

The Law Society of Upper Canada
CANDIDATES FOR BENCHER
1983

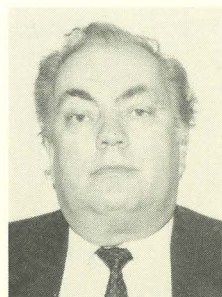

This booklet is published by The Law Society of Upper Canada for the assistance of its members in voting to elect the benchers of the Society in 1983. It is divided into two sections, the first being the list of candidates outside Metropolitan Toronto and the second being the list of candidates within Metropolitan Toronto.

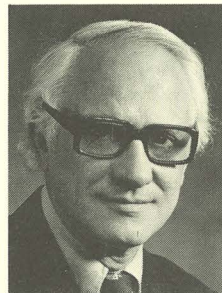

The Society does not accept any responsibility for the accuracy of the biographical information contained herein which was either supplied by the candidates or prepared from information provided by the Secretary from the Society's records.

Candidates outside Metropolitan Toronto

AFFLECK, W. Bruce, Q.C., (Oshawa)—Graduated University of Toronto 1953; Osgoode Hall Law School, 1957; elected bencher 1979; appointed Crown attorney, County of Ontario 1961; regional director, Crown attorneys, 1976; in private practice since 1977; special lecturer to law schools throughout Ontario, National District Attorneys Association, Coroners Association, R.C.M.P., C.B.A.; director of Criminal Lawyers Association; author of many articles on criminal and medical-legal subjects; counsel in 50 murder trials; past national president of Children with Learning Disabilities; director, Oshawa Generals Hockey Club; Green Gaels Lacrosse Club; Hawkeye Football Club; past president Oshawa District Boy Scout Council; lecturer, Advocate Symposium, 1981.

AGRO, John L., Q.C. (Hamilton)—Born 1919. Education: Cathedral High School, Hamilton; University of Toronto, B.A., 1942; Osgoode Hall Law School, 1949. Professional: called to bar September, 1949; appointed Q.C. 1959; senior partner Agro, Zaffiro, Parente, Orzel, Hubar & Baker specializing in civil and criminal litigation. Professional memberships: Canadian Bar Association, Hamilton Law Association, Hamilton Lawyers Club, Hamilton Medical-Legal Association, Advocates' Society, Criminal Lawyers Association, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, International Society of Barristers (fellow), Defence Research Institute. Military service: Canadian Army, May, 1942 to January, 1946. Family: married to Frances Willemene Agro and has six children.

BAILEY, William H. C., (Aurora)—Graduated from Victoria College of the University of Toronto in 1948 and Osgoode Hall Law School in 1951; called to the bar in that year. Served as a solicitor in the office of the Attorney General. Has practised in Aurora since 1953 and Uxbridge since 1979. An original member and past president of the York North (now known as York Region) Law Association. Member Canadian Bar Association, York County Law Association, Durham Region Law Association, Lawyers Club and Medico-Legal Society. Pilot, R.C.A.F. World War II. Member of council for the town of Aurora for three years.

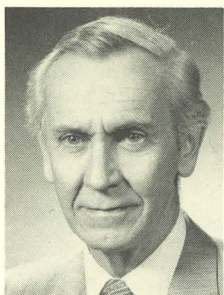

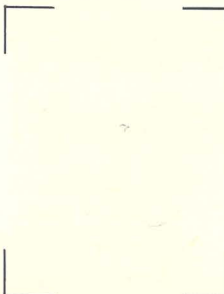

BATES, R. Noel, (Burlington)—Called to bar 1968. Practised in Toronto, Barrie and Burlington; practice restricted to litigation. Past president Halton County Law Association, 1982-1983; former director Simcoe County Law Association; member of Canadian Bar Association.

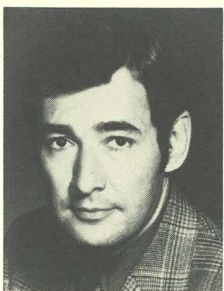

BRAGAGNOLO, Rino C., Q.C., (Timmins)—Born: Schumacher, Ontario, 1931. Graduated, University of Toronto, St. Michael's College, 1953; Osgoode Hall, 1957; Presently a senior partner of Evans, Bragagnolo, Sullivan & Carlesso. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1971. Director, Advocates' Society, 1978-1981; past president, Cochrane District Law Association; past director, Timmins-Porcupine Chamber of Commerce; past president Porcupine Dante Club (Italo-Canadian Cultural Association); honorary Vice-Consul of Italy for the District of Cochrane and the District of Temiskaming. Elected a Bencher in 1980 and presently a member of the following committees: Discipline, Legal Aid, Libraries and Reporting, vice-chairman of Unauthorized Practice.

BRODERICK, John J., Q.C., (Niagara Falls)—Served in R.C.A.F. from 1943 to 1945. Graduated University of Toronto 1948; called to bar June, 1951; appointed Queen's Counsel, 1968. General practice in Niagara Falls with six-man firm. Past-president, Welland County Law Association; one-time member Council, Ontario Section, Canadian Bar Association.

BURROW, D. Garth, Q.C., (Mississauga)—39 years of age, married and a 32 year resident of Mississauga. Member Peel Law Association; founding president Credit Reserve Association (homeowners' assoc.); former consultant to Ontario Legislative Assembly Select Committee on Rules and Procedures; past vice-chairman Peel Board of Education; member Town of Mississauga Aquatic Club—TOMAC. Practises in a two member firm in Mississauga.

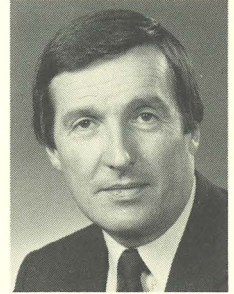

BYERS, William E., Q.C., (Stratford)—Born 1938. U.W.O. B.A. (1959), LL.B. (1964). Professional: general practice, Child Representation Panel, Ministry of Attorney General, part-time assistant Crown attorney, appointed Queen's Counsel, 1979. Professional associations: C.B.A., Perth County Law Association, Advocates' Society, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, National District Attorneys Association. Community associations: Childrens' Aid Society, Perth County (director); Ontario Association of Childrens' Aid Societies (vice-president); Stratford Family Counselling Service (chairman); Ontario Association of Family Counselling Agents (director); Parents Without Partners Association, Stratford (advisory board); Stratford Jaycees (director). Military: 1st Hussars R.C.A.C. (Perth Regiment). Family: married with four children.

CALLAHAN, Robert V., Q.C., (Brampton)—St. Michael's College, University of Toronto, B.A. 1959; Osgoode Hall Law School 1963; called to bar 1965; Q.C. 1980. Resident of Brampton since 1968; councillor Town of Brampton 1969-1974; alderman City of Brampton 1974 to date. Preferred area of practice, criminal and civil litigation. Deputy judge, Small Claims Court, Judicial District of Peel 1977-1980. Member Criminal Lawyers Association. Forty-six years of age. Married with four boys.

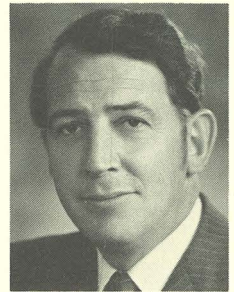

CHADWICK, James B., Q.C., (Ottawa)—Partner, Burke-Robertson, Chadwick & Ritchie; benchler of the Law Society since 1975; member of the Advocates' Society, Canadian Bar Association; chairman, Legal Aid Committee; vice-chairman, International Law Committee on Legal Aid; instructor/participant, continuing education courses and Canadian Bar courses; B.A. St. Francis Xavier University, 1959; LL.B. University of Ottawa, 1962; called to the bar, 1964; endorsed as candidate for benchler by County of Carleton Law Association, Prescott & Russell Law Association, Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry Law Association and Renfrew County Law Association.

CHAUHAN, Jayant, (Richmond Hill)—B.Sc. (Econ), London School of Economics; Master's degree, (Berlin University); Barrister-at-Law (Lincoln's Inn, England); advocate (India). Called to the bar of Ontario 1972. Author of computer assisted law management program. Director of Richmond Hill Chamber of Commerce 1972 to 1975. Director of York Central Executive Association. Host of television program "Doing Business", Classicom channel 10. Author of numerous articles on business law for lay public including C.L.E.O. Practised in eight lawyer office and as a sole practitioner.

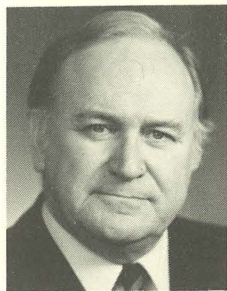

CHILCOTT, W. Dan, Q.C., (Ottawa)—Elected benchler, graduated Dalhousie Law School 1954; called to bar of Ontario 1956; assistant Crown attorney 1956-58; entered private practice Ottawa 1959, seven member firm involved in general practice; appointed Queen's Counsel 1967; chairman, Unauthorized Practice Committee and other committees; president, County of Carleton Law Association 1973; endorsed as candidate by County of Carleton and Prescott & Russell Law Associations; senior instructor B.A.C., Ottawa, since 1975; member of the Canadian Bar Association, Advocates' Society, Criminal Lawyers Association; trustee, Grace General Hospital, Ottawa; president, Central Canada Exhibition Association; vice-chairman, Board of Commissioners of Police, Ottawa; married, two children.

DIETRICH, John Stuart, Q.C., (Windsor)—Born 1927 at Perth, Lanark County where he attended elementary and high school; played football for PCI. Served with the U.S. Army 1950-1952 in Korea as platoon sergeant; awarded Korean Medal, United Nations Medal and General Service. Graduated from School of Business, State University of New York, and University of British Columbia law school. Practised as general counsel to Ben Ginter until 1965. Admitted to Ontario bar 1966. Employed by the federal Ministry of Justice to 1968. Appointed assistant Crown attorney at Windsor 1968 and Queen's Counsel 1979.

