On the advice of Lord Haldane I wrote a law book on that obscure topic The Taxation of Foreign Income, which was for a good many years the only treatise on the subject. So, gentlemen, you will see that at one time in my life I was really respectable.

Then I fell from grace. I left the pastoral uplands of the law for the low levels of commerce, and in my future relations with Courts of Justice I had to content myself either with the insignificant position of the lay client, or the dulness of the jury box or the witness box, though so far I have escaped the garish and uncomfortable notoriety of the dock. But now I seem to have been forgiven my backsliding. Last Summer I was made a Bencher of my old Inn, the Middle Temple; to-day you have deeply honoured me by making me an honorary member of the Bar of Upper Canada.

But though I ceased to practise law I did not lose my interest in it. Once a lawyer, always a lawyer. At home, I have been accustomed to read the law reports in 'The Times' before I read anything else in that paper, and, indeed, I should do the same thing to-day if I could only find the law reports in your admirable Canadian press.

The popular mind has always amused itself with ribaldry at our expense. There is a proverb of my own country of Scotland which runs something like this—'Hame's aye hame, as the Devil said when he found himself in the Court of Session'. And I have heard the Latin tag nemo repente fuit turpissimus—'no one becomes very bad all at once'—translated 'It takes five years to become a solicitor'. Gentlemen, just as hypocrisy is the tribute which vice pays to virtue, so I regard this popular ribaldry as the tribute which folly pays to wisdom.

I have had many professions, but there is none for which I have a higher regard than the Law. For one thing I do not think any profession excels ours in its strict standard of honour. I do not think there is any profession, too, so free from petty jealousy or so ready to admire proved ability. And in these days there are few professions more difficult. Without doubt our bodies are fearfully and wonderfully made, and the doctors have an intricate task; and theological questions do not get easier as time goes on, so the parsons have a difficult task. But I am very sure that no other profession has harder problems than ours. We have to face the eternal paradox—that laws are made in their final form by Parliaments and Congresses—that is, by people not perfectly adapted for the task, with the result that experts have to spend their lives interpreting them. This task does not grow easier in these days of superabundant legislation, when the lawyer has often to straighten out the tangle left by the legislatures. To-day, I fear, too many modern Acts of Parliament, at least in Britain, have, as someone has said, all the appearance of lucidity and all the reality of confusion. Well, a tough job keeps a man young and keeps his mind active. I am always struck with the enduring vitality of lawyers, and that is one reason why I say that in coming among you I am renewing my youth.

But gentlemen, we have one great consolation. I have heard an atheist defined as a man who had no invisible means of support. You have always an invisible means of support in the reflection that the law which you interpret is, with all its imperfections, the true cement of civilization. Here in Canada, as in England, as in the United States, we have as a precious heritage that body of customs and principles which we know as the Common Law. Like the British Constitution, it is an organic thing, the growth of which never ceases. Like the British Constitution, too, it is largely unwritten.

Blackstone's great work is an essay on the subject rather than a digest. It is your business not only to interpret that body of doctrine, but to enlarge it and to adapt it to the needs of a changing world. Law, I think, should be regarded as an elastic tissue which clothes the growing body. That tissue, that garment, must fit exactly. If it is too tight it will split, and you will have revolution and lawlessness, as we have seen at various times in our history when the law was allowed to become a strait-waistcoat. If it is too loose it will trip us up and impede our movements. Law, therefore, should not be too far behind or too far ahead of the growth of society, but should coincide as nearly as possible with that growth. Therefore, it is your duty not merely to interpret a body of doctrine, but in your interpretation to keep it in close touch with contemporary life. You can never be pedants, or you will not be good lawyers. It was a wise saying of my old friend at Washington, Mr. Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, that 'the life of the law is not logic but experience'.

The task of the lawyer to-day is an intricate one, but it is a living one. I have called the law the chief bond of civilization. It is also one of the chief bonds which link the British Empire together. Many of you will remember that famous occasion eleven years ago in Westminster Hall, when the lawyers of Britain and the lawyers of the Empire and the lawyers of the United States met to pay homage to the rock whence they were hewn. It is also one of our chief ties with that great nation south of our four thousand miles of undefended frontier. Jeremy Bentham warned the United States to 'shut their ports against the Common Law as they would against the plague', but happily the United States did not follow his advice. They made our Common Law their own law, and through a succession of eminent Judges, beginning with Story and John Marshall, they built up on it the groundwork of their national life.

So, gentlemen, we have cause to be proud of our profession. You are assisting in providing and administering that rational code of conduct, that union of discipline and liberty, without which no society can be wholesome and no nation can live.'

CONVOCATION THEN ROSE.

Following Convocation His Excellency and staff and the invited guests were entertained at luncheon by the Benchers.

REPORTING COMMITTEE REPORT

Mr. Denison.

Mr. J. S. Denison was elected Chairman.

1. For some time the Committee has been considering the improvement of the reports of arguments of counsel in the Ontario Reports.

The Committee therefore recommends that the present system of employing two reporters at a salary of $1,500.00 a year each, be abolished.

The Committee further recommends that the following new scheme be adopted for the reporting of arguments:

Reporters should be in constant attendance in the Court of Appeal. As to the Weekly Court and the Toronto Non-Jury Courts, reporters should be in attendance there when a case which is known to be important is being argued. The reporting work should be performed by young Barristers who would be willing to do this work on a part time basis. The Editor would keep a list of such young Barristers to whom he could assign work in the Courts when convenient for them. Subject to further enlargement or change by the Chairman of the Reporting Committee and the Editor, the names of the young Barristers suggested are as follows:

R. M. Fowler.	Wilfred Judson.
W. L. Wallace.	John Arnup.
R. H. Soward.	Wishart Spence.
John Hunter.	Roy Cadwell.
W. E. P. DeRoche.	L. A. Doyle.
Harold Kemp.

Under this scheme, these young Barristers would be available for work on a part time basis and they should be paid at the rate of $7.50 for each day in which they are in attendance on the Courts. Based on the supposition that there would be 300 working days in a year for all the reporters combined, the estimated cost of working the proposed scheme in a given year would amount to $2,-250.00. This estimate will not be exceeded without the approval of the Finance Committee and the recommendation is to come into force on September 1st, 1936.

The Committee recommends that particulars of Statutes proclaimed should be reprinted from the Ontario Gazette and from the Canada Gazette in the Weekly Notes for the week following.

The Committee recommends that the dates of argument and of judgment of reported cases be inserted in the Society's reports.

The Committee recommends that the proceedings of Convocation be published in the Ontario Reports monthly in narrative and abbreviated form to be prepared by the Secretary and approved by the Treasurer or Chairman of Convocation.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE TORONTO LEGAL AID BUREAU

Mr. Robertson.

The Committee appointed to consider the matter of the Toronto Legal Aid Bureau formed by junior members of the Toronto Bar to give free legal advice to persons on relief, beg leave to report as follows:

The Committee met with two members of the Toronto Legal Aid Bureau to consider the project and the regulations submitted by the Bureau. The Committee recommend that Convocation should heartily endorse the project and commend the members of the Junior Bar for their public spirit and unselfish enterprise in undertaking a much needed work. Their plans extend somewhat beyond the mere giving of free legal advice and extend to the rendering of other legal services to persons on relief.

The Committee have considered the regulations submitted to Convocation by the Trustees of the Bureau and approve them subject to some minor changes suggested by the Committee to the Members of the Bureau who were present at the meeting of the Committee. The Bureau is a flexible organization under the direction of a Board of Trustees chosen by the Junior Bar from its members and reconsideration and alteration of the regulations can be made as experience gained in the work of the Bureau may indicate to be advisable. The Trustees desire that as occasion may arise they should have the right to consult the members of your Committee on any of their problems and subject to the approval of Convocation the Committee propose that this be agreed to.

The Bureau has some necessary expenses, not only for its own operation but at times for disbursements incidental to steps taken on behalf of persons seeking their assistance. Their regulations provide that persons seeking legal aid shall be informed that if possible a fee not exceeding fifty cents shall be paid, the money to be used for the expenses of the Bureau, but the experience has been that the persons applying to them could not be asked to pay anything. The result has been in some cases that the disbursements have come from the pocket of the legal adviser. The Committee recommend that Convocation put the Trustees in funds to the extent of $50.00 to be used for the work of the Bureau.

The Committee further recommend that the Bar in other larger centres, such as Hamilton, Ottawa, London and Windsor be requested to establish similar Bureaus. Members of the Toronto Junior Bar had already initiated some steps towards this end. ## EXCHANGE AND OTHER SPECIAL LECTURES.

No exchange of lectures took place during the session of 1935-1936 but it is hoped that they may later be resumed. It was recommended that authority be given therefore to arrange an exchange and to pay an honorarium of $200.00.

Owing to the absence from Toronto of Mr. J. G. Glassco of Messrs. Clarkson & Co., the lectures on bookkeeping were given during the session of 1935-1936 by Mr. C. A. Patterson and were entirely satisfactory, but as Mr. Glassco will be in Toronto during the ensuing session, it was recommended that Mr. Glassco, or if he should not be available, then Mr. Patterson, be requested to give a course of lectures on bookkeeping to the Third Year and that he receive an honorarium of $200.00.

REGULAR TEACHING STAFF.

It was recommended that the part-time lecturers, namely, Messrs. Clute, Foster, Robinette, Spence, Borden, Morden and McFadden be re-appointed for a term of one year from May 31st, 1936.

CHANGES IN COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

The changes in the courses of instruction as outlined in the annual report of September 17, 1935, under the heading "Prospective Changes" were carried into effect so far as was possible during the session of 1935-1936. Substantial changes were made in the First Year courses, including the transfer of Criminal Procedure from the Second Year to the First Year, the enlargement of the First Year course in Practice, and the transfer of part of the course in Contracts from the First Year to the Second Year. Consequential changes in the Second Year courses will become effective during the ensuing session.

EXAMINATIONS FOR MATRICULANT STUDENTS.

Rule 86C, as amended on June 20, 1935, provides:

"Students of the matriculant class shall be required, during or at the end of the period of two years when they are not attending the law school, to pass such examinations as may be prescribed by Convocation."

As pointed out in the annual report of September 17, 1935, all students of the matriculant class were required to attend the law school during the session of 1935-1936, so that it was not necessary to prescribe any examinations during that session under Rule 86C. The time has now arrived, however, when provision must be made for such examinations, and certain recommendations have been made for examinations to be held in May, 1937. The students who will be required to take these examinations will be (1) students who attended the law school in 1935-1936 in the first of their five years of service under articles, and (2) students who attended the law school in 1935-1936 in the second of their five years of service. The matter is being considered by the Legal Education Committee, and that Committee will report to Convocation in due course. At a later date it will be necessary to consider what examinations should be prescribed for May, 1938, for the first of the two classes of students above mentioned.

IT WAS ORDERED that the recommendations of the Dean in his report be approved.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON RULES RESPECTING ACCOUNTS.

Mr. Mason presented the report of the Special Committee on Rules Respecting Accounts, as follows:—

Report of the Special Committee appointed by Convocation on September 17th, 1936, to consider Rules Respecting Accounts.

TO THE BENCHERS OF THE LAW SOCIETY OF UPPER CANADA
in Convocation assembled—

Your Committee begs leave to report as follows:—

Your Committee was asked to consider rules respecting accounts, to draft such rules and legislation, if any,
as your Committee might think appropriate in Ontario and to report to Convocation thereon.

The Law Society Act, R.S.O. 1927, ch. 192, gives the Benchers power to make rules for various purposes. There is no section of the Act dealing specifically with the accounts to be kept by barristers and solicitors, but sec. 35 provides that the Benchers may make rules for the government of the Society and other purposes connected therewith.

If it should be considered by Convocation that legislation to give effect to such rules is necessary or desirable, your Committee recommends the procuring of legislation similar to the legislation enacted in England in 1933. The relevant provisions in the English statute are:—

“1. The Council of the Law Society shall make rules—

- (a) as to the opening and keeping by solicitors of accounts at banks for clients' moneys; and
- (b) as to the keeping by solicitors of accounts containing particulars and information as to moneys received, held or paid by them, for or on account of their clients; and
- (c) empowering the Council to take such action as may be necessary to enable them to ascertain whether or not the rules are being complied with;

and may, if they see fit, make rules for regulating in respect of any other matter the professional practice, conduct, and discipline of solicitors.

Provided that rules made under this section shall not come into operation until they have been approved by the Master of the Rolls.

2. (1) If a solicitor fails to comply with any of the rules made under the preceding section, any person may make a complaint in respect of that failure to the disciplinary committee.

(2) The provisions of Part 1 of the Solicitors Act, 1932, shall apply in relation to complaints under this section as they apply in relation to applications to the committee under the said Part 1;

Provided that in addition to the powers conferred on the committee by subsection (2) of section five of the said Act the committee and, upon appeal, the High Court shall have power to impose on the solicitor a penalty not exceeding five hundred pounds, and any penalty so imposed shall be forfeit to His Majesty.”

It would be unnecessary to include the provisos contained in the above sections.

Subsection (2) of sec. 2 would not be required. The sections should be made to apply to both barristers and solicitors.

Your Committee has considered the rules respecting accounts in force in England, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba and, if Convocation should decide that rules should be enacted, recommends the adoption of the following rules:—

1. Every barrister and solicitor shall keep such books and accounts in connection with his practice as may be necessary to show and distinguish (a) the moneys received from or on account of and the moneys paid to or on account of each of his clients, and (b) the moneys received and the moneys paid on his own account.

2. Every barrister and solicitor who holds or receives money on account of a client (save money hereinafter expressly exempted from the application of this rule) shall forthwith pay such money into an account at a chartered bank (or trust company or loan company authorized by law to receive money on deposit) to be kept in the name of such barrister and solicitor and designated as the trust or client account. Any barrister and solicitor may keep one such account, or as many as he thinks fit. Provided that where a barrister and solicitor receives money representing in part money belonging to the client and in part money due to the barrister and solicitor, he may, where practicable, split the money and pay into the trust or client account that part only which represents money belonging to the client. In any other case he shall pay the whole of such money into the trust or client account.

3. Except as in these rules otherwise provided, no money shall be paid into the trust or client account other than:

- (a) Money held or received on account of a client;
- (b) Money for the replacement of any sum which may by mistake or accident have been drawn from the account in contravention of these rules;
- (c) Money received by the barrister and solicitor representing in part money belonging to the client and in part money due to the barrister and solicitor, when the same has not been split as provided by Rule 2 hereof.

4. Except as in these rules otherwise provided, no money shall be drawn from the trust or client account other than:

- (a) Money properly required for payment to or on behalf of a client or for or towards payment of moneys due to the barrister and solicitor from a client, or money drawn on the client's authority or money in respect of which there is a liability of the client to the barrister and solicitor; provided, that the money so drawn shall not in any case exceed the total of the money so held for the time being for such client;
- (b) Money which may by mistake or accident have been paid into such account in contravention of these rules;
- (c) Such money belonging to the barrister and solicitor as may have been paid into the account under Rule 3(c);

5. Rules 2, 3 and 4 shall not apply to money which:

- (a) The client in writing requests a barrister and solicitor to withhold from the trust or client account or to deposit elsewhere;
- (b) A barrister and solicitor pays into a separate account opened or to be opened in the name of a client or some person named by that client or the duly authorized agent of that client;

- (c) In the ordinary course of business upon receipt is paid on behalf of the client to a third party;
- (d) Is upon receipt paid to the client;
- (e) Is paid to a barrister and solicitor expressly on account of costs.

6. No barrister and solicitor shall at any time permit the account of a person in any trust or client account to be overdrawn.

7. The benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada and (or) the discipline committee, acting either on their own motion or on written complaint lodged with them may at any time require an investigation to be made by a Chartered Accountant designated by the benchers and (or) the discipline committee, either by general regulation or particular designation, of the books and accounts of any member or members of the Law Society for the purpose of ascertaining and reporting whether these rules have been and are being complied with by such member or members and such member or members shall produce to such Chartered Accountant all such evidence, vouchers, records, books and papers as such Chartered Accountant may require for the purpose of such investigation. Such Chartered Accountant shall report to the discipline committee in such manner as that committee may require.

Before instituting an investigation on a complaint made by a third person, the benchers and (or) the discipline committee may require prima facie evidence that a ground of complaint exists, and may require the payment by such complainant to the Law Society of a reasonable sum to be fixed by the benchers and (or) the discipline committee to cover costs of the investigation and the costs of the barrister and solicitor against whom the complaint is made. The benchers and (or) the discipline committee may deal with any sum so paid in such manner as they think fit.

Such Chartered Accountant shall report the result of his investigation to the benchers and (or) the discipline committee and furnish a copy of his report to the said member or members.

8. Nothing in these rules shall deprive a barrister and solicitor of any recourse or right, whether by way of lien, set-off, counterclaim, charge or otherwise, against moneys standing to the credit of a trust or client account.

9. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, the words “barrister and solicitor” include a firm of barristers and solicitors and a person who is either a barrister or solicitor. The word “money” includes current coin, government or bank notes, cheques, drafts, post office orders or express or bank money orders. The word “client” includes any person or body of persons corporate or unincorporate on whose behalf a barrister and solicitor in connection with his practice receives money.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and words in the singular shall include the plural, and words in the plural shall include the singular.

10. The benchers, on the report of the discipline committee, shall have power to treat any infringement of these rules or any failure to comply therewith as professional misconduct.

11. These rules shall come into operation on the day of                      A.D. 1937.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated this 2nd day of November, 1936.

RE LIBRARY EXTENSION AND BUILDING ALTERATIONS.

Mr. G. L. Smith presented his report on the proposed Library Extension and Building Alterations, as follows:

ACCOMMODATION FOR LAWYERS.

Suggested alterations to East Wing —

On the ground floor—Provide in the present space now occupied by the Lecturers, etc., accommodation for the lawyers' robing rooms and lavatory accommodation. This space should be divided or added to to accommodate 300 lawyers and 50 women lawyers.

Upstairs—The present Convocation Hall to be taken over for the exclusive accommodation of lawyers awaiting business in the Courts and there should be some arrangement made for consulting rooms for clients, and a new bridge constructed connecting the "Lawyers' Hall" with the Courts which will go across the intervening space and through the present room now used for the Riddell Library. It is proposed to furnish "Lawyers'

Hall'' with tables, chairs, proper lighting and book cases for law periodicals.

There should also be some arrangement made at the north end of Convocation Hall for the kitchen and pantry so that meals can be served in ''Lawyers' Hall.''

The Editor of the Law Reports and his assistant can be accommodated in the old consulting rooms opposite the Benchers' Library, or upstairs.

New accommodation for the Secretary must also be provided on the ground floor with proper vaults. The present Secretary's office will be taken into the Benchers' quarters and divided into a room for the Treasurer in the north hall and a cloak room for the Benchers on the south with lavatory accommodation for both rooms.

LAW SCHOOL.

It is proposed that the Law School be improved so as to provide accommodation for the students' library on the ground floor, also a students' study adjacent to the library, for four Professors' rooms which will open into the study so that the library can be used by both Professors and students.

On the floor above the students' library, there will be a students' examination hall which should be large enough to accommodate 300 students for examination purposes and students' Assembly Hall, Moot Courts, etc.

The present students' library on the top floor can be used as a common room or students' recreation room. Later on, if not required, it might be utilized as a stock room for the Great Library.

Attention should be given to the question of air-conditioning for the Lecture Rooms and a new heating plant must be installed large enough to accommodate the whole of the Law Society's premises, or else, supplementary to the present plant to provide heat to the Barristers' and Benchers' rooms which are now heated from the Government plant in the main building.

EXTENSION OF GREAT LIBRARY.

The plans for the extension of the Great Library are now being prepared by the Government Architects and Engineers of the Department of Public Works, but, have not yet received the approval of the Minister.

The Architects have promised to submit these plans to the Law Society within the next few days, and, if approved, the matter will then be taken up by the Minister.

As an Order-in-Council was passed in May of the year 1923 approving of the extension, I think there is no doubt that the extension will be authorized, but, it has not yet been decided whether the Government will do the work, or, whether it is the wish of the Department that the Society should undertake the work under Government supervision. That question will be for the Minister to decide but, if the Society decides to accept the Government's plans for this extension, it will be necessary to immediately take up a plan for the accommodation of the lawyers in the East Wing.

I have been conferring with Mr. J. A. Pearson of the late firm of Darling & Pearson and Mr. Saunders of the firm of Saunders & Ryrie and Mr. Saunders has prepared a sketch of the extension of the Great Library which has been submitted to the Department of Public Works.

I have instructed Mr. Saunders to prepare a sketch plan of the proposed alterations to Convocation Hall and the Law School which I hope will be presented for your consideration at this meeting of Convocation.

As Mr. Pearson is not practising actively at the present time, my recommendation would be that he should be employed as consulting Architect and that the Society engage either Mr. Saunders or another firm of Architects to prepare the plans and specifications and obtain tenders.

Mr. Pearson has approved of Mr. Saunders to do this work under his supervision, but that, I think, is a matter for Convocation to decide. Mr. Saunders has superintended the work already done in the Benchers' quarters and I have confidence in his judgment, taste and skill, and whether he is employed or not to prepare the plans for the addition to the Law School, I would recommend that he be retained to supervise the Government work for the extension of the Great Library and also the work to be done to convert the present Convocation Hall and ground floor and Benchers' quarters as I find that he is particularly good at interior decorating and the purchase of the necessary furniture and equipment.

If a final decision is taken on these matters, the Library Committee should be consulted in regard to the extension of the Great Library and the Legal Education Committee should be consulted in regard to the improvements to the Law School.

THE REPORT WAS RECEIVED.

Mr. Hellmuth expressed to Mr. Smith the thanks of the Benchers for his admirable work in these matters and for his concrete suggestions as to improvements in Osgoode Hall.

Moved by Mr. Hellmuth, seconded by Mr. Denison, and carried, that the proposals as outlined by Mr. Smith in these matters be proceeded with forthwith, such proposals to include the engaging of an Architect and consulting Architect as recommended.

Moved by Mr. Mason, seconded by Mr. Walsh and carried that the matter be referred to a Special Committee to be composed of the Treasurer and Mr. Smith with power to add to their numbers such Committee to have instructions to proceed and full powers to act.

MEMORIAL OF THE LATE TREASURER,

M. H. LUDWIG, K.C.

Mr. Sims presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late Treasurer, Michael Herman Ludwig, K.C., and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to his family.

The Benchers in Convocation assembled desire to record their sense of the loss sustained by the death of Mr. Michael Herman Ludwig, K.C., on the 2nd January, 1937.

Mr. Ludwig was the son of an officer in the French Army, and was born at Sebringville, Ontario, on the 14th February, 1867. He was educated at Stratford Collegiate Institute and at University College, Toronto, where he attracted the attention of those who knew him by his all round capacity as a student. He entered Osgoode Hall in Hilary Term, 1884, and was called to the Bar in Hilary Term, 1889, being awarded the Gold Medal as 1st scholarship man throughout his entire course. Mr. Ludwig first read law with Messrs. Woods, Fisher & McPherson, Stratford, and subsequently became a partner of the late Mr. C. H. Ritchie, K.C., and practised in Toronto. Shortly after his Call to the Bar he was appointed Examiner for the Law Society and occupied this position from 1890 to 1892. He was created one of His Majesty's Counsel in 1910. He was elected President of the Ontario Bar Association in 1913, and was also Vice-President of the York County Law Association in the years 1912-1913. He was appointed a Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada April 6th, 1913, and became a Life Bencher in 1931. He took a keen interest in the affairs of the Law Society, especially in matters pertaining to legal education, and in 1923 was appointed Chairman of the Legal Education Committee, a post which he occupied until his election as Treasurer of the Society in October, 1936. For the past twelve years he was the representative of the Law Society of Upper Canada on the Senate of the University of Toronto. During this time he acquired a wealth of information and experience in the field of education, which he never failed to unstintingly use for the benefit of students.

At the Bar he had a distinguished career as counsel, and at the time of his death was the senior member of the firm of Messrs. Ludwig, Shuyler & Fisher.

Mr. Ludwig's ardent and useful participation in the affairs of this Society will make his loss deeply felt, not only by his colleagues and friends, but by a wide circle in the profession and business world.

His chief recreation was in outdoor life at his summer residence in the Georgian Bay, and he was a keen and ardent fisherman. He was a member of the York Club, the Toronto Club, the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, the Ontario Jockey Club, Scarboro Golf and Country Club and the Albany Club. A Conservative in politics, but he took no very active interest in political affairs.

He was married in June, 1894, to Kate McCall, daughter of the late Dugald McCall, who pre-deceased him, and has one daughter. He subsequently married Edith Gaskell, who survives him.

The Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada desire to extend to his family their deep sympathy in the irreparable loss they have sustained, and direct that the foregoing account of his career and activities be recorded in the proceedings of Convocation.

DEAN'S REPORT.

Mr. Middlebro read the annual report of the Dean of the Law School as follows:

Annual Report of the Dean of the Law School.

14th September, 1937.

1. I beg leave to submit my fourteenth annual report as Dean of the Osgoode Hall Law School, namely, for the law school session of 1936-1937.

REGISTRATION OF STUDENTS.

2. The number of students registered and in attendance at the law school during the last two years was as follows:

	1935-1936	1936-1937
First year .....	161	121
Second year .....	131	99
Third year .....	100	127
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	392	347

(In 1935-1936 the first year class was abnormally large by reason of the fact that under rule 107 as amended on June 20, 1935, all students of the Matriculant class were required to attend the law school during the first, instead of the third year of their five years of service under articles.)

HOURS OF CLASS INSTRUCTION.

3. The number of hours of class instruction given by the members of the regular teaching staff during the session of 1936-1937 was as follows:

	First year	Second year	Third year	Total
The Dean .....	48	78	44	170
Dr. D. A. MacRae ...	36	48	82	166
Dr. C. A. Wright ....	52	36	78	166
Mr. A. R. Clute .....	30	40	42	112
Mr. H. W. A. Foster.	36	24	24	84
Mr. J. J. Robinette..	80	..	..	80
Mr. W. F. Spence...	..	..	30	30
Mr. H. Borden .....	..	32	..	32
Mr. K. G. Morden ...	..	42	..	42
Mr. J. W. McFadden	18	..	..	18
	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
	300	300	300	900

BOOKKEEPING AND ACCOUNTING.

4. I recommend that Mr. J. G. Glassco of the firm of Messrs. Clarkson & Company, or if his services should not be available, Mr. C. A. Patterson of the same firm, be requested again to give a course of lectures to the Third year on bookkeeping and accounting, and that he receive an honorarium of $200.00.

REGULAR TEACHING STAFF AND COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

5. Some changes in the teaching staff and rearrangements of subjects will become effective during the ensuing session. Mr. Robinette who for the past two years has lectured on the subject of Torts, has retired from the teaching staff, and his subject will be taken by Dr. Wright. I will take Contracts (in two parts, in the first and second years), in Dr. Wright's place, and my former subjects of Personal Chattels (in the first year) and Bills and Notes (in the second year) will be taken by Mr. A. A. Macdonald, K.C. and Mr. H. P. Edge respectively.

6. More recently Mr. Borden has under his physician's advice resigned from the teaching staff, and a new appointment will be necessary in the subject of Company Law. I have consequently rearranged the time-table of lectures so that this subject will not be given until after Christmas.

7. I recommend that the other part-time members of the staff, namely, Messrs. Clute, Foster, Spence, Morden and McFadden, be reappointed for a term of one year from May 31st, 1937.

EXAMINATIONS FOR MATRICULANT STUDENTS.

8. In accordance with rule 86C, as amended on June 20, 1935, all students of the matriculant class who were not in attendance at the law school during the session of 1936-1937 were directed by Convocation to submit themselves for examination on Marriott's English Political Institutions and certain prescribed documents. The examination was held in April, 1937, the paper being set, and the answers read, by me. The results were in my opinion satisfactory, and I recommend that in April, 1938, a similar examination on the same book and documents be held for students of the matriculant class who attended the law school in the session of 1936-1937 in the first of their five years of service under articles. Provision should also be made for a further examination for students of the matriculant class who attended the law school in the session of 1935-1936 in the first of their five years of service. As these students have already passed an examination on Marriott's book, it will be necessary to prescribe another book or subject for them, and I will at an early date submit my suggestions to the Legal Education Committee, so that due notice may be given to the students.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

“JOHN D. FALCONBRIDGE”
Dean.

IT WAS ORDERED that the recommendations of the Dean in his report be approved, subject to the reservation that the Dean be requested to furnish the Legal Education Committee with further information as to the change in subjects assigned to certain lecturers.

RE SOLICITORS FAILING TO REPLY.

Mr. McCarthy presented the report of the Discipline Committee herein.

The Committee reports to Convocation a condition of affairs which undoubtedly is all too frequent where Solicitors ignore the communications to them where complaints have been laid in regard to their honour and integrity.

In going over a number of complaints lodged in the past few months, the Committee observe that in many cases Solicitors ignore the letters from the Secretary, and in one case recently five letters were written to a Solicitor which have remained unanswered, and the Committee would like to obtain instructions from Convocation as to what steps should be taken in circumstances of this kind and whether the action of a Solicitor in ignoring the letters from the Secretary could be regarded as conduct unbecoming a Solicitor where complaints have been laid against him which involve his honour and integrity.

The report was received.

Convocation recommended to the Discipline Committee that where a Solicitor fails to reply to letters with respect to complaints the Solicitor be notified that unless an explanation is submitted forthwith, an investigation of his books and accounts will be made under the Rules Respecting Accounts, or a formal complaint for investigation will be laid.

REPORTING COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. Urquhart.

The Committee recommend certain changes in the set-up and type of the Ontario Reports and the Ontario Weekly Notes and a three year extension of the printing contract with The Carswell Company Limited.

The request of G. H. Phillimore for permission to use the head-notes of the Ontario Weekly Notes and Ontario Reports, at his discretion, in his preparation of the Quebec Annual Law Digest 1937, was refused.

The question of the Editors publishing in the Ontario Reports an editorial note explaining the significance of each case, similar to those appearing now in the All England Reports, was discussed. In view of the great difference of opinion among the Committee, it was decided to defer this until the March meeting for further consideration.

The Chairman spoke of certain suggestions of the Judges as to the publication of the reports. These were discussed together with other suggestions as to the contents of the Ontario Weekly Notes and the Ontario Reports.

The case of McLean v. McCannell, decided in May, 1936, by the Court of Appeal and later upheld in the Supreme Court of Canada, was ordered to be published in the January number of the Ontario Reports, together with a note as to the Supreme Court reference.

The Committee expressed its opinions as to the contents and form of the cases to be published in the Ontario Weekly Notes and the consensus of opinion seemed to be that more cases of insufficient importance to be published in the Ontario Reports, should be published in the Ontario Weekly Notes, and that the note of the cases which are subsequently to be published in the Ontario Reports should be curtailed, consistent, of course, with the proper reporting of the case. The Editors were instructed to proceed along these lines and the matter was adjourned until the March meeting to see how this plan would work out.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

---

UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE COMMITTEE REPORT.

In the absence of the Chairman, Mr. Kerr presented the report.

RE W. MURDOCH (Notary Public) Ottawa.

This was a case of the name of W. Murdoch appearing on the letter-head of R. V. Sinclair, K.C., Ottawa, and a complaint having been received that Mr. Murdoch's name appearing on said letter-head might lead the public to believe he was a practising Solicitor. On the matter being brought to the attention of Mr. Sinclair he advised the Committee that Mr. Murdoch's name had been removed from his letter-head and would not appear thereon in the future.

RE CHARLES BLACK, Niagara Falls.

Mr. Black enquired as to the use on his letter-head of the following words "Formerly Solicitor before the Supreme Courts of Scotland." The Committee is of the opinion that the letter-head should not contain any reference to his having been a solicitor as when that reference is included the public might come to the conclusion that they are obtaining the services of a solicitor, and recommend that Mr. Black be so notified.

RE DISBARMENTS.

The Treasurer has brought to the attention of the Committee the fact that some disbarred Barristers continue the use of the initials K.C. following their name and suggests that consideration be given to the matter.

The Committee recommend that in future the Attorney-General of Ontario be notified of disbarments and that Rule 80 be further amended accordingly.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

RE CASE BOOKS.