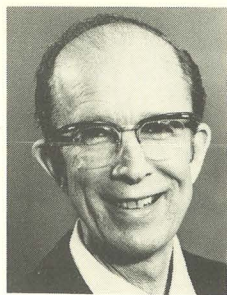

FARQUHARSON, Gordon H. T., Q.C., (Peterborough)—Called to the bar in 1948, appointed Q.C. in 1960. Elected bencher in 1975 and re-elected in 1979. Has served as chairman of Libraries and Reporting Committee. Partner in Farquharson and Daly. Formerly an elected member of the Ontario Council of the Canadian Bar Association and chairman of Membership Committee. Member of the Advocates' Society. Served in R.C.A.F. during World War II and awarded Distinguished Flying Cross. Active in community affairs, formerly member of Peterborough City Council. Past president of Kinsman Club, Peterborough Law Association, Peterborough branch of Canadian Cancer Society and United Services Institute.

FURLONG, Patrick G., Q.C., (Windsor)—Elected bencher 1975, 1979; served or serving as chairman or member of various committees including Legislation and Rules, Unauthorized Practice, Discipline Policy Section, Prepaid Legal Services, Executive, Advertising; former member, National Executive C.B.A., past president C.B.A.O.; member Ontario Council; past president, Essex Law Association, Essex County Medical-Legal Society; delegate National Conference on Law 1972, National Conference Quality of Legal Services 1978; governor University of Windsor; member National Association Railroad Trial Counsel, Defence Research Institute, Foundation for Legal Research, Canadian Institute Administration of Justice. Contributed papers at 1955 and 1960 Commonwealth Law Conferences; partner Furlong & Brown, Windsor.

GUTHRIE, Hugh, Q.C., (Guelph)—Incumbent bencher; educated Guelph public and secondary schools; B.Comm. University of Toronto 1952; called to bar 1956; appointed Q.C. 1968; partner Hungerford, Guthrie & Berry, Guelph; past-president YM-YWCA; past president of Wellington Law Association; part-time lecturer in real estate law at University of Guelph; former chairman and member of the board of managers, St. Andrew's Church, Guelph; past-president Guelph Figure Skating Club; member of the 1972 Dental Technologist's Advisory Committee; a director of a number of Canadian corporations.

HEROLD, William O., Q.C., (St. Thomas)—Unanimously endorsed by Elgin Law Association. General practitioner in St. Thomas for 25 years. Graduated B.A. (Hons) University of Western Ontario 1952 and Osgoode Hall Law School 1956, both with honours. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1967. Community and cultural and public service, including: former member of City Council, commissions and committees, U.W.O. senate, official agent, Riding Association treasurer, officer Canadian Infantry Corps, president of Music Club, director of Art Gallery, church fundraising, senior citizens' housing and others. Married to Sine Herold, 2 sons Rob and Bill.

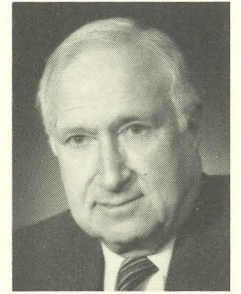

HICKEY, Michael G., Q.C., (Kingston)—Graduate of Queen's University, 1948, and Osgoode Hall, 1951. Appointed Queen's Counsel, 1965. Partner, Hickey & Hickey, Kingston. Past director Advocates' Society, member Canadian Bar Association, Canadian Institute for the Administration of Justice, Defense Research Institute, Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity; past president Frontenac Law Association, director Medical-Legal Society of Kingston, Hotel Dieu Hospital Board, member University Club of Toronto. Sole candidate sponsored by Frontenac Law Association.

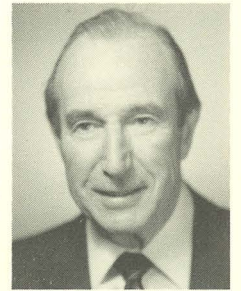

HOBSON, David, Q.C., (Newmarket)—Admitted to bar in 1969. Asst. Crown attorney 1969-1972. Since 1972 private practice in Judicial District of York Region. Appointed Q.C. in 1980. Member Bench & Bar committee, Jud. Dist. of York Region. Chairman, Criminal Law section, York Reg. Law Assn. Vice-president of York-Peel federal Progressive Conservative Assn. Vice-president of York North Progressive Conservative Assn. Member Legal Aid Area Committee, Jud. Dist. of York Reg. Requested by York Region Law Assn. to run as region's official candidate.

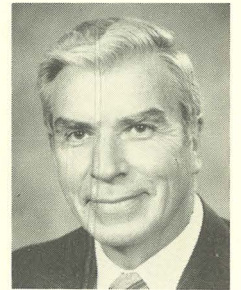

LERNER, Samuel, Q.C., (London)—Born London, Ontario. B.A. University of Western Ontario; Osgoode Hall Law School; called to bar 1939. Queen's Counsel 1967. Elected bencher 1979; vice-chairman Legal Education Committee; member: Admissions Committee, Libraries and Reporting Committee, Professional Conduct Committee. Counsel, Lerner & Associates. Military service World War II with the Royal Canadian Regiment. Active community service. Member of Board of Governors of U.W.O.; Canadian Tax Foundation.

LOCHEAD, George H., Q.C., (Kitchener)—Lifelong resident of Kitchener and Waterloo. B.A. (Honours) Queen's University 1932. Called to bar 1935. Created Q.C. 1955. In active practice at Kitchener from 1935 to date save for four years active service during World War II. Bencher since 1969. Member from time to time of most committees of Convocation. Chairman Discipline Committee for several years. Past president of many community organizations. Member of boards of Foster Parents Plan Canada (past chairman) and International. Member, Waterloo Law Association (past president), Canadian Bar Association, Advocates' Society (past vice-president). Director, Gore Mutual Insurance. Life fellow, Foundation for Legal Research in Canada.

McINTOSH, Robert G. S., Q.C., (Brantford)—Born in South Porcupine, Ontario; graduate of Toronto Normal School, Victoria College, U. of T. and Osgoode Hall 1957; Phi Delta Phi historian; called to bar 1957; practised in Brantford 1957 to present; past president of Brant Law Association; appointed Queen's Counsel 1970; immediate past chairman, Board of Governors, Wilfrid Laurier University; past Lt. governor Kiwanis; past president Brantford Regional Chamber of Commerce and director, Ontario Chamber of Commerce; nominated federal Liberal candidate; RCA(M) retired officer; married to Esther (1952); six children.

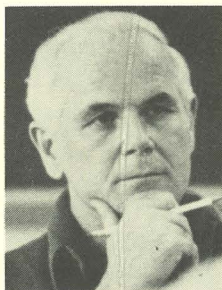

McWILLIAMS, Peter K. E., Q.C., (Milton)—Born 1926 Toronto, matriculated U.T.S. 1943; entered Harvard College; served U.S. Navy 1944-47; graduated Harvard 1949; attended Osgoode 1949-1953; in general practice at Milton five years; Crown attorney Halton County ten years; in general practice at Milton since 1968; former president of Halton County Law Association, and chairman of library committee; former member of Halton Legal Aid Area Committee; became bencher April 1978; author of Canadian Criminal Evidence (2nd edition in preparation) and numerous articles in legal publications; member of Canadian Bar Association and Criminal Lawyers Association.

MURPHY, Daniel J., Q.C., (Goderich)—Personal: born October 28, 1930, Mount Forest, Ontario. Family: wife Muriel and seven children. Member, St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church. Partner, Donnelly & Murphy, Goderich, Ontario. Education: B.A: St. Michael's College University of Toronto 1951; graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1956; appointed Queen's Counsel 1969. Associations: charter member Goderich Rotary Club; charter member Brother Nagle Council Knights of Columbus; member President's Committee University of Toronto. Professional activities: member National Council Canadian Bar Association; member Advocates' Society; instructor Bar Admission Course, London; president Huron Law Association 1979-1981; member Committee of Presidents County & District Law Associations.

NEILSON, Donald R., (Hanover)—Attended Malvern Collegiate Institute, Toronto; Royal Roads Naval College; Toronto Normal School; Queen's University; University of Toronto; Osgoode Hall. Admitted 1959. Member, Canadian Bar Association (Council member 1980-81-82-83); the Ontario Club; the Advocates' Society. Active in practice at Hanover, Ontario since 1960, sole practitioner since 1963.

NOBLE, C. Bruce, Q.C., (Sault Ste. Marie)—Born: London, Ontario, 1929. Graduated: University of Toronto 1952; Osgoode Hall 1956. Queen's Counsel 1967; senior partner, Wishart, Noble. Director, Sault Ste. Marie Chamber of Commerce 1962-1963; past president, Algoma District Law Association; vice-chairman, Algoma University College 1977 to date; chairman, Plummer Memorial Public Hospital 1972-1974; director, Advocates' Society 1972-1974; member, American Trial Lawyers' Association; chairman, Sault Ste. Marie Advisory Board, Guaranty Trust Company of Canada; chairman, Board of Review, Mental Health Act. Benchers 1979-1983 and presently a member of Legal Aid (vice-chairman), Compensation Fund, Practice and Insurance, Continuing Legal Education committees.

OYEN, Judith M., Q.C., (Ottawa)—Dalhousie University B.A., LL.B. Called to bar 1964. Partner, Bell, Baker. Member National and Ontario Councils, C.B.A. 1978-83. Chairman C.B.A.—Ontario, Real Estate Services and Costs Committee, 1982-83. Lecturer community planning, Ottawa University Law School 1976-82. Group instructor real estate, B.A.C., 1976. Member, Provincial Community Justice Week Committee, 1983. Endorsed as candidate by Ottawa-Carleton, Prescott-Russell, Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry & Renfrew Law Associations. General practice. Past chairman Board of Trustees, Ottawa Civic Hospital. Member, Ottawa-Carleton Regional District Health Council and past chairman of its Advisory Board. Past president, University Womens' Club, Ottawa.

PETERS, Patricia J., (Newmarket)—A native of Ottawa and a graduate of Osgoode Hall Law School was called to the bar of Ontario in 1972. She practised civil litigation with a Toronto firm for two years and then opened her own criminal and civil litigation practice. In 1976, she joined the staff of the Ministry of the Attorney General as an assistant Crown attorney in Toronto and specialized in the prosecution of white collar crime. In the spring of 1982, she moved her residence to the Aurora area and is presently on the Crown's staff in York Region.