The Committee approves and submits to Convocation the following report of the Sub-Committee herein—

1. Pursuant to the following resolution—

“The question of Case Books was referred for consideration and report to a Sub-Committee to be named by the Chairman,” the Chairman nominated The Treasurer and Messrs. Carson, Sims, and White to be members of the Sub-Committee.

The first meeting was held on January 6th, 1938, at which The Treasurer and Mr. Sims (together with the Chairman) were present. Meetings were subsequently held on January 13th, April 2nd and April 20th, 1938, and the Dean was also consulted and submitted specifications for tenders for a new case book on Conflict of Laws.

Your Sub-Committee has made numerous enquiries into the subject generally but has come to the conclusion that before any action is taken upon the general topic it would be well to ascertain what is the lowest price at which a case book can be mimeographed and furnished to the students and accordingly your Sub-Committee recommend that it be authorized to call for tenders for a case book on Conflict of Laws upon the specifications prepared by the Dean (a copy of which specifications are submitted herewith), and therefore your Sub-Committee ask that they be authorized to call for tenders as suggested either by advertisement or circular with power to accept or reject the same or to defer a decision thereon until the matter can be again brought before your Committee.

Your Sub-Committee also asks that it be allowed to continue its enquiry into the subject of the use of case books and other prepared material in general and to report later to your Committee upon any other features of the subject into which it may make enquiries.

RE AMENDMENT OF RULE 118.

Convocation referred to this Committee the following Motion by Mr. Shaver—

“That Rule 118 as amended be further amended to read as follows:—

118. A student who has failed to pass the examinations of any year may repeat such year once and for such purpose may again attend the lectures and submit himself for examination in the subjects of that year.”

The Committee recommends that no action be taken on the Motion.

RE BOOK-KEEPING LECTURES.

Consideration of an examination in this subject was deferred to this meeting. A memorandum from the Dean is submitted.

The Committee recommends that an examination be held in this subject for the year 1938-39, the Dean to arrange the details and a convenient time for holding the examination in accordance with his recommendation.

The Benchers in Convocation assembled record with deep regret the death of Mr. William Alves Morgan Boys, K.C., late of the town of Barrie, who died on the 20th day of February, 1938.

Mr. Boys was born at Barrie on July 9, 1868, the son of the late Judge Boys and his wife, Mary Frances Morgan. Educated at Barrie Public School and Collegiate Institute, and later at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, he was Called to the Bar in the year 1893, and entered into practice in his native town which practice he carried on as a leading member of the Bar until his death. Mr. Boys took a deep interest in public affairs. He was Mayor of Barrie from 1902 until 1904, County Commissioner for 1905-6, and Warden of Simcoe County in 1907. He was at one time President of the Ontario Municipal Association. At a By-election held on June 10, 1912, Mr. Boys was elected to the House of Commons as member for South Simcoe, filling a vacancy due to the elevation to the Bench of the sitting member, Mr. Haughton Lennox. He was re-elected in the General Elections of 1917, 1921, 1925, and 1926. He stood high in the Councils of the Conservative Party and was Chief Whip of the Party. Mr. Boys withdrew from politics in 1930, and somewhat later, was appointed a Director of Canadian National Railway, which position he occupied for some years.

A devout Anglican, Mr. Boys was deeply interested in the work of Trinity Church in Barrie. Having a fine taste in music, he was particularly helpful in the services of the church and sang in the choir for upwards of fifty years.

Mr. Boys excelled in athletics, being an outstanding hockey and tennis player, member of the Champion Osgoode Hall hockey team, as well as the holder of the All-Canadian tennis championship. Later he was prominent in curling and became president of the Ontario Curling Association.

Throughout these various activities of a useful life, Mr. Boys earned the respect of those whom he served and with whom he associated. His qualities of heart and mind brought him many warm friendships.

The Committee recommends that Convocation leave the matter in the hands of the Building Committee with power to act and to call for tenders and before the acceptance of a tender to submit to Convocation the plan to be finally adopted and agreed upon by the Building Committee and the Department of Public Works.

The Committee recommends that the distribution of the books of the Society among the several available locations be left in its hands to be determined at a later date when the Committee will be in a better position to report a scheme.

That the said Harold Graham Meir is unworthy to practise as a Solicitor.

and by adding to Rule 61 a further sub-section to read as follows:

“61(3)—Subject to the provisions of Rule 64 the total amount paid to the County of York Law Association in any year shall not exceed $2,000.00.”

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE (Continued).

RE SOLICITORS IN ARREARS FOR FEES.

Mr. McCarthy presented the report of the Discipline Committee herein, as follows:

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada
in Convocation assembled:

The Discipline Committee begs leave to report as follows:

This matter was referred to the Committee by reason of a suggestion made to Convocation that it might be advisable to investigate the accounts of Solicitors who were in arrears in payment of their fees, fearing that possibly if they were pressed for payment that resort might be had to clients' funds to enable them to answer the demand.

A list of Solicitors in arrears for fees was submitted to the Committee as of March of this year, from which it appears that about 140 solicitors are in arrears for their fees, and approximately 20 barristers, amounting in all to approximately $7,000.00.

An analysis of the list submitted reveals the fact that about 60 were in arrears for $50.00 and over; about 27 were in arrears for $70.00 and over; about 12 were in arrears for $100.00 and over, and 3 were in arrears for $150.00 and over.

The Committee were of opinion that Solicitors who allowed their fees to become in arrears to any great extent were a menace to the profession, and it was suggested that the Chairman of this Committee should confer with the Chairman of the Finance Committee to see if some means could not be devised to more adequately deal with Solicitors becoming in arrears and if necessary to stop them practising while they were in arrears. Under the provisions of the Act a Solicitor is not permitted to practise and is subject to a penalty if he continues to practise without having taken out a certificate from year to year, and it is probable that a great many of the Solicitors who are now in arrears are actively engaged in practising contrary to the provisions of the Statute.

The Chairman conferred with the Chairman of the Finance Committee, who agrees that some steps should be taken to remedy this situation, but he expressed some doubt as to how the matter should be dealt with.

The Committee does not feel justified in incurring the expense of investigating the accounts of the different Solicitors who are in arrears even for substantial amounts, but the Committee is of opinion that a sub-committee should be formed, composed of members of the Finance Committee, the Committee on Unauthorized Practice and this Committee, to deal with this situation, and if necessary to investigate the different Solicitors who are in arrears to ascertain what their present position is and whether they are actively engaged in practice or not, with power to take such steps as may be necessary to compel the Solicitors to adjust their arrears.

The Committee also feels that Convocation might be justified in considering a change in the Rules by which a Solicitor would be automatically suspended if he was in arrears for his fees for say two years, or such period as Convocation may determine, and the Committee further suggests that Convocation request the joint Committee so appointed to report to them the result of their deliberations, with suggestions as to overcoming the present difficulties.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 13th day of May, 1938.

Chairman.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

The Treasurer appointed the following Special Committee—
Messrs. McCarthy, Mason, and G. L. Smith.

RE “BONDED LAWYERS ASSOCIATIONS.”

Mr. McCarthy presented the report of the Discipline Committee herein, as follows:

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada
in Convocation assembled:

The Discipline Committee begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee has before it a letter from Mr. A. B., a Solicitor, advising the Society that he had an arrangement whereby he was dividing his fees with the Canada Bonded Attorney & Legal Directory Limited, on collections sent to him by that Company, and asking the Committee whether under the circumstances it was proper for him so to do.

In reply to Mr. A. B.'s letter the Secretary sent him a copy of the report of the Discipline Committee dated the 20th day of January, 1933, duly adopted by Convocation on the 16th February, 1933, and a reply was received from the Solicitor saying that since this matter was called to his attention the practice of dividing fees with this Company would be discontinued.

Convocation will remember that a somewhat similar question arose in the case of E. D., who was splitting fees with a Notary Public, and the ruling of the Committee, as approved by Convocation, was duly published in the Ontario Weekly Notes, and the Committee therefore feel that a similar practice should be followed in connection with the Canada Bonded Attorney & Legal Directory Limited.

As there seems to be some doubt in the minds of the members of the profession regarding the ethics of these arrangements, the Committee suggest that an appropriate notice or memorandum be published under the authority of Convocation in the Ontario Weekly Notes, calling the attention of the profession to the practice adopted by Canada Bonded Attorney & Legal Directory Limited in their dealings with Solicitors in this province, and notifying the members of the profession that Convocation regards practice of this nature as professional misconduct and conduct unbecoming a Barrister and Solicitor.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 13th day of May, 1938.

Chairman.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. Mason reported that the Committee had dealt only with routine matters and had no formal report to present.

COUNTY LIBRARIES COMMITTEE REPORT.

In the absence of the Chairman, Mr. H. D. Smith presented the report.

1. That the Report of the Special Committee on the question of an increase in grants to County Law Libraries to be submitted to Convocation was before this Committee.

2. Applications for Special Grants.

Grey Law Association.

Application for $250.00 to enable the Association to purchase a set of reports.

Rainy River Law Association.

Application for $300.00 to cover indebtedness.

Dufferin Law Association.

Application for a grant of $300.00 to purchase certain books.

Huron Law Association.

Application for a grant of $200.00.

Brant Law Association.

Application for a grant of $200.00 to compensate for the reduction in the amount of the Annual grant, owing to the rule limiting the grant to $20.00 a member.

The Committee is unable to recommend that the applications be granted but if the Associations apply for loans for the purposes they will be considered.

Lambton Law Association.

This Association applies for a Special Grant of $250.00 each year, in addition to the regular annual grant.

The Committee is unable to recommend this grant.

The Committee, while anxious to assist County Law Associations, is not disposed to consider with favour applications for a special grant or loan where a County Association, without first obtaining the approval of the County Libraries Committee has incurred debts or obligations which, in view of its annual income, it could not reasonably expect to pay without a special grant or loan, and it is suggested that in the future County Law Associations before incurring such liabilities, should submit to the County Libraries Committee for its approval, a list of books proposed to be purchased.

3. Northumberland Law Association.

The Committee recommend that this matter stand over for a further report from Mr. F. D. Kerr, K.C., on the position of the Association.

4. Timmins and Porcupine Law Association.

A letter dated May 9th, 1938, from the Secretary of the above Law Association was received requesting the establishment of a branch library at Timmins.

The Committee recommend that the Association be requested to formulate a plan as to the proposed branch library and submit it to the Law Society for consideration.

5. Re Insurance on Law Libraries.

The Secretary was directed to ascertain on what basis replacement value, in event of loss, is to be ascertained under the forms of policy carried by the Law Society and by the County Law Associations.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE INCREASED GRANTS TO COUNTY LIBRARIES.

The Treasurer, in the absence of the Chairman, read the report of the Special Committee re Increased Grants to County Libraries, as follows:

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada
in Convocation assembled:

The Special Committee appointed by Convocation on the 21st October, 1937, to consider the question of Increased Grants to County Law Libraries, begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee having fully considered the matters referred to it is of the opinion that there should not be a general increase in the amount of grants to County Library Associations.

The Committee is not unmindful that there are from time to time exceptional cases where additional assistance may properly be given but the Committee recommends that such cases be dealt with under the present rules and that as a matter of general practice such special assistance should be by way of loan rather than by grant.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 10th day of May, 1938.

"J. R. MARSHALL,"

Chairman.

On January 19th, 1938, the Committee reported in part as follows:

“The Committee expressed its opinion as to the contents and form of the cases to be published in the Ontario Weekly Notes and the consensus of opinion seemed to be that more cases of insufficient importance to be published in the Ontario Reports, should be published in the Ontario Weekly Notes, and that the notes of the cases which are subsequently to be published in the Ontario Reports should be curtailed, consistent of course with the proper reporting of the case. The Editors were instructed to proceed along these lines and the matter was adjourned until the March meeting to see how this plan would work out."

The Editors were instructed by the Committee to proceed along the lines they have been following since January 19th, 1938.

A letter was read from the Carleton County Law Association suggesting that more judgments should be reported in the Ontario Weekly Notes. The Secretary was instructed to reply and advise the Carleton County Law Association of the action of Convocation.

A letter was read from Mr. J. Shirley Denison, K.C., containing a suggestion of one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Ontario that the Ontario Weekly Notes should contain a suitable reference to unreported decisions. This suggestion was discussed at length by the Committee but it was decided that it should be left over for further consideration in September.

RE JUDGMENTS SUPREME COURT OF CANADA.

A letter was read from the Lawyers' Club of Toronto asking that judgments of the Supreme Court of Canada in respect of the appeals from Ontario should be noted in the Ontario Weekly Notes.

The Committee considered the matter and instructed the Editors to include in the Ontario Weekly Notes a note of the result of each appeal decided in the Supreme Court of Canada in Ontario cases as soon as practicable after the delivery of Judgment. The Secretary was instructed to advise the Lawyers' Club accordingly.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE HONOURABLE JAMES MAGEE.

Mr. Denison presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late Honourable James Magee, and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to his family.

Convocation records with deep regret the death on the 16th of May, 1938, of the Honourable James Magee who in 1891 had been elected a Bencher and who upon his retirement as a Judge of the Supreme Court of Ontario on the 31st of July, 1933, became again a Bencher ex officio.

The Honourable James Magee, though of Irish descent, was born in Liverpool, England, on March 26th, 1846, and came to Canada at an early age settling in London, Ontario. He was admitted to the Law Society as a student in Easter Term 1862; was Called to the Bar of Ontario in Michaelmas Term 1867, and appointed one of Her Majesty's Counsel in 1890. He filled the position of Crown Attorney for Middlesex County from 1893 to June 25th, 1904, when he was appointed a puisne judge of the High Court of Justice and later a Judge of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Ontario, which latter position he occupied until his retirement.

During his long and honourable career as solicitor, counsel, Crown Attorney and Judge, he won the esteem and regard not only of the profession and the Bench but of the people of the province for his sound legal attainments, his wide experience and knowledge of human nature and for the unvarying dignity courtesy and kindness with which for so many years he discharged his various duties.

To the members of his family Convocation desires to extend the sympathy of its members coupled with this expression of the esteem in which their father is held by the members of the Bar of Ontario.

DEAN'S REPORT.

Mr. Denison presented the report of the Dean of the Law School for the session 1937-38, as follows.

Annual Report of the Dean of The Law School.

12th September, 1938.

1. I beg leave to submit my fifteenth annual report as Dean of the Osgoode Hall Law School, namely, for the law school session of 1937-1938.

REGISTRATION OF STUDENTS.

2. The number of students registered and in attendance at the law school during the last two years was as follows:

	1936-1937	1937-1938
First year .....	121	101
Second year .....	99	110
Third year .....	127	98
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	347	309

HOURS OF CLASS INSTRUCTION.

3. The number of hours of class instruction given by the members of the regular teaching staff during the session of 1937-1938 was as follows:

	First year	Second year	Third year	Total
The Dean .....	40	76	42	158
Dr. MacRae .....	30	42	74	146
Dr. Wright .....	84	.....	76	160
Mr. Clute .....	36	42	34	112
Mr. Foster .....	30	26	24	80
Mr. Spence .....	.....	.....	30	30
Mr. Morden .....	.....	34	.....	34
Mr. McFadden .....	18	.....	.....	18
Mr. Macdonald .....	42	.....	.....	42
Mr. Edge .....	.....	30	.....	30
Mr. Tory .....	.....	30	.....	30
	—	—	—	—
	280	280	280	840

The reduction in the number of hours of class instruction as compared with the normal number (900) was due to the fact that on account of the epidemic of poliomyelitis prevailing in Toronto in September, 1937, the opening of the law school was postponed for two weeks.

BOOK-KEEPING AND ACCOUNTING.

4. As authorized by Convocation the course in book-keeping and accounting given to the Third year will in the session of 1938-1939 be somewhat extended in scope, and the students will be required to pass an examination. I recommend that Mr. J. G. Glassco of the firm of Messrs. Clarkson & Co. or if his services are not available, Mr. C. A. Patterson of the same firm, or some other person approved by Mr. Glassco, be requested to give the course, and set and read the examination papers; and that in view of the extension of the course and the requirement of an examination, the honorarium to be paid be substantially increased.

TEACHING STAFF AND COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

5. The changes in the teaching staff and the rearrangement of subjects outlined in my annual report of 14th September, 1937, became effective in the session of 1937-1938. Mr. John S. D. Tory, B.A., S.J.D., was appointed lecturer on Company Law in place of Mr. Borden, resigned. All the part-time members of the staff have on my recommendation already been reappointed by Convocation for a further term of one year, and no change in the teaching staff or rearrangement of subjects is contemplated for the ensuing session.