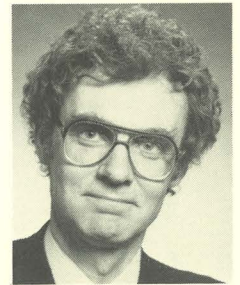

PHILP, Paul G., Q.C., (Hamilton)—Endorsed by Hamilton Law Association. Partner, Philp, Gordon, Leggat, Evans, Pigott & Culver; McMaster University B.A. 1948; called 1951; Queen's Counsel, 1962. Member: Advocates' Society (past vice-president and director); Canadian Bar Association (past member of council); Hamilton Law Association; Hamilton Lawyers Club (past president); Hamilton Medical Legal Society (past president). Community service: vice-chairman, Chedoke-McMaster Hospitals; past director, Rotary Club; past director and secretary, Holimont Ski Club; chairman of finance and past chairman, Board of Stewards, Melrose United Church; past director, H.S.P.C.A. and Hamilton district Boy Scouts Association.

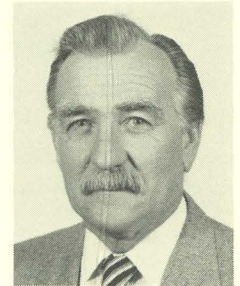

PLATANA, Terrence A., (Dryden)—Born in Felling, England, 1945. Married with twin daughters, B.A. from Carlton University in 1967, graduated from University of Ottawa, LL.B., 1971. Called to bar of Ontario in March 1973. Articled Nicol, O'Connor & Kealey in Ottawa, subsequently became partner in McAuley, Burns & Platana in January, 1975. Practises exclusively in litigation, civil and criminal. Standing agent, Department of Justice; part-time assistant Crown attorney; member of Advocates' Society and Criminal Lawyers Association. Part-time lecturer at Confederation College in Commercial Law. Former chairman, Board of Trustees, Dryden District General Hospital; grand knight, Knights of Columbus.

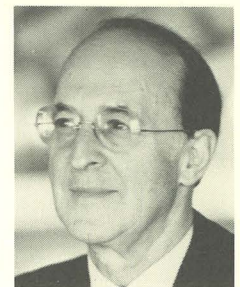

RAE, Kenneth A., Q.C., (Owen Sound)—Born, Windsor, 1939, and raised in Ottawa. Attended Lisgar Collegiate, Carleton University (Economics). Graduated in law from Queen's University, 1964. Articled in Toronto with Wright & McTaggart; called to the bar 1966. Began practice in Guelph with Hungerford & Guthrie until appointed assistant Crown attorney, Waterloo County, May, 1968, remaining there until appointed Crown attorney, Grey County, 1974. Occasionally assists Crown Law Office, Toronto, by taking matters in the Court of Appeal. Served C.O.T.C. and Canadian Army (Militia) (G.G.F.G.) 1957-1964. Extra-legal interests include skiing, sailing, motorcycling and Little Theatre. Married with two children in school.

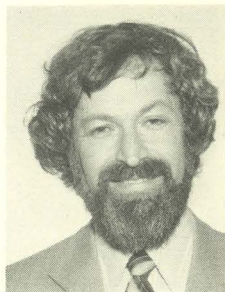

ROBERTSON, Donald S., Q.C., (Hillsburgh)—Born 1931 in Toronto; wife Shirley and six children. U. of T. B.A. 1958; Osgoode Hall, LL.B. 1961; called to bar 1963; Queen's Counsel 1979. Practised civil and criminal litigation in Toronto and Mississauga both in private practice and with Attorney General's department 1963 to 1976; secretary to Select Committee on Company Law, 1965; commenced practice in Hillsburgh, 1976. Member: Canadian Bar Association; Wellington County Law Association; associate member York County Law Association; Peel County Law Association. Active in local projects, organizing fund-raising drives for arenas, senior citizen apartment project, etc.; regularly attends Hillsburgh Baptist Church.

SHAFFER, Bernard, Q.C., (Thunder Bay)—Sponsored by Thunder Bay District Law Association. Elected benchler 1979; vice-chairman Libraries and Reporting Committee; member: Research and Planning Committee, Finance Committee, Unauthorized Practice Committee. Past chairman, Fort William Public Library Board. Former member, Board of Governors, Lakehead College of Arts, Science and Technology. Former member, Board of Governors and Executive Committee, Lakehead University. Past president, Thunder Bay District Law Association. Member, National Planning Committee, Canadian Bar Association 1972-73. President, Canadian Bar Association—Ontario 1974-75. Member of Council, Canadian Bar Association—Ontario. Fellow, the Foundation for Legal Research.

SIMMONS, Howard S., (Brampton)—Legal education: LL.B. University of Toronto Law School, 1967; called to bar, 1969; LL.M. (Business Law) Osgoode Hall Law School, 1978. Legal experience: partner Simmons, da Silva and Sinton, Brampton, since 1969. Professional activities: instructor, corporate and commercial law, Bar Admission Course; lecturer, human rights and civil liberties, University of Toronto; lecturer, business law and income tax, Institute of Canadian Bankers; panelist, Canadian Bar Association, continuing legal education; member Peel County Law Association; member, governing council, School of Continuing Studies, University of Toronto.

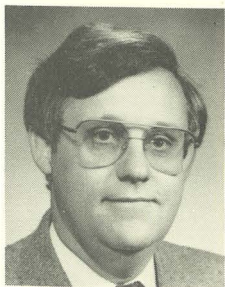

SWYBROUS, William G. J., (Burlington)—Born Toronto, 1943. Preparatory education, University of Toronto; legal education, Osgoode Hall. Awarded Toronto Lawyers' Club Prize (Civil Procedure). Admitted, 1969. Practised in Toronto and since 1980, in Burlington, with Dingle, Charlebois & Swybrous. Former instructor, Bar Admission Course, Creditors' Rights; lecturer, Toronto Construction Association, Consulting Engineers of Ontario, Creditel of Canada, Halton County Law Association, Hamilton Law Association on mechanics' liens, professional liability, and arbitration. Counsel to the Council of Ontario Contractors Association for the Construction Lien Act, 1982. Member: Advocates' Society (past director), Canadian Bar Association, Halton County Law Association, and York Law Association.

TALSKY, Marvin, (Mississauga)—Born in Toronto 1934; married with four children. Dewson Street Public School, Bloor Collegiate, University of Toronto, Osgoode Hall, called to the bar in 1960. Sole practitioner for 15 years, Students' Council Rep., past president University fraternity, past master of Mt. Sinai Masonic Lodge, North York minor football league coach (3 years), director of Peel Law Association.

TOBIAS, Peter B., Q.C., (Huntsville)—Born 1930; B.A., Trinity College, U. of T., Osgoode Hall Law School, called to bar, 1959; general practice Toronto 1959-1968; lecturer, B.A.C. 1964-1968; trustee, Lawyers' Club 1963-1968; general practice, Huntsville 1968; National Council, C.B.A. 1970-1977; Queen's Counsel 1971; chairman, Ontario Hospital Appeal Board 1972-1982; part-time Crown attorney Districts of Muskoka and Parry Sound 1970-1980; elected benchler, 1975, 1979; president Muskoka Law Association 1976; lay member, executive council College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario 1982; member, Lawyers' Club of Toronto, County of York Law Association, Muskoka Law Association, Albany Club, Advocates Club, C.B.A.

TOPP, Robert C., (Sudbury)—Thirty-seven years of age; married with three children. B.A. (Laurentian—1972); LL.B. (Toronto—1975); called to the bar in 1977. Practising as a sole practitioner, restricted to acting as counsel in civil and criminal litigation; experience at all levels of the courts and as counsel in disciplinary matters before the Law Society. Former police officer, Ontario Provincial Police (1967-1970) and Regina City Police (1965-1967). Member: Canadian Bar Association; Ontario Legal Aid Plan, area committee (civil and criminal); Committee for the Exceptional Peoples' Olympiad; Sudbury Law Association.

WALLACE, George E., Q.C., (North Bay)—Graduated B.A. Queen's 1933; Osgoode 1936; Queens Counsel 1951; private practice civil and criminal litigation, 46 years; juvenile and family court judge (part-time) 30 years; past president Kiwanis Club, Curling Club Y's Men, Nipissing Law Association; past member Canadian Bar Council on Judiciary; holder Canadian Centennial Medal; life fellow of Foundation for Legal Research; director Algonquin Park Forestry Authority; past member of A.G.'s Committee on Legal Aid; member of Osler Task Force on Legal Aid; bencher 1971-79; past vice-chairman of Legal Aid Committee; present member Legal Aid Committee.

WARDLAW, J. James, Q.C., (Orangeville)—B.A. McMaster 1952; Osgoode Hall Law School 1956; Q.C. 1969. Partner, Wardlaw, Wardlaw & Mullin. B.A.C: head of Estate Planning section 1979-1981. Lecturer, Continuing Education programs on real estate and estates. C.B.A: member of Council 1979-1980; former chairman Wills and Trusts section; former member Real Property section. Author of articles in Estates and Trusts Quarterly. Member of advisory committee, Law Reform Commission, of Estate Administration Project and on Surrogate Rules reform. Elected bencher 1979. Member of Practice and Insurance, Continuing Education, Research and Planning, Professional Conduct (vice-chairman) committees and special committees on Mortgage Brokers, Numbers, and Disbursements.

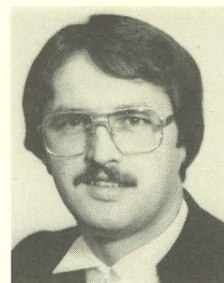

WARNER, Donald J., Q.C., (Lindsay)—Born 1936; B.A., Victoria College, 1958; LL.B. University of Toronto, 1961; called to bar, 1963; past president, Lindsay Law Association; legal aid area director of Victoria and Haliburton, 1967 to present; served chairman, Committee on Area Director's Retainers; member committee on Legal Aid Regulations; senior partner, Warner, Cork & Siegel, Lindsay, general practice and litigation. Community services: Lindsay Parks Management Board, 1965-1980; chairman, Building Committee Lindsay Swimming Pool; vice-chairman Downtown Redevelopment Committee; Lindsay Citizen of the Year, 1977; honorary Kinsman; married, three children.

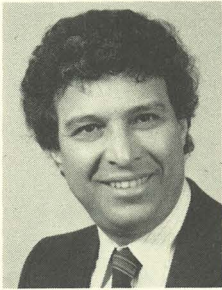

WEAVER, Mary P., Q.C., (Sudbury)—Primary and secondary education Toronto. Graduate University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall Law School. Call to bar 1951; practised in Township of Scarborough for two years. Partner, Weaver, Simmons—13 lawyers (since 1962) Sudbury. Formerly National Council member C.B.A. and Executive Committee C.B.A.O. Member—C.B.A. National Committee on the Judiciary. Member of Real Estate and Estates sub-sections. Organized and participated in continuing legal education programs for C.B.A.O. and Law Society. Formerly on Board of Governors Laurentian University (chairman of Executive Committee). Trustee Sudbury Algoma Hospital. Board member Ontario Mental Health Foundation.

WIECKOWSKI, Wladislaw C., (Thunder Bay)—Honours Bachelor of Commerce degree from Lakehead University, Thunder Bay, in 1974; Bachelor of Laws degree from Osgoode Hall in 1977; articles with White, Swaye, Mackesy & Smye in Hamilton; called to the bar on April 6, 1979; practised law as a sole practitioner in Hamilton until July 31, 1981 and since then in Thunder Bay.

YACHETTI, Roger D., Q.C., (Hamilton)—Age 42, married, three children. B.A. Western 1961, LL.B. Western, 1964 (Ivan C. Rand Honour Society). At Western, awarded the Arthur T. Little Gold Medal. Called 1966, awarded the Treasurer's Medal, the Law Society first prize and the Lawyers' first prize. Appointed law clerk, Honourable G. A. Gale, 1966. Former trustee, Hamilton Law Association and president of Hamilton Criminal Lawyers' Association. President, Hamilton Lawyers' Club, director, Advocates' Society, member, C.B.A., Criminal Lawyers' Association. Elected benchler 1979; member Libraries Committee, Legal Aid Committee, Public Information Committee; vice-chairman, Discipline Committee; chairman, Special Committee on Numbers in the Profession. Endorsed by Hamilton Law Association.

This concludes the list of Candidates outside Metropolitan Toronto

Candidates within Metropolitan Toronto

BARLOW, H. Robert, Q.C.—Born June 26, 1940; married, two children; B.A. University of Toronto, 1962; LL.B. Osgoode Hall, 1965; call to bar 1967; Q.C. 1980; partner, Barlow, Peck & O'Donoghue, Toronto; member C.B.A., Advocates' Society, Medico-Legal Society, Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association, American Trial Lawyers Association; past director and chairman of the Property Committee Delcrest Childrens' Centre.

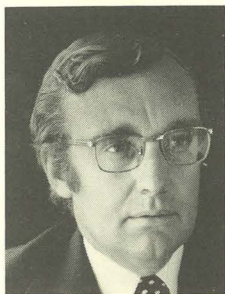

BASTEDO, Thomas G., Q.C.—Called 1971, partner of Bastedo, Cooper & Shostack since 1971. Queen's Counsel 1983. Bar Council of Ontario 1972-82; former chairman, Legal Education section (Ontario), Family Law section (Ontario), Family Law section (C.B.A.). Instructor, Bar Admission Course (civil procedure 1972-77, family law 1972-77 and 1982). Sessional lecturer, Osgoode Hall Law School 1975 and 1981. Contributor to Canadian Encyclopedic Digest, periodicals, seminars, and special lectures. Member, Legal Aid Area Committee. Former member, Lawyers' Advisory Committee to Williston Rules Committee, Council on Status of Women and board of the John Howard Society of Ontario.

BERGEL, Hy—Age 36; married, four children; B.A. (Psychology) University of Toronto; LL.B. Osgoode (York); has carried on general practice in North York since 1972; has run legal aid clinics in Weston and North York since 1974; deputy judge (small claims) since 1976; former vice-president Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America. Member Ontario Lawyers Association and Advertising Sales Club. Activities: poet, humorist, long-distance swimmer, charity fundraiser.

BRISTOW, David I., Q.C.—Graduate of University of Toronto, B.A. Victoria College 1953; Osgoode Hall Law School 1957; appointed Queen's Counsel 1969; Lieutenant, Royal Canadian Navy (R) (Ret.); senior partner, Bristow, Catalano, Moldaver & Gilgan, Toronto; co-author, Mechanics' Liens in Canada; contributing author, Chitty's Law Journal, Angers Law Digest of Canadian Law, Daily Commercial News, Criminal Law Quarterly; lecturer and instructor Bar Admission Course; member: Canadian Bar Association, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, County of York Law Association, Toronto Lawyers Club, the Advocates' Society, Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity; fellow, Foundation for Legal Research.

BRULÉ, J. Albert, Q.C.—Bencher since 1975; currently chairman, Practice & Insurance Committee; member, Finance, Investments and Legal Education Committees; head of Estate Planning and Administration of Estates section, Bar Admission Course; lecturer in all 24 Bar Admission Courses; author of Volume 9, Wills and Trusts, O'Brien's Encyclopedia of Forms; co-editor of Estates & Trusts Quarterly. Fellow of American College of Probate Counsel; member, International Academy Estates & Trusts Law; section member of International Bar Association; representative to Union Internationale des Avocats.

BYNOE, B. Clive, Q.C.—Called to the bar 1957; Q.C. 1970; elected bencher 1975; re-elected bencher 1979; former vice-chairman, Discipline Committee; present chairman, Libraries and Reporting Committee; past president, Criminal Lawyers Association. Participated as instructor and lecturer, Bar Admission Course; some time lecturer, continuing education program, Federation of Law Societies. Served as counsel to several Royal Commissions including the Inquiry into the Toronto Jail. Member: Advocates' Society; Criminal Lawyers Association; County of York Law Association; Lawyers Club; Canadian Bar Association. Sole practitioner.

CAMERON, Donald R., Q.C.—Partner in Lash, Johnston in Toronto; LL.B., University of Toronto, 1961; called to bar, 1963; Bar Admission Course: instructor (1967-1973) and lecturer on business acquisitions (1973-1979); Canadian Bar Association, chairman, Ontario and national Business Law sections (1975-1980), member of Council, member of Continuing Education committee and chairman of C.B.A. three-day annual Institute on Continuing Legal Education in 1982 and 1983; participant in numerous business law seminars and panels for Law Society and C.B.A.; Toronto United Way Campaign executive committee (1973-74); vice-president of Ontario Division, Canadian Red Cross Society.

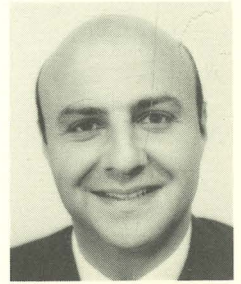

CARTER, Robert J., Q.C.—LL.B. Osgoode Hall 1960; articulated to G. Arthur Martin, Q.C. 1961; called to the bar 1962. Practised with Martin and Hartt 1962-1966; Martin and Carter 1966-1973; sole practitioner, 1973-1975; Carter and Powell 1975 to 1982; sole practitioner 1982 to present. Practice devoted to criminal law. Former director Advocates' Society; past chairman Criminal Section Ontario branch, Canadian Bar Association; past president Criminal Lawyers Association; head criminal procedure section Bar Admission Course 1967 to present; co-chairman, continuation courses in criminal law held across Canada sponsored by the Federation of Law Societies.

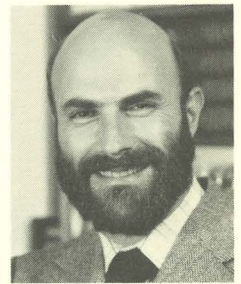

CARTHY, James J., Q.C.—Bencher since 1973; chairman of Legal Education committee since 1979; former chairman of Practice and Insurance committee and Public Relations committee. Editor of Ontario Annual Practice. Partner in Weir & Foulds where practice has been devoted to civil litigation and administrative law since graduation in 1958.

COOPER, Austin M., Q.C.—Graduate University of Toronto, Commerce and Finance, 1949; graduate, with honours, from Osgoode Hall Law School, 1953 and awarded Clara Brett Martin Scholarship; has practised in field of criminal litigation in Toronto since 1953; elected a bencher of The Law Society of Upper Canada in 1971, and again in 1975 and 1979; chairman of the Professional Conduct Committee, 1975 to 1979; currently member of the Discipline Committee (Policy Section), Admissions Committee, and Research and Planning Committee; former director of the Advocates' Society; member of the Task Force on Public Violence against Women and Children.

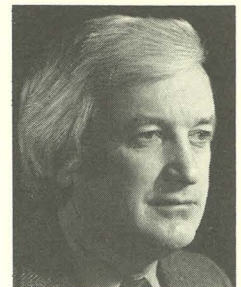

COOPER, Gordon E., Q.C.—Born Toronto 1935; graduated University of Toronto 1955, Osgoode Hall, 1959. Founding partner, Goodman and Carr; Queen's Counsel 1979. Author, articles, Canadian Tax Journal. Instructor, taxation, Bar Admission Courses 1972-1977, estate planning courses, Law Society, Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. Speaker, seminars/conferences, Canadian Bar Association, Law Society, Practising Law Institute, American Law Institute, American Bar Association. Chairman/member, various committees including United Community Fund, Metropolitan Toronto; past treasurer Co-Ordinated Services to Jewish Elderly; director Canadian Associates Ben Gurion University, member Professional Advisory Committee, Bequests and Endowments Toronto Jewish Congress; former trustee Canadian Outward Bound Wilderness School.

COPELAND, Paul D.—Director, Criminal Lawyers Association 1982-83. Observer for Criminal Lawyers Association at Law Society Legal Aid Committee. Founder & steering committee member, Law Union of Ontario. McDonald Commission, detailed summary number 36. Member: ad hoc committee on Legal Aid, Association of American Jurists, International Commission of Jurists, Canadian Civil Liberties Association. Columnist on drug law, criminal lawyers newsletter. Osgoode, 1965, called to bar 1967. Practising in Toronto with Copeland, Liss in criminal law and immigration matters with some related civil litigation.