BUILDING OPERATIONS.

6. The session of 1937-1938 was a disturbed period, not only because of the delay in the opening of the law school already mentioned, but also because of the extensive building operations which continued during the whole of the session, and which included important alterations and additions in and about the part of Osgoode Hall occupied by the Law School. The students cheerfully co-operated with the secretarial staff and the teaching staff so as to make it possible to carry on the law school work effectively notwithstanding the somewhat unfavourable conditions. The improved accommodation now provided will be appreciated during the ensuing session.

EXAMINATIONS FOR MATRICULANT STUDENTS.

7. In accordance with Rule 86B two examinations were held in April, 1938, for students of the Matriculant Class who were not in attendance at the law school in the session of 1937-1938, namely (1) an examination on Marriott's English Political Institutions and certain prescribed documents for students who were in the second year of their service under articles, and (2) an examination on Kennedy's Constitution of Canada for students who were in their third year of service under articles. I recommend that similar examinations on the same prescribed books be held in April, 1939.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

"JOHN D. FALCONBRIDGE",

Dean.

IT WAS ORDERED that the Report be received and that the recommendations of the Dean therein be approved.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

RE RESTORATION TO THE ROLLS.

Mr. McCarthy presented a report of the Discipline Committee as follows:

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation assembled—

The Discipline Committee begs leave to report as follows:

RE RESTORATION TO THE ROLLS.

Your Committee in approaching the consideration of applications for restoration to the Rolls has had the benefit of being informed of the principles applied and of the practice adopted on similar applications by the Law Societies of the different Provinces of Canada, of the Bars of the State of New York, the State of Pennsylvania and the State of Massachusetts, and also of the Council of the Law Society in England, and have also made themselves familiar with the authorities in this Province, in England, in the different Provinces of Canada and the Supreme Court of Queensland, in which the question of the restoration to the Rolls has been discussed.

The principal considerations which appear to have influenced the determination of such applications in the several jurisdictions above referred to are the following:

(1) The fact that disbarment is to be regarded as essentially permanent in its nature as distinguished from cases where orders have been made suspending Solicitors from practice for stated periods, and that therefore restoration should be recommended only in exceptional circumstances and upon special grounds. A Solicitor is struck off the Rolls because Convocation finds that he was guilty of such grave professional misconduct and conduct so grossly unbecoming a Barrister and Solicitor that he is deemed not fit to remain on the Rolls of the Society. It is the extreme penalty and carries with it no hope of a future within the Society. Unless the Solicitor makes out a case of very special circumstances and shows that he has entirely purged his guilt, and has in all other respects fulfilled the requirements for reinstatement, an investigating body should be slow to recommend his restoration to the Rolls.

(2) The character of the charges upon which the Solicitor was disbarred and the circumstances under which the offence was committed are always matters for consideration on application for restoration. There may be cases in which the punishment of a Solicitor is the outcome of a career of either reckless extravagance or deliberate crime, or there may have been deliberate and studious stealing of clients' funds with the intention to defraud, in which cases an application for restoration should be almost hopeless. On the other hand, there may be cases in which Solicitors have become involved by reason of obligations entered into on behalf of others, or have been the victims of misfortune or of the wrongdoing of others and their misconduct is in part at least to be attributed to the embarrassment and distress arising from these unforeseen circumstances rather than to the studied design or an intention to defraud. In such cases it has been necessary to punish them, but if given a fresh start under proper circumstances they may on being restored to the Rolls of the Society conduct themselves as decent members of the profession.

(3) In cases where the offence is that the Solicitor has misappropriated clients' money it is a prime requisite to reinstatement that complete restitution should always be made. This requirement appears to be a sine qua non even in an application which may otherwise be meritorious, one reason being that obviously a Solicitor should have made restitution before he applies for restoration, but there are further reasons. If a Solicitor is restored to the Rolls and is still in an embarrassed financial position by reason of his old indebtedness, this may have a very deleterious effect on his relations with his clients and the public generally. The pressure of the circumstances that contributed to his former misconduct is still present.

(4) Substantial and satisfactory evidence should be given that there is no probability of the Solicitor offending in the future. In this connection, it should be considered whether a sufficient period has elapsed before the Solicitor makes an application for restoration. This has a very distinct bearing on whether the Solicitor has completely rehabilitated himself. He should establish that his conduct and character are unimpeached and are unimpeachable, and this can be established only by the evidence of trustworthy persons, especially members of the profession and persons with whom the Solicitor has been associated during his disbarment. Evidence to be given orally is to be preferred to evidence by declaration, affidavit or letter. Where such evidence is offered by witnesses interested financially in obtaining the reinstatement of the Solicitor it is not to be regarded too seriously. Evidence that the Solicitor has strictly refrained from engaging in the practice of law since his disbarment is also a matter to be considered in this regard.

(5) Restoration should be recommended only where the Solicitor has shown by a long course of conduct that he is a person to be trusted and in every way fit to be a member of the Society, and unless an investigating body is entirely satisfied on these grounds it should move slowly and with great caution before recommending the restoration of a Solicitor to the Rolls.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 19th day of October, 1938.

“D. L. McCARTHY”,
Chairman.

After discussion, on motion of Mr. McCarthy, the report was received.

RE SOLICITORS ADVERTISING.

Mr. McCarthy presented the report of the Discipline Committee herein, as follows:

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation assembled—

The Discipline Committee begs leave to report as follows:

Your Committee recently called the attention of Convocation to the practice of certain solicitors inserting advertisements in the public press and in various legal papers which, in the opinion of your Committee, were unprofessional and should not be tolerated. Convocation directed your Committee to consider the matter further and report back to Convocation with their suggestions at its next meeting. Your Committee having carefully considered the matter, beg leave to report to Convocation as follows:

Your Committee recommend that the following notice be published in the Ontario Weekly Notes and in such other papers and periodicals as your Committee may think proper:

“The attention of Convocation has been called to certain advertisements appearing in telephone directories and paid advertisements appearing in certain newspapers and periodicals which, in the opinion of Convocation, are solicitation for business, calling attention to the Solicitor's alleged qualification for transacting certain classes of business. These advertisements, in the opinion of Convocation, constitute a departure from the traditions of the Society and tend to lower the tone of the lawyer's high calling and, in the opinion of Convocation, the same should not be tolerated; and in the event of the practice being continued Convocation will take the necessary steps to discipline those solicitors who, in the opinion of Convocation, are guilty of unprofessional conduct in the matter of advertising, contrary to the well established standard of the Society."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 6th day of October, 1938.

"D. L. McCARTHY",
Chairman.

On motion of Mr. McCarthy the report was adopted.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE GEORGE F. HENDERSON, K.C.

Mr. Aylen presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late George Frederick Henderson, K.C. and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation.

Convocation records with deep regret the death on the 27th day of July, 1938, of George Frederick Henderson who, in 1921, had been elected a Benchler and who, in the year 1936, became a life Benchler.

George Frederick Henderson was born at Kingston, Ontario, on the 17th day of February, 1864, a son of Peter Robertson Henderson, Managing Director of the Montreal Transport Company and Henrietta Sweetland. He was educated privately and later attended Kingston Collegiate Institute and Queen's University where he obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1884. He was sworn in as a Solicitor in 1887 and was Called to the Bar during the Trinity term of 1889. Throughout his career at the Bar he practised in the City of Ottawa and finally became the senior member of the present legal firm of Henderson, Herridge, Gowling & MacTavish. At the time of his death he was recognized as the leader of the Ottawa Bar.

In addition to his career as a Barrister the late Mr. Henderson was well known throughout the Province as Drainage and Natural Gas Referee. He was made Drainage Referee for Eastern Ontario in 1906 and for the whole Province in 1909. In 1925 he also became Natural Gas Referee. He was also the author of a handbook of procedure under the Ditches and Water Courses Act.

In spite of his many other duties Mr. Henderson found time to take a great interest in the affairs of his profession. He was President of the County of Carleton Law Association during the years 1907 and 1908 and was Honorary Life President at the time of his death. He was a Member of the Council of the Canadian Bar Association and was made Ontario Vice-President of that organization in the year 1923.

The fact that he was a Director of the Ottawa Electric Railway Company, the Ottawa Traction Company, the Ottawa Light, Heat and Power Company and many other companies and President of the Ottawa Board of Trade during the years 1900 and 1901 indicates how often his advice was sought in business as well as professional matters.

During the latter part of his career at the Bar the late Mr. Henderson took a particular interest in members of the junior Bar and was ever ready and willing to give them the benefit of his advice and experience.

A keen sportsman, he was both a golfer and a curler of note. He was President of the Canadian British Royal Caledonia Curling Association during the years 1923 and 1924; in fact in his adopted City of Ottawa there was scarcely an activity in which he was not interested, if not directly concerned.

Convocation desires to express its esteem for the many and varied talents of the late George Frederick Henderson and to extend to the members of his family its sincere sympathy.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE PRIVY COUNCIL APPEALS.

Mr. Geary presented the report of the Committee, as follows: To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation assembled—

Your Special Committee appointed to consider the matter of Appeals to the Privy Council and the maintenance or abolition thereof, begs leave to report as follows:

The basis of our law (other than in the Province of Quebec) is the law of England and it is in England that the principles of this system of law are most firmly established and best understood. The appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council now provided tends to keep our jurisprudence in harmony with the jurisprudence of Great Britain and the Empire, and, undoubtedly, has its part in maintaining the sense of union of the component parts of the Empire.

We live beside a great nation of one hundred and thirty-five million people and are irresistibly and naturally affected by the development, culturally and otherwise, of that nation. To sever the connection that exists between our judicial system and the British judiciary would increase the tendency to be so affected and so would be detrimental to the maintenance of those British traditions in the administration of justice which have had so large a part in building up the world over respect for British institutions.

In the opinion of your Committee, it would not be the part of wisdom to sacrifice the great advantages to Canada of the right of appeal to the Privy Council because of any growth in the status of Canada as a self-governing Dominion or in the importance of her affairs. It is a unique quality of our Empire that it has been able from time to time to adapt its constitutional practices to the inevitable changes within the Empire, and it should be no impossible task for our Statesmen to devise ways and means suited to the times for preserving to the Dominion this highest Court of Appeal, so that its undeniable benefits to the Dominion may be enjoyed in harmony with the fullest measure of self-government.

Your Committee has noted the contention that the right of appeal to the Privy Council has been abused by the rich to shut out the poor. This has been considered carefully by the Committee and it does not appear that there is substance to the contention; on the other hand the records indicate that in several cases impecunious plaintiffs have taken appeals to the Privy Council either in forma pauperis or otherwise, and succeeded in reversing the judgment of lower courts. Moreover, a survey of the cases indicates that there is no foundation for the suggestion that the litigant who is financially strong is in any way in a preferred position before the Judicial Committee.

Exception has been taken to judgments of the Privy Council in constitutional cases. Frequently that objection is founded on a predilection in favour of either the Dominion or Provincial point of view. It is to be observed that the recent judgments of the Privy Council which appear to have been the immediate cause of the discussion in the last Session of the House of Commons did not reverse the decisions of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Your Committee points out that, while lawyers generally have a keen interest in the maintenance of the appeal to the Judicial Committee because of its steadying influence on our jurisprudence, comparatively few lawyers have been immediately concerned in cases in the Privy Council. There are large sections of the Province of Ontario, for instance, from which no appeal has ever been taken to the Privy Council. It cannot be truly said that the feeling of lawyers on this matter is based on self-interest.

Your Committee recommends that Convocation go on record as being opposed to the abolition of the appeal to the Privy Council.

EXAMINATION RESULTS—Christmas, 1938.

Third Year.

The record of the returns of the examiners of the Christmas examinations for the Third Year is submitted herewith.

Approved.

RE COUNTY OF CARLETON LAW ASSOCIATION.

Convocation referred to the Committee for consideration and report letters of the Association of July 18th, and March 25th, 1938, with reference to matters of legal education. The Committee referred the matter to the Chairman and his memorandum was before the Committee on November 16th, 1938, and was approved and reported to Convocation. At the meeting of Convocation of the 17th November, 1938, it was ordered that the matter stand for further consideration.

The Committee again recommends that the memorandum be approved and reported to Convocation.

RE ORAL EXAMINATIONS—Rule 132A.

The question of arrangements for holding these examinations was before the Committee for consideration and a letter from the President of the Osgoode Hall Legal and Literary Society was submitted.

The Committee has during the past three months considered how best to carry out the oral examinations of students into the experience which they gain under their articles. The Dean, the Secretary and a Committee of students have been consulted and the following considerations are submitted—

1. The opportunities afforded to students to gain experience under articles varies so greatly that any such examination must have regard to this feature.

There is no doubt that the prospect of such an examination will lead students to take this important element in their training more seriously, but it is hoped that when the new rules are in full operation they will result in the profession lending its assistance towards reducing the inequalities in office training which at present are so marked and which (however they may be reduced by the co-operation of Solicitors) must to some extent remain.

2. Your Committee believe that some actual experience is necessary before definite regulations can be laid down for carrying out the new rules in their entirety and therefore recommend that for the current school term the examinations be confined to the third year and that the results obtained be used as a guide in formulating such regulations for the future.

3. Your Committee suggests that this third year oral examination be held in the month of March or earlier if possible. That it be conducted by a Board, consisting of one member of your Committee, and two or three examiners, the latter being chosen with a view to the diverse kinds of experience in office practice with which it may be assumed that students have become familiar. The Benchers sitting not necessarily to be the same each day, and to act, of course, without fee; the Examiners to be paid; a fee to be arranged as provided by Rule 132A.

4. As there are 110 students in the third year it may be expected that the examination this year would last about four days of about six hours each day.

5. The examination, being largely experimental and for future guidance, it is suggested that no examination fee be charged to the students this year and that a good deal of leniency be shown towards those examined without formally waiving the requirement that students must satisfy the examiners of their efforts to avail themselves of any office experience open to them.

RE BOOK-KEEPING EXAMINATION.

A letter from the President of the Osgoode Hall Legal and Literary Society suggesting certain changes with reference to these examinations was before the Committee.

The Committee recommends that no change be made at the present time in the regulations for these examinations as adopted by Convocation.

SPECIAL PETITIONS.

The Committee reported upon several special petitions by students asking for special relief and made recommendations in connection therewith.

MEMORANDUM RE COUNTY OF CARLETON LAW
ASSOCIATION CORRESPONDENCE.

On January 18th, 1938, a resolution of this Association was sent to the Secretary of the Law Society with a letter describing the resolution as "deploring the failure of the Law Society of Upper Canada to effectively deal with the problem of restricting the numbers of practising lawyers." The resolution is attached to this report. It also deals with a memorandum in the form of a report by Messrs. Aylen and Urquhart, dated November 26th, 1936.

This latter memorandum along with the resolution of the Carleton Law Association and a motion introduced by Mr. Urquhart (now the Honourable Mr. Justice Urquhart) made on May 21st, 1936, and some other similar resolutions were dealt with by the Legal Education Committee who saw no occasion for altering the present system and so reported to Convocation. The Association through its Secretary wrote on March 25th, 1938, enclosing a copy of a resolution of the same date, also attached to this report, which stated—"That if no immediate favourable consideration is given by Convocation to the resolution respecting legal education passed at the last meeting of this Association and subsequently submitted to Convocation, the Association should consider what steps should be taken to obtain the necessary action through the Legislature of the Province of Ontario." After some correspondence with Mr. Aylen (also attached) this matter was again referred to the Legal Education Committee.

The resolution of the County of Carleton Association is only one of a number of resolutions and communications in favour of enacting some more drastic provisions regulating the admission of students to The Law Society. Nearly all these suggestions refer to the desirability of "raising the standard" of admission but in almost every instance their primary purpose is to limit or reduce competition. The desire to "raise the standard" is generally a secondary consideration.

With regard to the report of Messrs. Aylen and Urquhart it is to be noted that that report, while still advocating graduate standing for admission to the Society recognizes the difficulty of attaining the object desired by this means and deals (1) with the admission of Matriculants, and (2) the lengthening of the term of service under articles. It may be convenient to refer to these three topics (1) University standing (2) Matriculation requirements, and (3) lengthening the term of service under articles. The report itself was sent to every member of the Legal Education Committee soon after its receipt.