CRANE, J. Douglas, Q.C.—46, called to the bar 1963; Q.C. 1975; married, four sons; sole practitioner civil and criminal litigation; lecturer, B.A.C., civil and criminal procedure, 1968-79; Charter of Rights and administrative law, 1982. Member, Environmental Appeal Board; chairman, Legal Education and Training section C.B.A. (Ontario) 1974-76; member editorial board of Advocates' Quarterly and former member editorial board, Criminal Reports; secretary and director, Advocates' Society 1968-71; president Toronto Lawyers Club 1978-79; national chairman, C.B.A. Legal Education and Training Section 1979-81. Elected bencher 1981, appointed to Legal Aid, Legal Education, Libraries and Reporting, Legislation and Rules and Discipline Committees.

DAVID, Rodica, Q.C.—Graduated, U. of T., Faculty of Law 1968. Articled Blake, Cassels & Graydon. Called 1970. Formed sole practice 1973. Counsel, Rosenfeld, Malcolmson, Lampkin and Levine 1978 to 1982. Appointed Q.C. 1982. Presently in private practice and counsel to Demon & Associates. Practice restricted to matrimonial, commercial and civil litigation. Member, Williston Committee on Revision of Rules of Civil Procedure. Numerous speaking, media appearances on family law. Author: Marriage and Family Law in Ontario, CED. Divorce and Annulment. Instructor family law Bar Admission Course 1972 to 1981. Lecturer continuing education programs for Law Society, Canadian Bar Association and private groups.

DORAN, A. Burke, Q.C.—Born in Ottawa 1937; practised with Gowing, MacTavish, Osborne & Henderson 1963-1966. 1966 to the present with Lang, Michener, Cranston, Farquharson & Wright. Past director, Advocates' Society, director, Thomas More Lawyers' Guild; past chairman, Family Law section (Ont.) C.B.A., former magister, Phi Delta Phi; member, Medico-Legal Society, Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association. Former group instructor BAC in Civil Procedure II and Family Law. Participant in numerous programs on family law and civil litigation. Elected bench 1979. Currently chairman of Public Information Committee. Member, Bench and Bar Council and the Morden Committee on the Rules.

DU VERNET, Ernest A., Q.C.—Called to the bar in 1949; in private general practice to 1961. In partnership with other lawyers, latterly known as DuVernet, Caruthers to 1978. Counsel to the Corporation of the City of Toronto 1978-1979. In private practice as a general counsel in partnership DuVernet, Stewart. Sometime lecturer at the Bar Admission Course in real estate and landlord and tenant. Sometime lecturer in commercial law at the University of Toronto. Past president Humber Valley Kiwanis Club; trustee Royal Ontario Museum.

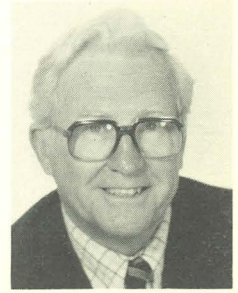

ELLYN, Igor—Called to bar 1973. Civil litigation and family law practitioner, Toronto; instructor, Bar Admission Course, 1977-present; member of council, chairman, continuing education program on Enforcement of Judgments, 1982 and member, Communications Committee, 1980-present of Canadian Bar Association Ontario branch; weekly columnist, Toronto Sun, "You & the Law", 1979-81; contributor of articles on civil litigation to Advocates Quarterly; member: Advocates' Society, American Bar Association, American Trial Lawyers Assoc., American Law Institute; 1983 fund raising chairman, Leo Baeck Day School, Toronto; constitution advisor, Jewish Community Centre of Toronto.

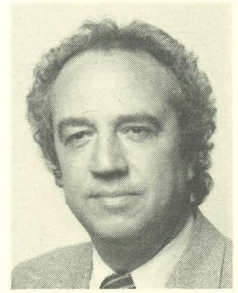

EPSTEIN, Philip M., Q.C.—Head of Family Law section, Bar Admission Course; past chairman, Family Law section, Ontario branch of the Canadian Bar Association; chairman and lecturer for various family law programs of the Law Society of Upper Canada and the Ontario branch of the Canadian Bar Association. Member of the Advocates' Society, York County Law Association, Canadian Bar Association, American Trial Lawyers Association; member of York County Legal Aid Area Committee; practice confined to civil litigation with an emphasis on family law and defence of solicitors' negligence claims.

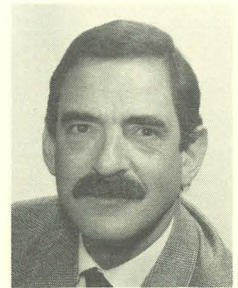

EVANS, Lance S., Q.C.—Born Oakville, Ontario. Early education, Toronto and University of Toronto. Private practice 1955 to date; primarily counsel in civil and criminal cases, all levels including tribunal and boards. Appointed Q.C. 1966. Former member of Council C.B.A. Ontario branch and director, Advocates' Society. Presently trustee, Lawyers Club and honorary solicitor St. John's Ambulance, Metro Toronto. Served R.C.A.F. 1942-46 and later as legal officer R.C.A.F. Reserve Toronto and as honorary solicitor, Ontario branch Royal Canadian Legion. Associations: Canadian Bar Association, Medico-Legal Society, York County Law Association, Advocates' Society, Lawyers Club, Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

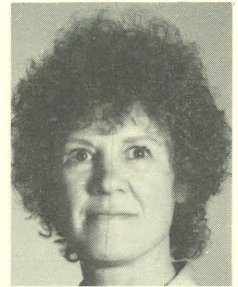

FERRIER, Lee K., Q.C.—Called: 1964. Elected benchler, 1979. Formerly: chairman, Family Law section, International Bar Association and C.B.A.; COMSOC committee on adoption records; Ontario delegate, Uniform Law Conference; board, Children's Aid Society, Metropolitan Toronto; board Visiting Homemakers' Association; board, Parkdale Community Legal Services; project consultant, Clarke Institute of Psychiatry; editor, Infants and Children, Canadian abridgment; B.A.C. lecturer; council, C.B.A. Clinic Funding Committee; Attorney General's Committee on Representation of Children; trustee, Foundation for Legal Research; Currently: founding member, Advocates' Society; vice-president, Lawyers Club; Legal Aid Committee; chairman, Continuing Legal Education Committee; co-author, MacDonald and Ferrier Canadian Divorce Law and Practice.

FISHER, Stanley, G., Q.C.—Partner, McMillan, Binch; born 1935. Married to Carole Fisher, R.N., three children, Dean, Susan and Jodi. B.A. University of Toronto 1956; LL.B. University of Toronto 1959; call to the bar 1961. Clerkship to Chief Justice of Ontario 1961-2. McMillan, Binch 1962 to present; barrister appearing in all courts and before numerous administrative tribunals. Instructor: Bar Admission Course; Faculty of Law, University of Toronto practitioner's program and guest lecturer; Osgoode Hall, trial advocacy; panelist, Canadian Bar Association and Law Society Special Lectures. Chairman, University of Toronto, Discipline Tribunal.

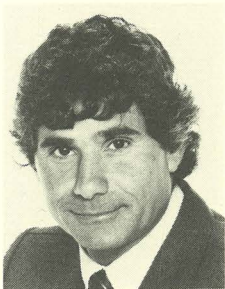

FYLES, Freda M.—Mature student, Osgoode Hall Law School, graduating 1979; called to bar 1981. Employed by City of Toronto, Planning and Development department; mother of three; longtime volunteer in welfare areas.

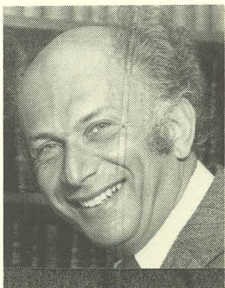

GENEST, Pierre, Q.C.—Partner: Cassels, Brock; B.A. U. of O., 1950; Osgoode Hall 1954; Q.C. 1968; benchler since 1979; vice-chairman, Professional Conduct Committee (1979-80); chairman, Discipline Committee; contributor, Holmsted & Gale; lecturer, law of expropriation, cross-examination of expert witnesses, damages, etc.; president, Lawyers Club (1968-69); director: Advocates' Society 1968-70; member, York County Area Legal Aid Committee (1971-78); member of council, Medico Legal Society (1976-78); member, Attorney General's committee on the Utilization of French Language Services in Ontario courts; member Legislative Council Northwest Territories (1973-75); trustee, Clarke Institute of Psychiatry (1975-78); chairman, Ontario Mental Health Foundation (1975-78).

GLUCKSTEIN, Bernard L., Q.C.—Born in Toronto, 1936; married with three children. LL.B.; Osgoode Hall, 1960; called to the bar in 1962; appointed Q.C. in 1978; partner, Gluckstein, Neinstein. Director, Advocates' Society; instructor, Bar Admission Course, Civil Procedure II; advisor, Advocacy Resource Centre for the Handicapped; member, Advocates' Society, Medico-Legal Society, Canadian Bar Association, American Trial Lawyers Association, International Association of Insurance Counsel, County of York Law Association. Associated with Variety Club of Ontario in an executive capacity.

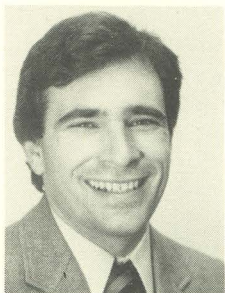

GOLDEN, Aubrey E., Q.C.—Practises as civil and criminal counsel before courts and administrative tribunals. Graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1959; senior partner Golden, Green & Starkman, Toronto; national chairman, Civil Liberties section, Canadian Bar Association 1967-69; presently vice-chairman, Administrative Law section, Ontario Bar Association; co-chairman. Contracts committee, Writers' Union of Canada; member Advocates' Society and York County Law Association; co-author, Rumours of War 1971. Married to Judith Golden, three children. Hobbies: flying, skiing and writing.

GRAYSON, B. Michael, Q.C.—Born and raised in Toronto; age 58. Member R.C.N.V.R.; graduate University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall—1953; appointed Queen's Counsel 1963. Served municipal government for 20 yrs; member Toronto Board of Education; member Metro Toronto Board of Education; alderman Toronto City Council; member Metro Council; member Metro Planning Board; member Toronto Parking Authority; member Toronto Housing Authority; practice restricted to criminal law; member Criminal Lawyers Association.

GROUND, John D., Q.C.—Partner, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt; corporate/commercial practice; elected bencher, 1975 and 1979; chairman, Professional Conduct Committee; vice-chairman, Legal Education Committee, 1975-78; chairman, Admissions Committee, 1978-79; chairman, Special Committee on Advertising; member, Legal Education Committee, Public Information Committee, special committees on Bar Admission Course, Numbers in Practice, Discipline Procedures, Convocation and Elections of Benchers; chairman, National Committee on Anti-Inflation Act, 1975-78; co-chairman, March Lectures, 1977 and 1981; member, Ontario Council, C.B.A.; Ontario Executive, C.B.A., 1969-76; past-president, Federation of Law Societies; head, Corporate/Commercial Section, B.A.C., 1972-75; lecturer, Corporation Finance, University of Toronto Law School, 1969-1975.

HARTLEY, John M.—Age 31. Called to the bar of Ontario in 1978 after having attended the University of Western Ontario and Osgoode Hall Law School. While at Osgoode he managed the Osgoode Pub. Since his call he has practised in the Beach area of Toronto. Member of the Canadian Bar Association, York County Law Association, Ontario Lawyers Association, and Beaches Progressive Conservative party; an organizing member of the Ski Hawks school which has assisted visually impaired skiers for 14 years.

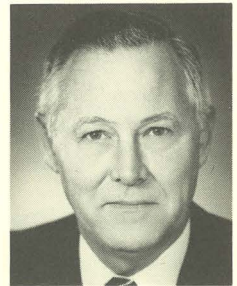

HATELY, George W., Q.C.—Partner in the firm of Blake, Cassels & Graydon, Toronto; engaged in the practice of civil litigation; age 51; graduated from the University of Manitoba; called to the bar in Manitoba in 1955 and in Ontario 1959; Queen's Counsel 1971; a co-chairman of the Academic Tribunal of the University of Toronto, a director and third vice-president of the Advocates' Society, a director of the Downtown Churchworkers' Association, and has participated as a panelist and lecturer in Canadian Bar Association and other continuing legal education programs.

HOGAN, Mary L.—Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1972; called to the bar, 1974. Director of Parkdale Community Legal Services where she specializes in landlord and tenant and housing law. Teaches a course in advanced leaseholds at Osgoode Hall Law School; has been a seminar leader in administrative law at the Bar Admission Course, and has sat on the Residential Premises Rent Review Board. Member of Canadian Bar Association, County of York Law Association, and the Canadian Council on Social Development's National Housing Committee.

HOWIE, Kenneth E., Q.C.—Admitted to bar 1951. Education: University of Toronto (B.A., Honour Law, 1948; LL.B., 1950); Osgoode Hall. Lecturer on Trial Practice, Bar Admission Course of The Law Society of Upper Canada. Trial demonstrator, Osgoode Hall Law School. Past associate editor, Carswell's Practice Cases (Annotated). Member: Canadian Bar Association (past member of council); County of York Law Association (past president); Medico-Legal Society of Toronto (past president); the Advocates' Society (president); International Academy of Trial Lawyers (fellow and director); honorary life member Ontario Insurance Adjusters' Association.

HUMPHREY, David G., Q.C.—Called 1950. Assistant Crown attorney 1950-54. Criminal defence lawyer since 1954. Presently an elected benchler on Professional Conduct and Discipline Committees.

HUNT, Diana M.—Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1976, and was called to the Ontario bar in 1978. She currently practises at Parkdale Community Legal Services, specializing in landlord-tenant law. Counsel for community legal clinics appearing before the Commission of Inquiry into Residential Tenancies.

JONES, N. Charles—Born 1932. Studied engineering in London, England. Taught engineering in Canadian colleges before entering law. B.A. University of Toronto; graduated in law from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1979; called to the bar, 1981. Presently a sole practitioner in Toronto. Member: Engineering Institute of Canada; Canadian Bar Association.

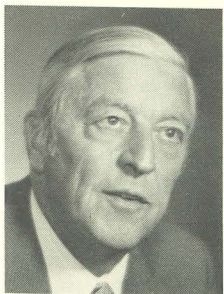

KEITH, Anthony, Q.C.—Partner, Keith, Katzman and Kramer; director of the Advocates' Society and chairman of its Publications Committee; instructor in civil procedure, Bar Admission Course (since 1966); special counsel for the Law Society of Upper Canada on numerous disciplinary and compensation fund matters; co-chairman, University of Toronto Academic Discipline Tribunal; member of the Canadian Bar Association and County of York Law Association; past director of Canadian Warplane Heritage Inc. (1977-1982); elder, Rosedale Presbyterian Church, Toronto; past district executive, Boy Scouts of Canada (1963-1975); past director and president, Shadow Lakes Cottagers Association (1974-1980).

KOSKIE, Raymond, Q.C.—Age 45. Admitted to bar 1963. Partner, Koskie & Minsky; previously partner, Robins & Robins and Robins & Partners. Practising labour relations, civil litigation, law of trusts and counsel to employee benefit plan trust funds, in Ontario and other provinces. Lecturer and author in law of trusts. Formerly chairman, Labour Relations section, C.B.A.O.; chairman, committee on Prepaid Legal Services, C.B.A.O. (1979 to date). National council, C.B.A. (1980-1); Council C.B.A.O. (1980 to date). Co-chairman, Law Society continuing education program on labour law (1971 to date). Attorney General of Ontario advisory committee on new Mechanics' Lien Act (1981-3).

KRONBY, Malcolm C., Q.C.—Called to bar 1959. With Kronby, Chercover since 1962, evolving into nearly exclusively matrimonial counsel work and trial practice. Publications include Divorce Practice Manual for the profession, and Guide to Family Law and Canadian Family Law for the lay public, and numerous periodical articles. Past chairman, Family Law section, CBA/Ontario; instructor in family law, BAC; frequent participant in LSUC, CBA and other continuing education programs; occasional lecturer in family law at Osgoode Hall and U. of T. law schools. Editor of family law column in the Advocates' Society Journal. Editor and publisher of Family Law Reform Reporter.

LAMONT, Donald H. L., Q.C.—Bencher; vice-chairman of the Admissions Committee, member of Legal Education and Professional Conduct Committees; practises law with wife Mary, sons Donald and David and Mary Brennan; for nineteen years head of the Real Estate and Landlord and Tenant section of the Bar Admission Course; past president of the Toronto Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association and Canadian Bar Association (Ontario); author of Real Estate Conveyancing, Mortgages and Conveyancing Forms and Residential Tenancies, 4th ed.

LEGGE, Laura L., Q.C.—Elected benchler 1975, re-elected 1979; member, committees on Discipline Policy, Practice & Insurance, Public Relations, Numbers in the Profession; chairman, Admissions Committee, Polaris Committee; trustee, The Law Foundation. Graduate Osgoode Hall (1948); Bachelor of Arts, University of Western Ontario. Member of Corporation, Trinity College (1969-1979); president, Soroptimist International of Toronto (1974-1975); member, Grace Church on-the-Hill; director, Home Care Program of Metropolitan Toronto; council member, Ontario College of Art; vice-president, Ontario Safety League. Partner, Legge & Legge; member, Medico-Legal Society, County of York Law Association; president, Womens' Law Association of Ontario (1964-1966).

LEVY, Earl J., Q.C.—Married. Two children. Graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1963. Queen's Counsel 1976. Vice-president of Criminal Lawyers Association. Participated as lecturer, panelist and demonstrator in educational programs sponsored by Canadian Bar Association, Federation of Law Societies, Osgoode Hall Law School, University of Toronto Law School and Criminal Lawyers Association.

LIEBECK, Frank I.—Admitted to the bar in 1974 and a graduate of the University of Western Ontario Law School. Practises civil litigation with Beatty and Wood and is a member of the Official Guardian's panel for independent child representation. Member of C.B.A. and an instructor in contract law at Ryerson. Since 1975 has served on board of directors of Black Theatre Canada and formerly member and chairman of the board of directors of the Inner City Angels.

LISSAMAN, Douglas H., Q.C.—Born 1932, Toronto, married, two children. Legal education: '55 (U.K.), '59 (Ont.), '69 (Q.C.). Past and present activities: Bar Admission instructor; participant in continuing legal education; council member C.B.A., Ontario Branch; chairman Family Law subsection C.B.A. (Ontario). Member Criminal Injuries Board; member Canadian Civil Liberties Association; chairman of Sir William Campbell Foundation; president John Howard Society of Ontario; director John Howard Society of Canada; president Community Service Organization (United Way Charity); director Visiting Homemakers Association (United Way Charity); director and founder Regent Park Community Health Centre; elder Bloor Street United Church; partner, Atlin, Goldenberg, Cass, Cohen, Lissaman & Armel, Toronto.

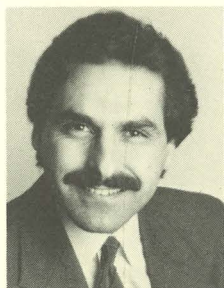

LYONS, Jeffery S., Q.C.—Practises civil litigation; partner in Toronto firm of Lyons, Arbus; special interest in consumer problems; lecturer and contributor of articles on class actions and consumer law; 42-year-old native of Hamilton; now resident of Toronto. Community activity: present commissioner, Toronto Transit Commission; member, board of management, CNIB National Library; director, International Freedom of Information Commission; past chairman, Advocacy Committee, Ontario Consumers Association; former instructor, Bar Admission Course; past member, North York Environmental Control Committee; past member & vice-chairman, Metropolitan Toronto Zoo Board of Management; member, Advocates' Society, Canadian Bar Association, Medico-Legal Society of Toronto.