Before, however, discussing its proposals it may be well to point out again that while they are all proper subjects for the consideration of the Legal Education Committee if treated solely from the standpoint of the education of the student; yet on the other hand this Committee is not charged with reducing competition within the profession. It is solely for Convocation to say how many shall practise law; it is not within the scope of this Committee's duties to use its powers for that purpose. The Committee is concerned with pre-legal education as subsidiary to its main purpose of supervising the education of students when admitted to the Society which after all is its main and much its most important duty.

(1) As to University Standing.

It has long been the rule in Ontario to show special consideration to graduates by requiring only 3 years service under articles. All others are required to serve 5 years. It was only in 1926 that the Law Society abandoned the old rule admitting also those who had Matriculation standing, by requiring from them two years college training following a practice advocated in the United States, but not universally adopted there. This restriction upon admission was followed on April 5th, 1927, by a statute providing that no rule of the Law Society thereafter made should have force or validity or be dispensed with unless approved by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council. The Statute was in 1928 amended by restricting the powers of the Government over changes in the rules to those "affecting the admission of students-at-law or the call or admission of barristers or solicitors." The two-year college requirement became somewhat anomalous when the University of Toronto made its pass course a three-year course and in any case the provision did not appear to reduce the number of those seeking admission nor had it resulted in any marked change in the academic standing of candidates for admission. It was accordingly repealed on May 19th, 1932, and on March 29th, 1932, the Legislature had repealed the Statute, which made changes in rules respecting admission to the Society subject to Order-in-Council.

This subject was fully discussed and most carefully considered by the Committee which published its report in February, 1935, a report which by the way is perhaps the only one prepared in Canada after face to face conferences with lawyers, judges, students and teachers and which also included correspondence with and personal enquiries made into the system of teaching in England and the study of systems of teaching in the United States.

(2) As to Matriculation Requirements.

From 1932 to 1935 Matriculants were only required to obtain 50 per cent. of the marks in certain specified subjects in Upper and Middle School but on February 21st, 1935, this requirement was raised to 60 per cent. and every paper must be written. Recommendations of principals are not accepted. Messrs. Urquhart and Aylen suggest the acceptance of recommendations for honour standing but this feature had been fully investigated by the Dean and the Chairman, the Deputy Minister and certain principals had been interviewed, the method of making recommendations had been actually inspected in the books kept by the Department and a full report had been made to your Committee who however after a full discussion decided not to ask Convocation to change the existing system and Convocation adopted this report.

It may be pointed out in passing that the Law Society has been frequently asked to accept these recommendations and while it cannot be stated as a fact, it is a fair inference that a strict adherence to our rule has had some effect in limiting the number of Matriculants who apply for admission to the Society. Attached to this report is a comparative statement showing the number of graduates and matriculants in the Law School since 1932. During the years prior to 1937 the proportion of Matriculants (which at first included those who had taken the two-year college course) was substantial, but during the last two years while our rules have been operating in all their strictness the number of Matriculant entrants has been for 1937—9, as against 92 graduates, and for 1938—8 (including 2 repeats) as against 110 graduates (including 5 repeats). Apparently students would rather take the comparatively easy pass Arts course in a University than actually write and obtain 60 per cent. of the marks in both Middle and Upper School subjects.

(3) Lengthened Service.

This was recommended by Messrs. Urquhart and Aylen. It would have required some statutory amendments but the subject along with some other topics of a similar nature were referred to a sub-committee and studied carefully, a report was in fact submitted suggesting amongst other things a longer period of service under articles. The Committee however after considering the matter was opposed to the proposal which in fact found but little favour amongst the members. A circular and the subsequent report of the sub-committee on this topic is attached hereto. Lately Convocation has passed rules providing for improving service under articles by a system of oral examinations.

Increase in Fees.

Convocation in April, 1933, raised the Students' admission fee from $51.00 to $101.00 and Law School fees from $100.00 to $150.00 which also has probably served to deter some persons from entering the Society. It might be mentioned also that certificates of character are now required and the scrutiny of these certificates is not by any means perfunctory.

It is probable that if the County of Carleton Law Association had had an opportunity of studying the work done by the Law Society in recent years and had also been aware of the danger of losing control over admission to our Society, which not only threatened but actually became a reality in 1927, it would not have felt that its views had been ignored.

Also when one considers the ease with which graduation can now be attained, the immense mass of University students who win diplomas and the low standard of real education which some of them seem to have reached when they come to the Law School; it may yet become important to consider whether some better test of pre-legal education should not be demanded than a mere pass arts degree. It is quite possible that a hard-working student who has won 60 per cent. in both Middle and Upper School by actually writing his papers and not depending on recommendations will make a more promising student than many of the pass arts graduates.

On motion of Mr. Denison the report was adopted including the above memorandum with reference to the County of Carleton Law Association correspondence, and it was ordered that a copy of the memorandum (with appendices) be sent to the Association.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE REPORTS (continued).

RE CANADA BONDED ATTORNEY AND LEGAL DIRECTORY LIMITED.

In the absence of the Chairman, Mr. Dunbar presented the report of the Discipline Committee herein, as follows:

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada in Convocation assembled—

In the matter of an enquiry requested by the Canada Bonded Attorney and Legal Directory Limited (hereinafter called "the Company").

The Discipline Committee begs leave to report as follows:

On May 15th, 1938, your Committee reported to Convocation upon the subject of Solicitors dividing fees with the above Company and by the authority of Convocation a notice was published in 1938 Ontario Weekly Notes, No. 23, p. XI, as follows:

"For the attention of all Members of the Society.

"The attention of Convocation has been called to the fact that certain Solicitors are in the habit of splitting fees with a Company known as the Canada Bonded Attorney and Legal Directory Limited. Apparently some doubt exists in the minds of the members of the profession as to the propriety of this practice and the ethics of such arrangements. Convocation takes this opportunity of calling the attention of the profession to the fact that in a matter investigated by the Discipline Committee, Convocation was of the opinion that practice of this nature is to be regarded as professional misconduct and conduct unbecoming a Barrister and a Solicitor."

This notice not only resulted in a good deal of correspondence with Solicitors who had had relations with the Company but the Company itself asked leave to explain its methods in order to demonstrate if possible that Solicitors acting in co-operation were not open to any charge of impropriety in so doing. Your Committee thought that this request should be granted both in fairness to the Company and also in the interests of the many Solicitors who appear to have entered into relations with it. The matter was therefore opened on October 6th, adjourned on October 21st, and heard at length on November 10th, 1938, the following members of the Committee being present on this last occasion—D. L. McCarthy (chairman) and Messrs. Bullen, Carson, Denison, Dunbar, Mason, McRuer, Sinclair, and White. Mr. T. Haldane Wickett appeared for the Company and the Messrs. Wharton (Senior and Junior) officers of the Company, were also present. Mr. Wickett having filed a memorandum upon the methods of the Company also verbally explained these methods fully as they affected the Solicitors who acted in making collections on behalf of customers of the Company.

The point chiefly discussed arose out of the nature of the contracts signed by Solicitors who undertook collections sent to them by creditors through the recommendation of the Company.

The Solicitors obtained these recommendations through the insertion of their names in a book periodically issued by the Company to merchants who by paying $25.00 received the book and also a set of forms for making collections, first by attempting to collect themselves by the use of the forms of demand for payment supplied by the Company, and, failing success by this method, then by employing the local Solicitor whose name appeared in the book issued. A system of bonding has been arranged by the Company whereby a creditor thus employing a recommended Solicitor may consider himself protected in case the Solicitor collects but does not remit. Your Committee did not investigate this system.

For the recommendation which the Solicitor obtains he either pays the Company a flat fee of $25.00 (an option rarely availed of) or he signs an agreement (an option generally accepted) whereby he agrees with the Company inter alia "to keep record of all business received through these mediums (the Company and a subsidiary known as B.B.B. Limited), to render a statement and to remit to you as the money is paid or upon your request one-third of all money earned on business coming to us through the above mentioned mediums. For greater certainty in interpreting this agreement moneys earned shall include the commissions on moneys collected—whether with or without suit—and amounts received by us for repossession of goods but shall not include suit fees and counsel fees in the Division Court and any fees that are taxable against the other party in the County or Supreme Courts. Nor shall it include moneys received for reports given to subscribers."

The rate of commission to be charged the creditor is based on a sliding scale set out in the book supplied both to creditors and the Solicitors. Two features of this remuneration were discussed (1) where suit was brought and both the claim and party and party costs were recovered. In this case the Solicitor kept the party and party costs and deducted his commission according to the agreed commission remitting one-third of the commission to the Company and (2) where apart from any recovery of party and party costs, the Solicitor either with or without suit recovers the claim or some part of it and deducts the appropriate commission before remitting to the creditor. In this case also one-third of the appropriate commission is paid to the Company.

In the first instance where suit is brought and both claim and party and party costs were recovered it was admitted by the Solicitor for the Company that the commission thus deducted was in the nature of Solicitor and client costs and that these costs were divided between the Solicitor and the Company. In the second case the point made for the Company is that the commission charged is not in the nature of Solicitors' fees, that any one may act as a collection agent and charge commissions and for a Solicitor to do so is only what any other collection agent may do. The distinction sought to be made is apparently between a Solicitor's remuneration which may be described as costs, and his remuneration when he and others not lawyers collect accounts and charge what is then called commission. Your Committee is unable to recommend the adoption of this view. If a Solicitor divides any remuneration which he receives in the ordinary course of his practice as a Solicitor with someone not a Solicitor then whether such remuneration is called "fees" or "costs" or "commission" and whether it is the reward of litigation conducted by the Solicitor or the result of his efforts carried on without suit in the ordinary course of his practice as a lawyer, the division of such remuneration with a layman as payment for introducing the business is something which Convocation has already condemned in the two instances referred to in your Committee's report dated May 15th, 1938. Your Committee therefore see no occasion for departing from the statement already published and quoted on page one of this Report.

During the discussion of this subject it was suggested that for a Solicitor and client to agree that part of the fruits of litigation shall if recovered belong to the Solicitor is in the nature of champerty and it was pointed out that whereas the Solicitors Act provides for a contingent fee in non-litigious business, similar fees are not validated in the case of litigation. R.S.O. 1937, ch. 223, sec. 60.

Your Committee came to no decision upon this point but suggest that it is a matter deserving of the serious consideration of the profession.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 15th day of November, 1938.

"D. L. McCARTHY,"

Chairman.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE H. D. SMITH, K.C.

Mr. Seymour presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late Herbert David Smith, K.C. and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to his family.

Convocation records with deep regret the death, on November 2nd, 1938, of Herbert David Smith, a Bencher of this Society.

Herbert David Smith was born at Ridgetown, Ontario, on the 12th day of November, 1866, the son of Dr. Jacob Smith and Elizabeth Smith. He was educated at the Ridgetown Public School and Collegiate Institute and at Osgoode Hall. Called to the Bar in Trinity Term in 1893, and having been sworn in as a solicitor on the 12th day of September, 1893, he returned to Ridgetown to practise law.

On June 5th, 1895, he was married to Beulah Hay of Ridgetown and of that union there were two children, M. G. Smith who is practising law in the City of Chatham, and Francis H. H. Smith who is practising law in the City of London.

He lived in Ridgetown until his appointment on July 12th, 1902, as Crown Attorney for the County of Kent, when he then moved to the City of Chatham and practised there until the time of his death. He became one of the best known Crown Attorneys in the Province of Ontario, having held the position for some thirty-six years.

He was particularly active in the affairs of his profession, being the President of the Kent County Law Association for many years. He was appointed one of His Majesty's Counsel on the 19th December, 1921, and was first elected a Benchet on the 16th February, 1928, being re-elected in the years 1931 and 1936.

He joined the 24th Kent Regiment as an officer in or about the year 1903 and was appointed to the command of that Regiment in 1913. This Regiment was re-organized after the War and is now known as the Kent Regiment (Machine Guns). Upon the outbreak of War, Colonel Smith offered his services and was very active in recruiting of the detachment which went from Chatham in the 1st Battalion C.E.F. After this detachment was recruited, he was offered the appointment of General Staff Officer of Military District No. 1 with headquarters at London. He accepted this appointment and went to London early in 1915 and remained as General Staff Officer until the end of the War. As such he was responsible for the training of all the troops which went through London and among the well known Battalions of infantry which were trained under him were the 18th, 33rd, 70th, 71st, 91st, 149th, 186th, 241st and others, as well as batteries of artillery and other arms. During his War service he was a military member of several important Courts Martial and investigations.

He was a member of St. Andrews Church in Chatham when it was a Presbyterian Church and subsequently when it became a United Church and for many years was a member of its Board of Managers. He took a great interest in and was President of the Kent County Children's Aid and was also Vice-President of the Sutherland-Innes Company of Chatham.

Convocation desires to express its esteem for the many and varied talents of the late Herbert David Smith and to extend to the members of his family its sincere sympathy.

RE APPOINTMENT OF LECTURER.

MORTGAGES AND SALES OF LAND—THIRD YEAR.

The Committee recommends the appointment of Mr. John C. Thomson, K.C., as lecturer in Mortgages and Sales of Land for a period of one year from the 1st of June, 1939, at a salary of $800.00 per annum.

RE ORAL EXAMINATIONS—THIRD YEAR.

The Committee refers to Convocation a report of the Chairman and Board of Examiners.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

These examinations proceeded on March 20th, 21st and 22nd from 11 to 1, 2 to 4, and 8 to 10.30 on these days and were concluded between 11 and 1.45 on March 23rd. During these periods 111 students were orally examined.

A schedule had been arranged allowing an average of 10 minutes for each examination but in fact the average was slightly longer and this longer average was only achieved by close concentration upon the work. It is due to the students to say that the work was greatly facilitated by their cheerful co-operation with those examining.

The Examining Board consisted of the Honorary Examiners and the Chairman of the Legal Education Committee who were present throughout (except that Mr. Hayden had to leave by late train on the night of the 22nd). The Treasurer, present during most of the first two days, Messrs. W. E. N. Sinclair and A. G. Davis, who came to town each for a two-hour session, Mr. Sweet, who came from Brantford for the evening session of March 22nd and the final session on March 23rd, Mr. McGregor Young, and Mr. Carson who was present twice.

The Chief Justice of Ontario manifested his interest in the work by being present as a spectator during part of the afternoon session on March 22nd and in this way lent encouragement to the Board in performing a somewhat laborious duty.

By the authority of the Treasurer a stenographer was present throughout the proceedings. Four copies of the transcript were made available and have been perused and one of these copies accompanies this report. No examination fee was charged to the students owing to the experimental nature of this initial enquiry.

The Honorary Examiners, who conducted most of the enquiries, had prepared in advance typical questions of a practical nature designed to show what knowledge the student has acquired of the way in which matters arising in every day office work were carried on. Each student was examined with the Secretary's file before the Board and his standing at the last Christmas examination was consulted.

The questions addressed to each student differed according to the opportunities afforded to him to become acquainted with various branches of practice. To illustrate their practical nature they included enquiries into the students knowledge of disbursements which he should pay for registering and filing documents and how much he should pay for probate fees, etc., with the reminder to him that as he was paying clients' money he should know enough to see that his client did not pay more than he should. In the same way enquiries were made into the student's knowledge of the offices and courts in which various kinds of work were transacted. They also extended into the proper method of conducting legal work and were often very valuable in enabling one to see how far the student had applied what he learnt in the Law School to what he had to do in the office. It was noticeable that many students described more confidently and concisely what they had actually done than what they had been merely taught to do in lectures.

This is no reflection upon the lectures but is an example of the advantage which anyone derives from actually doing an act as distinguished from merely learning about it.

No attempt was made to award marks to each student but a classification was arranged called "A", "B", "C" and "no rating". "A" stood for an accurate acquaintance with matters with which the student had opportunity to become familiar. "B" showed a less accurate for fairly complete acquaintance with such subjects and to further differentiate this class the term "B" was sometimes employed. "C" denoted an acquaintance limited and inaccurate but existing having regard to the student's opportunities; and "no rating" signified either that the advantages derived from office practice were almost non-existent or that the student had been devoting himself to some occupation very remotely connected with the general practice of law, and had acquired no experience outside that limited field. In this last category were several students of evident industry and ability who had been earning money in some public employment. They seemed to be quite capable of performing the duties entrusted to them but they had almost no experience of the general work of a lawyer.

There were 111 members of the Third year class and every one attended for examination (a somewhat remarkable record.) The following is the result—

A.....	17
B+.....	9	} 36
B.....	27
C.....	44
No rating.....	14

Of those in the "C" and "no rating" classes, composing 58, or more than one-half of those examined, perhaps one-half showed an aptitude for acquiring experience and a desire to do so, but their opportunities were limited either by the nature of the work they had engaged in or by the fact that the offices in which they were articled could offer only a very limited scope for gaining experience. There is no doubt also that the bad times have limited greatly the amount of work to be had in many offices and also have made it necessary for the students to take any work for which they could get paid, and financial considerations made it necessary for them to keep on with the same work (for instance collections) rather than to attempt to find varieties of experience without regard to the remuneration they might receive. In better times no doubt a much better showing would result both from a greater volume of work and from the students' greater ability to seek experience rather than remuneration.

Only a small minority of the students had not worked in offices during the Law School term and very few appear to have left law for other gainful employment or for holidays during the months of June, July, August and September when the Law School was not in session. Most students had holidays during the summer months but not for any excessive periods and the time taken out of office to prepare for examinations at Easter and Christmas was smaller than had been expected. A system is growing in the larger offices of allowing students leave on alternate days or weeks before the examinations amounting as a rule to about two weeks or ten days in all.

Probably owing to a general dearth of work the student is not usually asked to assume much responsibility. In real estate transactions so important to those beginning to practice, it was found that students were asked to list the registered documents but not as a rule to prepare an abstract in any form that might be described as a Solicitor's abstract.

A striking test used in a number of cases was to hand to the student an ordinary surveyor's sketch of a house on a parcel consisting of parts of two lots. Only a few of those asked could dictate from it a description sufficient for a deed and it is feared that in any search adequate for a proper Solicitor's abstract there would be great danger of defects in the description of the parcels being overlooked. A curious and rather lamentable feature was that a number of students did not know whether a seal was necessary or unnecessary on a deed, will, land titles transfer or discharge.

In litigation also the absence of experience in work involving responsibility was very marked. A few students had taken a few Division Court cases in court. Not many asked had actually settled orders or taxed costs though many either had taken the steps leading to these operations or had learnt how to do them.

Most of the students showed an acquaintance with the various Court offices in which work was transacted and had a good deal of acquaintance with the officials with whom such work was transacted, and many showed a fair degree of familiarity with the various steps taken in litigation though it would appear that much of their knowledge was gained from lectures rather than from actually doing the work. There was not much evidence that students were in the habit of following a transaction through from beginning to end either in real estate, company work or litigation. Much of the work done was based on a request by the Solicitor to do some isolated thing or look up some isolated point of law. Probably in busier times more responsibility would be thrown upon the student and he would have more of the invaluable experience to be gained from actually carrying through under the supervision of the Solicitor a piece of litigation or a real estate transaction. Much more benefit could be gained even from the fragmentary type of work which so often falls to the lot of the student if he with the assistance of his principal were to refer more frequently to the Statute or rule by which the work he is doing is governed and if he with the assistance of the Solicitor could follow the subsequent steps taken as a result of some matter of routine which the student had been asked to take. For example it would greatly benefit a student if he could be present with his Solicitor when the latter closes a real estate transaction even if the student is not given the responsibility of doing this himself. Another simple illustration occurs where the student looks up some point of law for an opinion. In such a case he should always see the opinion when written and his principal should see that he does so.

Numerous questions were asked about the experience of students in Company work, Surrogate Court practice and Criminal procedure, and enquiries were made of any experience gained in matters of bulk sales, conditional sales, overholding tenants (an important branch in these days of tenants on relief) and foreclosure. A good deal of experience had been had in foreclosure proceedings, a number had assisted in preparing papers for probate; practice in criminal proceedings evidently does not fall to the lot of many students, though one or two were rather striking exceptions. Experience in Mining law was very limited and there was practically no experience in the important taxation Acts such as the Succession Duty Act, the Income Tax Act and Corporation Tax Act, though some were aware from experience of the operation of the Succession Duty Act and Corporation Tax Act as constituting a charge on real estate.

At this time when various taxing statutes affect so many species of property and must be considered in carrying out so many transactions, a closer acquaintance with the main taxing statutes would seem to be desirable.

While the examinations were conducted to find out what the students had learnt by experience, it is hoped that they may have profited also to some extent at least by learning something of the quite simple points which those conducting the examination had found it necessary to have at their fingers ends for the purpose of carrying on their own practice of the law.

The rules provide for an examination of students after their first year in an office and no doubt if questions of a similar practical type are put to them in an early period of their office work it will be a most helpful guide to them in seeking experience in the later years of their service under articles.

A list is attached to this Memorandum showing how each student was classified.

The following concrete suggestions are offered as the result of this Oral examination—

1. Though the system of office training might generally speaking be much improved, it is quite apparent that even under present conditions it forms a valuable part of the student's preparation for the practice of his profession.

2. These oral examinations are not only valuable because they lead the student to take more seriously such work as he finds to do in his office but also because questions asked by Solicitors who have themselves practised for years bring forcibly to the attention of the student some of the numerous problems of a practical nature which will confront him when he must begin to accept responsibility for himself. This aspect of the examinations should be particularly valuable as a guide to a student in the earlier period of his service under articles and while he has still two more years of office training before him.

3. The Students' Handbook issued by the Law Society contains a number of valuable practical hints on office training. It would be well worth while to see that the student is from time to time reminded to consult this part of the Handbook.

4. The questions and answers as reported at the recent examination may in some respects assist those engaged in lecturing by bringing to their attention aspects of the subjects in which they lecture where the students do not appear to have succeeded in applying to actual practice the information given during lectures.

5. Judging from many of the replies the students would be better for a more intimate working knowledge of those statutes with which the ordinary practitioner requires to be familiar in his every day experience. No doubt many such statutes are dealt with during lectures and too much attention to their details in the lectures would probably prevent the lecturer from adequately dealing with the broad aspects of their subjects. This is a matter in which the student can not only assist himself by referring to the appropriate legislation when he has any work to do, but also the profession could greatly help the students by directing their attention to any statute or rule or any part of it which bears upon the work which the student is about to undertake. When people are busy and working under pressure this is not always possible but during slack times such as only too generally exist at present there is an excellent chance of combining theory and practice by resorting to this simple and very important expedient. It may not be out of place to recommend that students in the course of their studies and of their work in the office should become more closely acquainted with such taxing Acts as The Succession Duty Act, The Income Tax Act and The Corporation Tax Act which now have such an important bearing upon the interests of clients.

6. Real estate transactions form a large part of the experience available to students just as they are a very important element in his earning power when he begins to practice. The practice of conveyancing has not only changed during recent years owing to modern legislation but the various charges and restrictions imposed upon lands and their transfer due to increased taxation have made dealings between Vendor and Purchaser more hazardous and difficult. From the answers of students on this subject it would appear that some lectures devoted to problems arising out of sales of land and the practice of conveyancers would help the student both to gain more benefit from the rather limited experience which is frequently all that comes his way through office practice, but also to make him a more skilful conveyancer and draftsman when the time comes for him to assume full responsibility. In this connection the examinations disclosed a marked inability to draw up a description from an ordinary surveyor's sketch and it is suggested that the ability to read and understand a survey and a surveyor's description should be made a feature of a student's training.

7. Not many students are asked to draft deeds, pleadings, probate papers or other documents, nor do they now as a rule have any opportunity of copying or engrossing them. Some have drawn orders or judgments but drafting as an art is not apparently a species of experience which falls to most students. Under modern conditions any improvement in this direction is difficult but the profession might perhaps find it possible to bring to the attention of the students the importance of this subject and illustrate it by letting the student try his hand at simple drafting and by bringing to his attention from time to time well drawn examples of various documents passing through the office.

8. Though most of the students were in offices during the past year some stated that they were unable to find a place though they had frequently tried. As mentioned in this report a larger number were in some office where they had remained at one kind of work chiefly because the remuneration was so important to them. In such cases there was necessarily a lack of varied office experience and the purpose of service under articles was defeated. Such cases creates a problem of considerable difficulty especially in bad times, but Convocation may consider it of sufficient importance to justify some further investigation in order to ascertain whether such students cannot obtain somewhat wider experience during their service under articles.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Examiners.

“J. SHIRLEY DENISON,”

Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Denison the report was adopted, including the report on Oral examinations and it was ordered that the latter report, including a summary of the students' standing be published in full in the printed Minutes of Convocation.

Moved by Mr. Denison, seconded by Mr. Carson, and carried, that the sincere thanks of Convocation are due to Messrs. W. W. Davidson, K.C. and Salter A. Hayden, K.C., for the services which they have rendered to the profession in Ontario by acting as Honorary Examiners in the recent Oral examinations of the third year students at Osgoode Hall.

The time which they have devoted to their preparation for and their participation in these examinations, coupled with their wide experience in the practice of law have very greatly assisted Convocation in this its first attempt to ascertain the result of training under articles upon students attending the law school.

In the light of a further year's experience the committee will consider what modifications, if any, it may be desirable to make in the regulations or what other plan might be adopted for the expenditure of the income of the trust fund.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

RE J. J. DALEY.

On motion of the Chairman of the Library Committee the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Mr. John Joseph Daley, the retiring Chief Librarian, was engaged as a temporary assistant in the Library in 1882 and was appointed an Assistant Librarian in 1884. At this time and throughout his first thirty years of service, the Secretary of the Society had "immediate and general charge of the Library under the superintendence of the Library Committee." It was not until September 13, 1912, that Rules 36(7) and 38(8) were amended to provide for the appointment of a "Chief Librarian, a First and Second Assistant Librarian, and a Curator of the Phillips Stewart Library", their respective salaries being fixed by an amendment of Rule 46.

After forty years of service Mr. Daley was appointed Chief Librarian to succeed Mr. Charles Elliott on the 19th October, 1922, and he has ably and faithfully and with unfailing courtesy discharged the important and onerous duties of that position until his retirement in July of this year.

During this unique record of fifty-seven years of continuous service in the Library there has been a steady development of from less than 25,000 volumes to approximately 90,000; an American Room has been established and equipped; provision has been made for the use of the library five evenings a week, and his personal inspection twice a year of the forty-two County Libraries has been added to the Chief Librarian's duties.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE W. N. PONTON, K.C.

Mr. Herrington presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late William Nisbet Ponton, K.C., and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to his family.

At the Ponton homestead on the shores of the Bay of Quinte, William Nisbet Ponton passed away on the 6th of September, 1939, in his 85th year. He was born in Thurlow township adjoining the then town of Belleville on the 22nd of January, 1855.

After a thorough grounding in the Public and High Schools of Belleville, he completed his matriculation course at Upper Canada College, attaining the coveted honour of being Head Boy of his year. He maintained the same high standard of scholarship during his four years at the University of Toronto, winning the gold medal in modern languages, when he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1877, later being a member of the Board of Governors of the University. He was admitted as a student-at-law at Osgoode Hall in Trinity Term, 1877, was Called to the Bar in Michaelmas term of 1880 and created a King's Counsel in 1908. He was first elected a Bencher at the quinquennial election of 1926 and re-elected in 1931 and 1936. For fifty-eight years he practised his profession in Belleville. In the autumn of 1938 he met with a serious and painful accident which confined him to his home until his death.

He was a voluminous reader and had a retentive memory which, in course of time, became a storehouse of apt quotations and an extensive vocabulary. Gifted with a pleasing manner, a penetrating voice and a natural eloquence, he was in great demand as a public speaker and was most generous in his willingness to use his enviable talents in any worthy cause.

In 1883 he married Miss May E. Sankey of Toronto. She predeceased him in 1919 and in 1923 he married Miss Enid Logan of New York who survives him.

Colonel Ponton was most widely known through his connection with the Masonic Order. He was Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario and Past Grand Principal of the Grand Chapter of Ontario and an honorary member of Moira Lodge of London, England.

After returning home upon the completion of his education, he joined the Argyle Light Infantry and rose to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in command of the Regiment, which he held from 1895 to 1901. After handing over his command he was appointed Brigade Major and eventually received his full Colonelcy. Upon relinquishing his command of the Argyles he was appointed Honorary Colonel of the Regiment.

He was always prepared to concede to those who differed from him that same honesty of purpose by which he himself was actuated.

As we recall his diversified activities and the undiminished vigor with which he pursued them, even after passing his four score years, we are reminded of a favourite quotation of his, "My age is as a lusty winter, frosty but kindly."

RE SURVEY OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE IN ONTARIO.

The Special Committee herein, appointed by Convocation on the 19th January, 1939, begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee has met several times.

On two occasions it had discussions with Mr. Barlow as to the nature of the matters with which he proposed to deal. These discussions did not include the amendments to the Rules set forth in his report to The Honourable The Attorney-General but did include many of the more important of the suggestions made in the report pertaining to grand juries, petty juries, changes in the number, arrangement and jurisdiction of certain courts, and other matters. While there was considerable expression of opinion in these discussions it was obvious that there would be much difference of opinion in the profession at large as to proposed changes and your Committee felt it had no mandate to express, and did not express, as a committee, approval or disapproval of the proposals made. The Committee has appreciated the great amount of care and research Mr. Barlow has expended in his task and hopes that whatever objections may be taken by members of the profession to the proposals made, this will not prevent careful consideration of a valuable report.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE REPORT. MR. YOUNG.

The Treasurer appointed Messrs. Carson, Shaver and White to the Special Committee which met on the 6th December, 1939, and considered the matter.

After due consideration of the question of policy involved, the structural changes necessary and the expense of the installation, the Special Committee recommended to the Library Committee, and the Library Committee recommends that further consideration of the matter be deferred for the present.

LIBRARY ALTERATIONS.

The Committee approved and recommends the adoption of the following plans:

1. That a partition, with doors up and down, be erected to shut off the stairways at the west end of the building on the main library floor.

2. That the high book-cases now in the Great Hall, be replaced by new four-shelf oak book-cases of the type of which two are now in position there, and that as many of the old book-cases as are necessary be used in the old Robing Room, when such book-cases are altered to the satisfaction of the Committee.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CERTIFICATES OF NOTARIES' QUALIFICATIONS.

Mr. Walsh presented the report of the Special Committee herein.

RE CERTIFICATES OF NOTARIES' QUALIFICATION.

The Special Committee, appointed by Convocation on the 20th October, 1938, begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee was asked to consider the recent change in procedure made by the Provincial Secretary by which a certificate certifying that a Notary Public is duly qualified to act as such must be obtained from the Provincial Secretary's Department rather than from the Clerk of a County Court as was previously the practice.

The Committee recommends that Mr. Bullen, the chairman of this Committee, confer with the Provincial Secretary forthwith with a view to the restoration of the former practice, and to suggest that arrangements be made for the allocation of the fees to the Provincial Secretary's Department.

RE TRANSFER AGENTS.

The Committee was also asked to consider the present practice with reference to the transfer of shares, moneys on deposit or transfer of any other assets belonging to an estate. The present practice requires the production of authenticated copies of the Letters Probate or Letters of Administration.

The Committee is of the opinion that notarial copies should be accepted for this purpose. Any change in the present practice would require an amendment of Section 62 of the Ontario Companies Act and if such amendment were made corresponding amendments should be made in the Evidence Act, and other relevant Acts.

The Committee recommends to Convocation that representations be made to the Attorney-General urging the necessary amendments to the Companies Act, the Evidence Act, and other relevant Acts.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATION.

MR. WALSH.

On November 16, 1939, on the recommendation of the Committee on Unauthorized Practice, Convocation appointed a Special Committee consisting of The Treasurer D. L. McCarthy, K.C., and Messrs. Walsh (Chairman), Marshall, McRuer and Mason, to consider ways and means of obtaining pronouncements upon or amendments to existing legislation affecting the profession.

The Committee had numerous meetings considering possible amendments to The Solicitors Act and The Law Society Act and drafts of legislation prepared on their instructions. The proposed legislation was discussed on several occasions with the Honourable Mr. Conant, Attorney-General of Ontario, the Honourable Mr. Leduc, former Attorney-General, and officers of the Department of the Attorney-General. Later two bills were placed before the Legislature by the Attorney-General and were duly passed, after receiving the commendation of the Attorney-General, the Honourable Mr. Leduc, Mr. Drew, the Leader of the Opposition, and other lawyer members of the House.