MacMILLAN, Charles F., Q.C.—Born, Hillsburgh, Ontario. Graduated University of Toronto, B.A., 1947; University of Manitoba, LL.B., 1951. Admitted Manitoba bar 1951, Ontario bar 1952. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1963. Senior partner, Mac-Millan, Rooke, Avery & Boeckle. Royal Naval Fleet Air Arm 1944-1945. Director ratepayers' association 1964-1983; board member of Rosedale United Church. Papers given to Advocates' Society on occupiers' liability and to other groups on civil litigation. Member: Canadian Bar Association, Advocates' Society, Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association, Medico-Legal Society of Toronto, International Commission of Jurists, Defense Research Institute, Inc. and Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

MANES, Ronald D.—B.Sc., LL.B., LL.M.; Osgoode Hall 1971. Awarded Lawyers' Club prize in civil procedure, Rowell prize, Carswells prize; Laidlaw fellowship to Harvard Law School, LL.M. 1972; articulated to: Charles Dubin, Q.C., Arthur Martin, Q.C. and Robert Carter, Q.C.; called to bar 1974; partner, Torkin, Manes, Cohen & Schwartz, litigation, trial and appeal; instructor: Osgoode Hall Law School, U. of T.; panelist/speaker on litigation subjects; author: Organized Advocacy: A Manual for The Litigation Practitioner; president, Osgoode Hall Law School Alumni Association; member: York Legal Aid Area Committee, C.B.A., Advocates' Society, York County Law Association, Association of American Trial Lawyers.

MANNING, Morris, Q.C.—Called to bar 1967; counsel with the Attorney General for Ontario until 1976; currently practises in the criminal, administrative and general civil litigation fields in private practice with his own firm; actively participates in continuing legal education for the Law Society, Canadian Bar, C.I.A.J. and others; participated in the moot court and trial advocacy programs at Osgoode and U. of T. law schools; has written and lectured on criminal law, advocacy and administrative law. His texts include: Rights Freedoms and The Courts; A Practical Analysis of The Constitution Act, 1982; Wiretap Law in Canada and Criminal Law (co-author).

MARCHILDON, Pierre F.—Called to the bar 1973 (with honours). Graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1971; Bachelor of Commerce degree University of Windsor 1968. Engaged in general, private practice of law for ten years; emphasis on family law. Instructor Bar Admission Course accounting section for eight years; instructor Bar Admission Course family law section for six years. Member of the Canadian Bar Association, York County Law Association, the Osgoode Society, Phi Delta Phi.

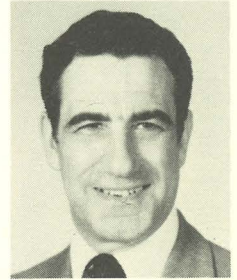

MARSZEWSKI, Eva E.—Practice is restricted to civil litigation, administrative and family law. A graduate of Osgoode Hall, she was admitted to the bar in 1975, and practised for one year at Feigman and Chernos. Since then she has managed her own practice. Special assignments included an appointment as one of counsel to the MacDonald Royal Commission (R.C.M.P. inquiry). She has been or continues to be a member of the Advocates' Society, the board of directors of the YWCA (Metro Toronto), Canadian Association of Women Executives, the Polish Refugee Committee and the Charter of Rights Education Fund.

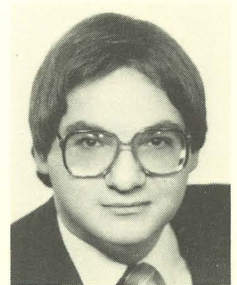

McIVER, Thomas P., Q.C.—Graduate of University of Toronto, St. Michael's College. Discharged from R.C.A.F. in September 1945 as a Flying Officer. Admitted to Ontario bar, June 1948; appointed Queen's Counsel in 1962. Member of the Canadian Bar Association, the County of York Law Association and the Advocates' Society. Approved arbitrator under Ministry of Labour (Ontario) since 1974. Engaged in general practice throughout entire career with emphasis on civil litigation.

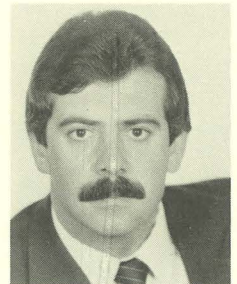

MENDES da COSTA, Derek, Q.C.—Chairman, Ontario Law Reform Commission; special lecturer in law, University of Toronto. Formerly, professor of law, Osgoode Hall Law School and Faculty of Law, University of Toronto. Member, ex officio, National and Ontario Councils, Canadian Bar Association. Member, Special Committee on Legal Education, Law Society of Upper Canada, (1970-72); chairman, board of directors, Pilot Conciliation Project of the Provincial Court (Family Division), (1976-81). Chairman, Attorney General's Committee on the Representation of Children; commissioner for Ontario, Uniform Law Conference of Canada. Publications: editor of and contributor to Studies in Canadian Family Law; co-author, Property Law.

MOLDAVER, Michael J.—Called to the bar in 1973; graduated from the University of Toronto Law School (gold medalist) and articulated with Thomson, Rogers and G. Arthur Martin, Q.C. (now the Honourable Mr. Justice Martin.) From 1976 to 1983, practised in partnership with Edward L. Greenspan, Q.C. and has recently established his own practice. Teaches at the University of Toronto Law School and the Bar Admission Course. Vice-chairman of the Criminal Justice sub-section, Canadian Bar Association; co-chairman of the Criminal Law Evening Sessions; committee member of the Advocacy Symposium and a director of the Criminal Lawyers Association.

MORNINGSTAR, Robert D.—Graduate of the University of Toronto in 1972 with a Bachelor of Arts degree and received his Bachelor of Laws degree from Queen's University in 1975. After being called to the bar of Ontario in 1977 he has practised criminal law exclusively and at 31 years of age has practised privately since 1980. An active member of the Ontario Legal Aid Area Committee; a member of the Criminal Lawyers Association and a part-time assistant Crown attorney.

MOSTYN, Louis, Q.C.—Received his elementary education in Midland, Ontario; graduate of University of Toronto, Commerce and Finance, 1955; Osgoode Hall Law School, 1959; LL.M. York University, 1980; appointed Queen's Counsel, 1979. Senior partner, Mostyn and Mostyn, Toronto; has a general practice with emphasis on litigation. Member Advocates' Society, Criminal Lawyers Association and County of York Law Association; former vice-president and legal counsel for Progressive Conservative Association, Wilson Heights riding, Toronto. Married with four daughters.

NORWOOD, David—Legal vice-president and general counsel, Canada Life Assurance Company, since 1975. Canadian Bar (Ontario) activities: chairman, Insurance Law section; vice-chairman, Corporate Counsel section. Author of legal textbooks: Uniform Life Insurance Law of Canada (1974); Life Insurance Law in Canada (1977). Panelist: Canadian Tax Foundation (1967); Canadian Bar Association (1970), (1979). Member, County of York Law Association. Industry: chairman, legal section, Canadian Life and Health Association. International: American Bar Association Tort and Insurance Law section; International Insurance Law committee; International Claim Association (Law Committee, co-editor I.C.A. News). Professional writer and speaker. M.A. LL.B., Scotland 1957.

OMATSU, Maryka J.—B.A., M.A., LL.B. (Toronto); graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School 1975; called to bar 1977; practised in the area of native, immigration and criminal law; writer and lecturer on human rights, affirmative action and discriminatory employment practices; author: Managing in a Multi-Racial Workforce; a Manual for Employers and Let's Work Together; Manual for Unions on Race Relations (forthcoming publications for the Mayor's committee on Community and Race Relations, Toronto); presently employed by the Canadian Human Rights Commission.

ORKIN, Mark M., Q.C.—Bencher 1978-79. Engaged in general practice as sole practitioner for some years; now with Orkin, Jaffary, a three-man firm. Academic degrees: LL.M. (1967), D. Jur. (1972). Queen's Counsel 1963. Has conducted seminars on legal ethics and costs. Member Attorney General's advisory Committee on French Language Services, also standing Committee on Legal Aid Accounts. Author, Legal Ethics (1957), The Law of Costs (1968), Speaking Canadian English (1970), Speaking Canadian French (1971), Canajan, Eh? (1973), French Canajan, Hé? (1975), Murrican, Huh? (1976), Sex Wars (1978), The Great Stork Derby (1981). Bilingual.

OUTERBRIDGE, Ian W., Q.C.—390 Bay Street, Toronto. Victoria College 1951. Osgoode Hall 1955. Queen's Counsel 1969. Bencher, Law Society of Upper Canada since 1977; Legal Education, Continuing Legal Education, Professional Conduct and Public Information Committees. President, Ontario Branch, C.B.A. (1978). President, Toronto Medico-Legal Society; Advocates' Society. Special lecturer, Law Society of Upper Canada, York University, McGill University, University of Michigan. Trustee, Humber Valley United Church, Etobicoke.

PAISLEY, Victor—B.B.A., LL.B. Called to the Ontario bar in 1972. Director, Advocates' Society, 1979-82; chairman, C.B.A. National Civil Liberties section, 1979-81; member, C.B.A. special committee, Constitution Bill, 1980-81; chairman, C.B.A. national committee on Criminal Court Administration, 1981—; member, executive committee, C.B.A. Ontario branch, 1980—; chairman, C.B.A. Ontario branch, Criminal Law section 1975-77; observer member, Law Society of Upper Canada Legal Aid committee, 1981—; chairman, Legal Aid subcommittee on Family Violence, 1982—; member, York County Area Committee. Presented legal education papers for Advocates' Society and at several C.B.A. legal education seminars.

PEPPER, Barry, Q.C.—Counsel to Fraser & Beatty; benchers (chairman of Finance Committee). Early education England; graduated high school, New Jersey, U.S.A. 1940; R.C.A.F. pilot (423 Squadron overseas) 1941-1945. Oxford University 1947 (M.A.Jur.), Osgoode Hall graduate 1950; Q.C. 1959. Bar Admission instructor in early years; sometime special lecturer to the Law Society. President: Medico-Legal Society (1964), Advocates' Society (1974-1976.) Director: the Law Foundation and the Federation of Law Societies. Member: the bars of Alberta and P.E.I. Fellow: the American College of Trial Lawyers.