The Committee feels that the amendments made by the new legislation will prove to be very helpful in enabling the Law Society to protect not only the interests of the public but also the interests of the profession.

---

Mr. Walsh read to Convocation Bill No. 42, an Act to Amend the Solicitors Act, and Bill No. 43, An Act to Amend the Law Society Act; and spoke of the assistance given by the Treasurer, Mr. J. R. Marshall and the lawyer members of the Legislature in connection with this legislation.

On Motion of Mr. Walsh THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED, and IT WAS ORDERED that a statement with reference to the two Acts be printed in the Ontario Weekly Notes after their coming into force.

The Treasurer reported that immediately on receipt of copies of these Bills he had called a meeting of the Chairmen of Committees and that at the suggestion of this Committee he had waited on the Attorney-General on the morning of February 8th. While the Treasurer pointed out to the Attorney-General that he had no mandate from Convocation he felt he was representing a number of the Benchers who were vitally interested in the Bills and more particularly Bill No. 48.

The Treasurer called the Attorney-General's attention to the changes in connection with Bills of Indictment and urged that there should be some protection substituted in favour of an accused person. The Treasurer also urged upon him the advisability of adopting the English practice and asked that the Bills be referred to the House Committee on Legislation so that members of the profession might have an opportunity of attending before the Committee and making representations.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE WARD WRIGHT, K.C.

Mr. White presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late Ward Wright, K.C. and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to his family.

Ward Wright died on the 18th November, 1939. He was born in 1885 at Columbus, Ohio, a son of Gordon and Sarah Rowell Wright of London, Ontario. He received his early education at London and was admitted to the Law Society of Upper Canada as a student-at-law in Trinity Term, 1903. He studied under his distinguished uncle, The Right Honourable Newton Wesley Rowell, K.C., P.C., and was Called to the Bar in Trinity Term, 1908. He joined the firm which was then Rowell, Reid, Wilkie & Wood and continued the practice of law in association with the members from time to time of that firm until 1936 when on the appointment of Mr. Rowell as Chief Justice of Ontario on the 23rd September, 1936, the firm was re-organized under the name of Wright & McMillan with Mr. Wright as its head.

He was created a King's Counsel in 1928 and on the 19th September, 1935, became a Bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada.

He served as Vice-President for Ontario of the Canadian Bar Association from 1935 to 1937 and as Dominion Vice-President of this Association for 1938 and 1939 and but for his unfortunate illness would no doubt have been elected the President of that Association. He took a very active part in the Association's work.

As a lawyer he had in a marked degree the confidence of his clients and had a special faculty of attracting and retaining important professional work. He was regarded as a safe counsellor, particularly in the affairs of corporations in many of which he was either an officer or director.

As a soldier he served with distinction in France with the 3rd Canadian Battalion (The Toronto Regiment) and was severely wounded at the battle of Courcelette. Having been invalided to Canada he served as Commandant at the Military Hospital at Whitby and with the British Mission to the United States.

As a man he had an especial and peculiar attraction for his fellowmen and made and held a host of warm friends. His untimely death which came at the height of his career is deeply regretted.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Geraldine Robinson, and one son, Peter Wright, practising law as a member of his late father's firm and at present on active service.

By his death the profession lost a valued and esteemed member and one who typified its best traditions. His character was vigorous and forceful but with all kindly and considerate of others.

RE PAPER ON "ENCROACHMENTS".

The Treasurer referred to the paper on "Encroachments" by Mr. G. L. Fraser of the Vancouver Bar, copies of which have been sent to the Benchers.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF LAW LIBRARIES.

ORDERED that these arrangements be approved and that the Law Society tender a buffet luncheon to the delegates and guests on that day: and that the choice of the speaker for the Dinner at the Royal York Hotel be referred to the Treasurer with power to act.

ORDERED that no action be taken but that available copies of the Report be distributed among the County Law Associations on request.

Moved by Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mr. McNevin, and carried that The Treasurer appoint a Special Committee on Legislation to watch for any legislation that may arise out of Mr. Barlow's report and any other legislation that might affect the profession; and to make an effort to have representatives of the Bar appointed to the Committee of Judges to amend the Rules: that the Attorney-General be notified of the appointment of such Committee and that he be asked to give adequate notice to the Committee of any such legislation to be introduced in the Legislature.

The Treasurer appointed the following Special Committee herein—Messrs. Mason, McRuer, Carson, Walsh and White.

The Treasurer referred to a letter from His Honour Judge Owens, President of the County and District Judges Association with an enclosure referring to certain matters in the report of Mr. F. H. Barlow, K.C.

ORAL EXAMINATIONS, 1940.

FIRST AND THIRD YEARS.

These examinations were held during the week of March 4th to March 10th last, extending throughout most of each day with evening sessions as well on March 4th and 6th.

The hours were arranged so as to interfere as little as possible with the Law School lectures and C.O.T.C. lectures and drill, and lists of students were prepared for each morning, afternoon and evening session, so that the examinations should interfere as little as possible with the other occupations of the students. The examinations proceeded smoothly and without delay and great credit is due to the Secretary and his staff for the way in which all these necessary preliminaries had been thought out and carried out.

Messrs. G. W. Adams, K.C., and Donald Guthrie were examiners for the third year, and Messrs. Michener and Porter for the first year, and instead of going to the expense of a stenographer one of the examiners in each year took notes as each student was examined. These notes are available for reference if required.

One Benchler also presided at each session, those thus attending, besides the Chairman of the Committee, being Messrs. Carson, Cassels, Sinclair, Shaver, Sweet and White. The examiners previously consulted with members of the Committee and had thought out the type of enquiries to be made, making due allowance for the different opportunities available to third year and first year students, respectively. The work of the examiners was exceedingly well carried out; the time available for each student (an average of fifteen minutes) seemed short, but in most cases gave a reasonable opportunity of arriving at the benefit which the students had derived from their experience in offices having regard, of course, to the very different circumstances prevailing in the offices in which they were articled. The first year students had not in most cases been more than a few months in offices and their opportunities for gaining experience were necessarily very limited; but the impression made upon the examiners was that they had been interested in their work in the majority of cases and showed a real desire to profit by their service under articles. The method of ranking students was by dividing into classes A., B. and C. with "no rating" for those who did not show that they had derived any substantial benefit from their office experience. This last situation was not always due to lack of interest as it occurred some times because of lack of opportunity.

The examiners were asked to make any suggestions for future similar examinations, as it is realized that the work is still in the experimental stage. Their suggestions accompany this report and will call for careful consideration before the next examinations are held.

Though under existing unsettled conditions the opportunities available to students in their offices are not as great as they would be in more normal and more prosperous times, these examinations in the opinion of your Committee have fully justified themselves and deserve to be continued and developed. There is some evidence that as a result of the third year examinations a year ago more interest is taken in this important branch of legal training, both by the profession and the students.

The results of these examinations accompany this report.

Toronto, March 18th, 1940.

to the present Third year by the Chief Justice of Ontario if convenient to him.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE W. D. HOGG, K.C.

Mr. Aylen presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial to the late W. D. Hogg, K.C., and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to the Honourable Mr. Justice Hogg.

Convocation records with deep regret the death on the 2nd day of January, A.D. 1940, of William Drummond Hogg, K.C., who at the time of his death was the Senior Life Bencher of this Society.

William Drummond Hogg was born on the 29th day of February in the year 1848, at the Town of Perth, Ontario. He was a son of David Hogg who came from Scotland and settled in Perth in the year 1835. His wife, who predeceased him in 1932, was Agnes Louise Rattray, daughter of Dr. Charles Rattray of Cornwall.

Mr. Hogg studied Law in Perth and was Called to the Bar in the Hilary Term, 1874. He won several scholarships at the Law School and after graduation was taken into the office of the late John Bain, K.C., of Toronto. In 1874 the late Daniel O'Connor, K.C., of Ottawa, came to Toronto seeking a partner and Mr. John Bain recommended Mr. Hogg. In the year 1874 the partnership of O'Connor & Hogg was established in Ottawa and continued for many years. After the death of Mr. O'Connor the firm became Hogg & Magee, the junior partner being Mr. Frederick A. Magee, now the Local Master of the Supreme Court at Ottawa. In the year 1905 Mr. Frederick D. Hogg, now The Honourable Mr. Justice Hogg, graduated from the Law School and joined his father in the practice of law at Ottawa, the firm name being Hogg & Hogg. That firm continued until the year 1933 when Mr. Hogg retired from active practice.

In 1878 the firm of O'Connor & Hogg was selected as Agents for the Dominion Government and from that time until 1896 when the Conservative Government went out of power Mr. Hogg was engaged almost continuously in Counsel work for the Crown in the Exchequer and Supreme Courts of Canada.

In 1890, Mr. Hogg was made a Queen's Counsel by the Dominion Government. His interests in Ottawa included the County of Carleton Law Association, the Conservative Association and St. Andrew's Society. At one time or another he was President of all of those organizations.

Convocation desires to express its appreciation of the many talents of William Drummond Hogg and to extend to the members of his family its most sincere sympathy.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE
HONOURABLE GEORGE LYNCH-STAUTON, K.C.

Mr. Sweet presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to prepare a Memorial of the late Honourable George Lynch-Staunton, K.C., and it was ordered that it be recorded on the Minutes of Convocation and a copy sent to Mrs. Lynch-Staunton.

"The Benchers in Convocation assembled record with profound sorrow the death of Senator the Honourable George Lynch-Staunton, K.C., who died suddenly at his home in Hamilton on March 19th, 1940.

Senator Staunton was born at Southampton, Ontario, on December 9th, 1858, a son of Francis Hardwick Lynch-Staunton, C.E., and Victoria Corbett Lynch-Staunton. He received his education at St. Marys College, Montreal, Upper Canada College and Osgoode Hall, and was Called to the Bar and admitted as a Solicitor in Easter Term 1882. He was first elected a Bencher of the Law Society in 1901 and being re-elected at the succeeding three quinquennial elections became a Bencher for life on April 19th, 1916. He was on the Board of Trustees for the Hamilton Law Association for fifty-three years being Vice-President for nine years and becoming President on June 5th, 1939, to succeed the late T. C. Haslett, K.C.

Senator Staunton was devoted to the practice of law and took a great pride and interest in his profession. Through hard work he established an enviable reputation as a Counsel throughout Ontario and was engaged in many important cases such as the School Book Investigation, Queen vs. Gorman et al. (London election case), The Public Waters case against the Dominion, the Kinrade case and many other prominent cases in which he appeared before the Privy Council. He was created a Q.C. in 1899.

In addition to his interest in his profession he exemplified all that was best in our system of party government as a supporter of the Conservative Party and always stood for the highest principles. He was appointed to the Senate in 1917 and contributed greatly to the discussion of many great problems dealt with by that body.

A great reader he took a profound interest in the best literature of ancient and modern times. He also took a keen and most enthusiastic interest in his recreations as he did in his business life and this helped to keep him young in spirit and made him a most interesting conversationalist.

Throughout his long life he endeared himself to a host of friends who not only admired his high attainments in law, politics and general knowledge as well as his integrity and sound judgment, but knew him also as a kind and courteous gentleman and a true friend.

In 1895 he was married to Adelaide Dewar of Hamilton, who still survives him. His only surviving son, Victor Lynch-Staunton, is a member of the law firm of Messrs. Stairs, Dixon, Claxton, Senecal & Lynch-Staunton in Montreal. His eldest son, Geoffrey, was killed in action during the Great War while serving in Mesopotamia.

The Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada extend heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Lynch-Staunton and her son in their hour of bereavement."

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT.

MR. SMITH.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN.

Mr. G. L. Smith, K.C. was elected Chairman for the ensuing year.

MONTHLY STATEMENT—May, 1940.

The usual monthly statement was presented.

RE LUNCHEON ROOM.

The Committee recommends the renewal for another year of the present arrangements.

RE ARREARS OF FEES.

Following a meeting of the Committee on 7th May, 1940, the Secretary on instructions wrote to all Barristers and Solicitors in arrears enclosing copies of the recent amendments to the Law Society Act and the Solicitors Act.

All members in arrears were informed that the Committee would report to Convocation in June all those who had not settled their arrears prior to the 1st of June but in view of the changing conditions, it is not the intention of the Committee to report any cases of arrears to Convocation until a later date. A number of solicitors made application for settlement of the Society's claim against them and offered cash amounts in connection with same which included remission in whole or in part of past penalties and the Chairman and the Secretary after carefully considering all such applications for settlement and with the approval of the Treasurer have made a number of settlements in cash and the Committee recommends that their action be approved and that the solicitors be reinstated.

The results so far to date are that 52 solicitors have paid Barristers' and Solicitors' fees in cash and 14 barristers have paid their Bar fees. These settlements reduce the number of solicitors in arrears at the present time to 92, and the number of Barristers to 20. There are a number of cases which will have to be considered by the Committee which involve other questions beside the actual payment of cash, and there are some cases where solicitors have not offered a settlement which we can recommend. These cases will be first considered by the Committee before referring same to Convocation.

The Committee recommends that the action taken by the Chairman and Secretary with the approval of the Treasurer to date be approved and that the question of arrears of payments of all others who offer settlement during Long Vacation or until the Committee meets again be referred to the Chairman and the Secretary in collaboration with the Treasurer, with power to act.

Mr. Smith moved the adoption of the report.

Moved in amendment by Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mr. Kerr, that the paragraph of the report referring to a Solicitor be struck out and that the application and correspondence be referred to Messrs. McRuer and Bullen to investigate the matter including its legal aspects and that the Secretary be empowered to act upon their report.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE RE CERTIFICATES OF NOTARIES QUALIFICATION.

MR. BULLEN.

RE CERTIFICATES OF NOTARIES QUALIFICATION.

The Committee was asked to consider the present procedure by which a certificate certifying that a Notary Public is duly qualified to act as such must be obtained from the Provincial Secretary's Department rather than from a Clerk of the County Court as was previously the practice. By a report to Convocation dated 8th January, 1940, the Committee recommended that Mr. Bullen, the Chairman of this Committee, confer with the Provincial Secretary forthwith with a view to the restoration of the former practice and to suggest that arrangements be made for the allocation of the fees to the Provincial Secretary's Department.

As a result of the Chairman's negotiations with the Department the Committee is now informed that at the request of the Law Society of Upper Canada arrangements have been effected whereby certificates of Notarial authority may be issued by Clerks of the County Courts for use in jurisdictions where such certificates are acceptable. All Notaries desiring this privilege may obtain the required forms for registration at the office of the County Court clerk. Instructions have been issued to County Court clerks and they will be supplied with all necessary forms.

The Committee recommends that Convocation approve of these arrangements and express to the officials of the Provincial Secretary's Department its appreciation of their assistance to the profession in this behalf. The Committee further recommends that notice to the profession be published forthwith in the Ontario Weekly Notes.

RE TRANSFER AGENTS.

In its report to Convocation in January, 1940, the Special Committee reported that it was of the opinion that the present practice should be amended and that notarial copies should be accepted for the purposes of transfer, and recommended that representations be made to the Attorney-General urging the necessary amendments to the Companies Act, the Evidence Act and other relevant Acts. Convocation adopted the report.

Pursuant to this recommendation Mr. Walsh on behalf of the Special Committee wrote to the Attorney-General's Department and the matter was referred by the Attorney-General to the Assistant Provincial Secretary. After several conferences with the Assistant Provincial Secretary, the Committee is now informed that as far as possible the Provincial Secretary's Department will co-operate with the Benchers of the Law Society in promoting the necessary legislation at the next session of the legislature.

The Special Committee recommends that it be instructed to keep in touch with the Assistant Provincial Secretary and assist in the drafting of the legislation.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

RE PATENT AGENTS.

Mr. Seymour reported on the progress of negotiations between the Patent Institute of Canada and this Society with reference to certain designations used by Patent Agents.

Mr. Seymour reported that the sub-committee felt that in view of the differences of opinion held by some of the other Law Societies that this Society was not free to act at the present time.

Moved by Mr. Carson, seconded by Mr. White, and carried that the matter be referred to the same sub-committee (Messrs. Mason and Seymour) with instructions that it try to arrive at a tentative agreement with the Patent Institute and forward the tentative agreement to the other Law Societies for further consideration.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE RE MILITARY SERVICE.

MR. SMITH.

(Finance and Legal Education)

RE OSGOODE HALL CONTINGENT, C.O.T.C.

Re Committee on Military Education.

The Committee recommends the appointment of His Honour Judge Macdonell and the Honourable G. R. Geary, K.C. to this Committee in place of Brigadier George H. Cassels and Lieutenant-Colonel R. B. Gibson, resigned on account of military service.

Re Increase in Strength.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Military education the Committee recommends that authority should be asked to increase the strength of the unit to 446 from 296.

Re Compulsory Training.

The Committee on Military Education considered whether it was the intention of the Law Society to make military training compulsory for students and also considered the question of whether or not the Society should follow the example of the Universities in forming auxiliary battalions, but no recommendation was made.

The Committee considered a letter dated August 31st, 1940, from Colonel A. A. Magee, Executive Secretary to the Minister, and the regulations of the Department of National War Services announced on August 27, 1940.

The Committee recommends that these matters be referred to The Treasurer, the Chairman Mr. G. L. Smith and Lieut.-Col. Foster with power to act.

This subject is still under consideration by the sub-committee.

RE ACCOMMODATION AT OSGOODE HALL FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL DEFENCE.

After the Committee had adjourned, the sub-committee begs to report that following the resolution of Convocation whereby the Society offered the use of its buildings to the Department of National Defence, the Secretary received a notification that the offer of the Society had been accepted by the Department, the buildings inspected and a report made and the accommodation offered is considered by the General Staff Officer to be a most valuable acquisition for training purposes. The sub-committee has, therefore, authorized the forms required by the Department to be completed without delay, the Secretary having been advised that by the completion of these forms the Society would protect itself against any possible damage which might be done by the military authorities and that the Department will make good any such damage at the end of the war.

RE MILITARY SERVICE.

Re Barristers' and Solicitors' Fees.

In October, 1939, Convocation adopted the recommendation of the Joint Committee as follows:

"Your Committee recommends that from December 1, 1939, annual fees be not charged to Barristers and Solicitors who are engaged in active service in His Majesty's Forces and that the reports issued by the Society be supplied to them as usual during their periods of service."

In view of recent changes in military organization and in particular with reference to the Non-Permanent Active Militia units, the Committee recommends that the above resolution be extended to include Barristers and Solicitors who satisfy the Committee that they are entitled to the same consideration as those members on active service.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

RE BRITISH CHILDREN.

Mr. Gordon presented the report of the Special Committee.

The Society's interest and action in this matter originated in enquiries made by members of the Bench and Bar and in reports of action taken by individual members and by other professional societies in view of the increasing seriousness of the situation in Britain.

On June 22nd, 1940, The Treasurer, thinking that this was a matter that demanded immediate action, communicated with all Chairmen and Vice-chairmen of Standing Committees who could be reached, and with other Benchers; and cabled the Secretary of the General Council of the Bar in England as follows:

"The Law Society of Upper Canada wishes to inform the members of the profession in the United Kingdom of its anxiety to co-operate with them in the present emergency by offering the services of the Society in placing the children of English and Scottish Judges and Barristers in suitable homes in Ontario. Please inform me as soon as possible of your wishes."

On July 5th the following cable was received in reply:

"Offer gladly and thankfully accepted. Number impossible to estimate but will cable as soon as estimate possible. Does your Society understand that owing to Government prohibition no contribution for maintenance can be remitted from here?"

After sending the first cable to England the following notice was posted throughout Osgoode Hall and published in the "Osgoode Hall News" Globe and Mail, and in the Ontario Weekly Notes:

"Notice to the Profession.

In the present emergency The Law Society of Upper Canada has offered the General Council of the Bar of the United Kingdom its assistance in placing the children of English and Scottish Judges and Barristers in suitable homes in Ontario. As the matter is urgent and in order to extend the fullest co-operation will all members of the Society inform the Secretary forthwith by letter or telegram of the accommodation they can provide should the offer be accepted."

The Treasurer also wrote to the Vice-President and the Provincial Vice-Presidents of the Canadian Bar Association, requesting that the members of the various Provincial Bars associate themselves with the proposed movement. The Vice-President for Ontario wrote personally to many members of the profession in Ontario urging their assistance.

As a result of these published requests 158 persons, including a few who are not members of the Bar but who are recommended by members, offered accommodation for about 225 British children. Other members who stated that they were unable to take British Children into their homes, offered their assistance financially or otherwise in the undertaking. Almost without exception members of the Bar expressed complete approval of this offer of assistance to members of the British Bar.

On July 11th, 1940, a special meeting of Convocation was called for the purpose of discussing ways and means of placing in Ontario the children of English and Scottish Judges and Barristers. The Treasurer outlined to Convocation the origin of the Society's interest and action in this matter and read a memorandum prepared by the Department of Welfare of Ontario, and it was—

“Moved by Mr. Tilley, seconded by Mr. Bullen, and carried that a Committee be appointed consisting of Messrs. W. A. Gordon, J. C. McRuer, R. C. H. Cassels, C. L. Dunbar and Mr. Kenneth F. Mackenzie, K.C., Vice-President for Ontario of the Canadian Bar Association, to facilitate on behalf of the Bar of the Province of Ontario the placing of children of Barristers, Solicitors and Judges of England and Scotland and to co-operate with such other agencies as may be necessary.”

Since its appointment the Special Committee or members thereof have been in touch with the Immigration Branch, Department of Mines and Resources, Ottawa, and the Department of Welfare of Ontario, and has had further correspondence with the Council of the Bar in England. A list of those offering to take children has been sent to the Council and filed with the Director of Immigration at Ottawa. In a letter dated August 7th, 1940, the Secretary of the Council states, in part—“The position of the protection of ships has resulted in most of the applicants here entirely holding their hands for the time being and they have put their applications into abeyance.” However, arrangements have been made to send a small group of eight and they have been allotted by the Council of the Bar to specified persons on the list sent by your Special Committee. It is expected that they will reach Canada about the end of this month.

The present position is that the Special Committee is ready to carry out the wishes of the Bar Council when its members decide to send their children to Canada.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

Moved by Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mr. Slaght, and carried that a statement with reference to this matter be prepared by the Chairman to be printed in the Ontario Weekly Notes and the Toronto press.

That the said Isaac Greenizen be disbarred.

MR. MASON.

RE PATENT AGENTS.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATION.

MR. MASON.

The Special Committee appointed in February, 1940 begs leave to report as follows:

1. Your Committee made a report to Convocation in April, 1940, at which time the Select Committee appointed by the Legislature to enquire into the administration of justice in the Province had adjourned its sittings to a date to be fixed.

2. The Select Committee resumed its sittings on September 23rd, and held its last public sittings on October 1st. It has heard representations with respect to Petit Juries, Pretrial Procedure, Grand Juries, Appeals from the Surrogate Court, Assessment Appeals, Rules and Regulations under Statutes, Increasing the Jurisdiction of the County Court, Rules of Practice Committee and other matters.

3. The Chief Justice of Ontario, the Chief Justice of the High Court and Mr. Justice Middleton gave evidence before the Select Committee on September 30th. Two of the Benchers were present upon the same day to make representations as to the matters in respect of which Convocation had given directions but there was not time to take their evidence upon that day.

4. The Select Committee has closed its public sittings but is willing to receive representations in writing from Convocation as to any matters upon which Convocation desires to express an opinion. It is the view of your Committee that further representation is unnecessary as the evidence of the Judges appears to cover sufficiently fully the matters as to which directions have been given by Convocation with the exception of the matter relating to the Rules of Practice Committee. The Judges expressed the opinion that it was preferable to leave the composition of this Committee as it is at present.

5. Mr. H. P. Edge has made written reports of the proceedings of the Select Committee and has also prepared a condensed summary of its proceedings, which is attached to this report.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

In the absence of the Chairman, Mr. Denison presented the report.

The Editor reported that Mr. F. J. Cornish, one of his assistants engaged from time to time by the Editor in reporting arguments of counsel, had left on active service in His Majesty's Forces.

The Committee recommends that the name of Mr. F. J. Cornish be left on the list of assistants during his absence on active service and that Mr. Donald Lamont be engaged temporarily and his name added to the list.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

COUNTY LIBRARIES COMMITTEE REPORT.

MR. MARSHALL.

The Committee recommends that a loan of $510.00 be made by the Society to the Leeds and Grenville Law Association, without interest, to be repaid by deducting $110.00 from the grant to be made by the Society to the Association in 1941 and $100.00 from the grant to the Association each year thereafter until the loan is repaid, provided that security is given for the due expenditure and the repayment of the money advanced, pursuant to Rule 64.

The Committee wishes it to be understood by all local Law Associations that it will not, except under special circumstances, consider favourably any financial assistance to any local Association with respect to any indebtedness incurred by such Association, unless such association obtains the approval of the Committee before incurring such indebtedness.

THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

2. That Rule No. 9 be re-numbered 25, and that Rules 10 to 25 inclusive be re-numbered accordingly.

5. That the Law Society Act, the Barristers Act, and the Solicitors Act be printed to include the amendments passed since the revision of 1937, the said amendments to be designated by the use of square brackets for the amended sections.

 CORRESPONDENCE.

At the September meeting of Convocation the Treasurer read a letter from the Law Society of Saskatchewan with reference to reciprocal concessions as to fees on Call to the Bar and admission as a solicitor in special cases. The matter was referred to Mr. Denison for consideration and report.

Mr. Denison presented to Convocation his report.

To the Treasurer and Benchers:

SASKATCHEWAN PROPOSAL FOR REDUCTION OF SPECIAL FEES.

According to a paper read by Mr. Vincent McDonald of Dalhousie, and now published in the proceedings of the Canadian Bar Association for 1939 (page 176) the fee charged to Ontario lawyers by Saskatchewan for admission to its Bar is $1,000. For lawyers from Alberta and Quebec the fee is $500 and for those from Prince Edward Island is $200. The fee charged by Ontario for the transfer from any other Provincial Bar is now

$1,500, which represents gradual increases to its present figure. The increases took place since 1929 and were due to the fact that since the financial depression not only did the Bar of Ontario become overcrowded, but bad as conditions were here, they became much worse in some of the other provinces, particularly on the prairies, and the applications for transfer to Ontario became numerous. This was not fair, either to the Bar of Ontario, nor to those of other provinces who, if without sufficient capital, were bound to meet with disappointment in attempting to enter an Ontario field already greatly overcrowded. As a matter of real necessity the fees were accordingly raised, and though for a time it did not deter some from other provinces from entering and attempting to earn a living in Ontario, these applications have now become rare, and there has not been for some time any evident general desire to change from some other province to Ontario.

In Ontario it can not be said that conditions for those practising here have improved, and indeed at the moment there is a distinct falling off in the volume of litigation and of business arising out of Real Estate and Company transactions.

Whether the activity in some kinds of business due to the war will be reflected in increased legal work remains to be seen, but if and when the war comes to an end work of that type will cease, and no one can say what effect peace will have on business then existing.

It would seem therefore, that this would be a particularly inappropriate time to make any change; and, while every courtesy is due to members of the Bar in other Provinces, it would not be fair either to them or to the Bar of Ontario to encourage any increase in the transfers from Saskatchewan or elsewhere when the future is so obscure, not only in Ontario but throughout all the provinces of Canada.

It ought also to be mentioned that while many young lawyers have entered upon military life at present, not only is the present enrollment of students not far below that in previous years, but it may be hoped and expected that nearly all those Ontario lawyers and students now in the armies will return to practice, and the first duty of this Law Society would seem to be to preserve for them a reasonable hope of remunerative practice when they re-enter civil life.

Respectfully submitted.

"J. SHIRLEY DENISON."

Moved by Mr. Denison, seconded by Mr. Carson, that no change be made in the present rules as to the fees on Call to the Bar and admission as solicitor in special cases.

RE ORAL EXAMINATIONS.

Mr. Geary presented the report of the Sub-committee as follows:

To the Legal Education Committee—

ORAL EXAMINATIONS ON OFFICE PRACTICE.

Your Sub-committee, consisting of Messrs. Carson, Cassels and the Chairman, met on Saturday, November 16th to consider those aspects of this subject which require immediate attention.

These questions were:

1. Whether under existing conditions the examinations should be held as usual, and

2. Whether under existing conditions the penalties mentioned in Rule 132A, should be enforced.

The Dean had been consulted on this matter, and his letter was before the Sub-committee, and accompanies this report.

Your Sub-committee recommends that

1. Notwithstanding the disorganization caused by the work of the C.O.T.C. in which forty out of eighty-six students of the first year, and sixty-two out of one hundred and seven students in the third year, are engaged, and notwithstanding the fact that many more Law School lectures are held in the morning, which leaves all students less time for work in the office, and notwithstanding also the fact that there appears to be less work in Solicitors' offices, and therefore less opportunity for students to gain experience, it is still desirable to hold the examinations as usual.

2. Owing, however, to the foregoing reasons, your Sub-committee recommends that the time is inopportune for imposing the penalties prescribed by the Rule.

Your Sub-committee also suggests that an appeal to the profession to assist their students as much as possible in gaining office practice should be inserted in the Ontario Weekly Notes. A draft of the suggested notice accompanies this report.

Your Sub-committee also suggests that the Dean be asked to have it announced in the classes that these oral examinations will be held in the Spring.

Your Sub-committee does not, at the moment, suggest dates for the examinations, or the names of examiners who should be appointed, as these matters can be more conveniently arranged later.

The question of lengthening the time for questioning each student was discussed, and while there was a feeling that the average time might be extended from 15 to 20 minutes, no recommendation is made on this subject at present.

16th November, 1940.

“J. SHIRLEY DENISON”

On motion of Mr. Geary THE REPORT WAS ADOPTED.

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

MR. SMITH.

MONTHLY STATEMENT—October, 1940.

The usual monthly statement was presented.

RE ARREARS OF FEES.

At the October meeting of the Finance Committee the matter of arrears of fees was referred to a Sub-committee consisting of the Chairman, the Treasurer and the Secretary. On October 25th the Secretary, on instructions of the Sub-committee, wrote by registered letter to 29 solicitors who are in arrears for two years or more. The solicitors were advised that unless satisfactory settlement was made by November 16th the Finance Committee would recommend to Convocation that they be suspended from practice. Four solicitors have paid their arrears in full (less penalties remitted). Nine solicitors have made offers of settlement or have made representations that merit some consideration. Your Committee recommends that these cases stand for further report.

In 10 cases your Committee recommends suspension but will not report the names of the solicitors until the January meeting of Convocation and the solicitors will be so notified.

Your Committee recommends to Convocation that pursuant to The Society Amendment Act 1940, Section 1, the following members of the Society be suspended from practice as Barristers and Solicitors for the period of one year—

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

RE USE OF THE WORDS "AND COMPANY".

Mr. Dunbar presented the report of the Discipline Committee herein, as follows:—

To the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada
in Convocation assembled.

The Discipline Committee begs leave to report as follows:

The Committee on Unauthorized Practice referred to your Committee a letter dated September 11, 1940, from the Secretary of the Law Society of Alberta together with a copy of a summary of the Minutes of a meeting of the Benchers of the Law Society of Alberta of Friday, the 5th day of July, 1940. In the summary appears the following—

"NOTICE:

The attention of all members of the Society is directed to the fact that the Benchers of this Society, assembled in Convocation on July 3rd, 1939, passed the following resolution:

‘That in the opinion of Convocation it is improper for a Barrister and Solicitor practising alone to use the words “and Company” as part of a firm name.’

Notice of the action of the Benchers has heretofore been brought to the attention of the members. In future upon receipt of any complaint against any member practising alone for using the words "and Company" as part of a firm name disciplinary action will be taken."

Your Committee is of the opinion that the use of the words "and Company" by a member of this Society either practising alone or in association with others has a commercial connotation that is not in accordance with the dignity of the profession.

Your Committee is therefore of the opinion that it is improper for a member of the profession practising either alone or with others, to use the words "and Company" as part of a firm name, and so reports to Convocation.

Your Committee recommends that if this report is adopted notice be given to the profession in the Ontario Weekly Notes.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated the 4th day of November, 1940.