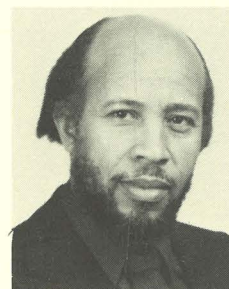

PEPPER, Elliott R., Q.C.—Graduated University of Toronto Law School 1950; graduated Osgoode Hall 1954; appointed Queen's Counsel 1961. Formerly: assistant director of Public Prosecutions; Her Majesty's Proctor in Divorce; senior counsel to the Attorney General (Ontario); chairman Criminal Justice section of the Ontario Bar Association; member of council of Canadian Bar Association; member of council of Medical Legal Association; president of Lawyers Club, Toronto; part time lecturer, criminal procedure and family law, and author of articles pertaining thereto. Presently: private practice, Beaudoin & Pepper.

POLIKA, Julian, Q.C.—Born, Toronto 1941. Education, University of British Columbia, University of Toronto Faculty of Law, LL.B. 1965; articulated, Malcolm Robb, Q.C. (dec'd.); called to bar 1967; Queen's Counsel 1978; career: sole practitioner civil and criminal litigation Toronto 1967-73. Ministry of the Attorney General: counsel 1973, director of the Crown Law Office—Civil Law 1973 to present; appointed Her Majesty's Proctor in Divorce 1976; instructor Bar Admission Course civil procedure I and administrative law; member: Canadian Bar Association, Advocates' Society, County of York Law Association, Lawyers Club, Royal Canadian Military Institute.

ROACH, Charles C.—(Toronto)—Born 1933; a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan and the University of Toronto; called in 1963. After six years with the Metro legal department, established own firm in 1968; partner Roach-Smith. Member of several national and international human rights organizations, including the American Association of Jurists, National Conference of Black Lawyers, the International Association of Democratic Lawyers and the Law Union. Lecturer and writer on immigration law, affirmative action, multiculturalism, indigenous people and human rights. Musician, artist and published poet.

ROCK, Allan M.—Born in Ottawa; a graduate of the University of Ottawa (B.A. and LL.B.). Called to the bar in 1973. A partner in Fasken & Calvin. Practice devoted to civil, administrative and criminal litigation. Since 1979, assistant head of civil procedure I, Bar Admission Course. Past chairman (1979-81) Civil Litigation section, Canadian Bar Association (Ontario). Lecturer in civil procedure at Osgoode Hall Law School. Chairman of and lecturer in a variety of continuing legal education programs. Member, Advocates' Society.

RUBY, Clayton C.—Vice-chairman, Discipline Committee; member, Professional Conduct Committee; member, National Council of Amnesty International; director, Criminal Lawyers Association; member Advocates' Society; editor, Canadian Rights Reporter (Butterworths); author, Sentencing, 2d ed., 1980, (Butterworths).

SCACE, Arthur R. A., Q.C.—A graduate of University of Toronto, Harvard University (M.A.), Oxford University (B.A., Rhodes Scholar) and Osgoode Hall (1965, silver medalist). Called to the Ontario bar in 1967 with the Treasurer's medal. Practised in the field of taxation with McCarthy & McCarthy from 1967 and has been a partner since 1972. A special lecturer in taxation at Osgoode Hall (1967-1974) and the University of Toronto (1973-1978). Currently head of the tax course in the Bar Admission; author of The Income Tax Law of Canada; benchers, Law Society of Upper Canada, 1979-; chairman, Investments; vice-chairman, Compensation Fund and Finance.

SEQUEIRA, Ivan St. Clair, Q.C.—Qualifications: advocate, High Court, Bombay 1953; advocate, High Court, Uganda 1955; barrister & solicitor, Ontario 1969; Queen's Counsel 1981. Judicial service: Magistrate, Uganda 1956; deputy registrar High Court of Uganda 1956; deputy registrar Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa 1957; resident magistrate, Uganda 1962; acting Chief Magistrate, Uganda 1967. Public service: Hon. business director, Arthritic Society, Etobicoke, 1980 to date; president & director, Madeira House, a community resource centre operating in association with the Department of Correctional Services, Government of Ontario, 1981 to date; president, the Etobicoke Law Guild, a branch of the York County Bar Association 1979 to date.

SHAW, Joel E.—Graduated from University of Toronto, Faculty of Law, 1964. Called to bar in 1966. Obtained LL.M. (Osgoode Hall) in 1977. Member of Advocates' Society. Practice confined to civil litigation. Instructed in creditors' and debtors' rights, Bar Admission Course 1978-1981.

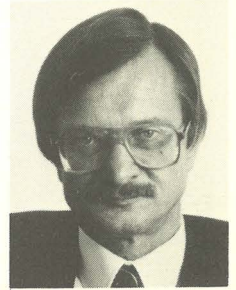

SHIBLEY, Richard E., Q.C.—Partner, Shibley, Righton & McCutcheon; benchers, elected in 1975 and 1979; trustee of The Law Foundation of Ontario (Law Society representative); lecturer, civil procedure, Osgoode Hall Law School (1959-1969) and University of Toronto Law School (1970-1974). Member of the Rules Committee by appointment of the Chief Justice of Ontario (1965 to date). Education: University of Toronto B.A. 1949 (gold medalist); Osgoode Hall Law School 1953 (bronze medalist). Queen's Counsel 1965. Memberships: Medical Legal Society (Council 1967-1970), Advocates' Society, Canadian Bar Association, Delta Chi fraternity. Born Port Colborne, Ontario, 1929.

SMITH, Heather J.—Crown prosecutor with Federal Department of Justice since 1973; graduate of Queen's University, B.A., LL.B.; called to the bar, 1973; extensive practice in prosecutions under the Combines Investigations Act, Income Tax Act, Narcotics Control Act and in extraditions and renditions; appointed senior counsel with Federal Department of Justice, 1981; panelist and participant for seminars and symposiums presented by Canadian Bar Association and Law Society of Upper Canada; member of executive, Criminal Justice section, the Canadian Bar Association, Ontario. Married with three children.

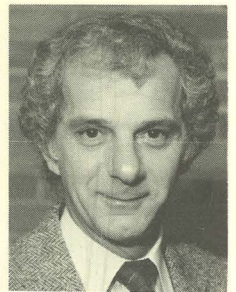

SOPINKA, John, Q.C.—Called 1960 (also member, Newfoundland and New Brunswick bars); Queen's Counsel, 1975. Senior partner, Stikeman Elliott Robarts & Bowman; in general counsel work in all courts in Ontario and Supreme Court of Canada. Counsel, Commission on Aviation Safety, Commission into Activities of the RCMP. Chairman, Task Force on Equality of Opportunity in Athletics. Special lecturer, U of T, Osgoode Hall Law School; author, The Trial Of An Action, co-author The Law Of Evidence In Civil Cases. Numerous articles in Canadian Bar Review, McGill Law Journal, Criminal Law Quarterly. Frequent lecturer in Ontario and other provinces.

SPENCE, James M.—42 years old; B.A. (Honours) Toronto, 1962; LL.B., Toronto (Butterworth prize), 1966. Partner, Tory, Tory, DesLauriers & Binnington. Formerly senior legal advisor, Foreign Investment Review Agency, 1975-1976; general counsel, Torstar Corporation, 1978-79. Panel speaker, March Special Lectures Series on Corporation Law, 1982; lecturer and contributor, Bar Admission Course, 1975-1981 (previously, instructor). Member, Canadian Bar Association committees on the Ontario Business Corporations Act, 1979-1982 and on the Reform of the Law of Contract, 1980-1982. Member, Canadian Bar Association, Canadian Tax Foundation, International Bar Association, Canadian Institute of International Affairs, Toronto Lawyers Club.

STRADIOTTO, Rino A., Q.C.—Bachelor of Law, Osgoode Hall 1960. Called to bar 1962. Partner, Borden & Elliot 1970. Queen's Counsel 1975. Member, Law Society council, CBA Ontario 1970. Member of council of CBA Ontario 1972-1975. Director, Advocates' Society 1977-1981. Member of council, Medico-Legal Society 1979-1982. Lecturer: Law Society March Special Lecture Series, Seminar Series Osgoode Hall, at York University. Chairman and lecturer Product Liability seminar CBA 1978 and Medical and Hospital Liability CBA 1979. Vice-chairman civil litigation, the 150th Anniversary Advocacy Symposium. Committee member "White Paper on Courts Administration". Co-chairman Committee on Medico-Legal Reports, Medico-Legal Society.

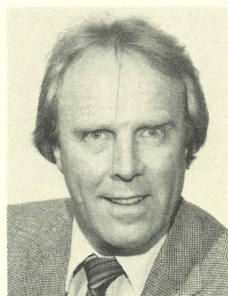

STRAUSS, Albert A., Q.C.—Born Toronto 1930; University of Toronto Honours Philosophy 1952; called to bar 1956; Queen's Counsel 1971; partner Strauss, Cooper, four-lawyer general practice firm; Formerly: president York County Law Association; group instructor Real Estate and section head Bar Admission Course; chairperson, Continuing Legal Education Committee, section co-ordinator and treasurer, Ontario Branch, Canadian Bar Association; vice-president Doctors Hospital, Toronto; trustee Holy Blossom Temple, Toronto; Presently: national executive CBA; lecturer Bar Admission Course; member CLE Committee CBAO.

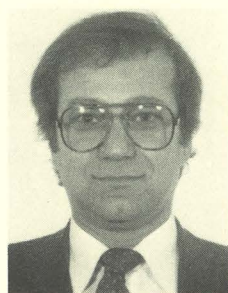

TEPLITSKY, Martin, Q.C.—Called to the bar, 1966; Queen's Counsel, 1980; instructor in the Bar Admission Course, 1972-74; full and part-time professor, Osgoode Hall Law School, 1975-80 (torts, civil procedure and criminal procedure); since 1966 practice confined to litigation (civil, criminal and administrative) and labour relations as neutral (arbitrator, mediator and conciliator); vice-chairman, Grievance Settlement Board, 1981; member of Advocates' Society and National Academy of Arbitrators; author of numerous articles on civil procedure, criminal procedure and torts; partner in the firm of Teplitsky & Colson.

THOMAS, Ronald G., Q.C.—Called 1964. President, Criminal Lawyers' Association of Ontario (1979-83); member, Bench and Bar Council (1979-83); Ontario delegate, Uniform Law Conference of Canada (1980, '81, '82); member, board of directors, John Howard Society of Metropolitan Toronto; member, Advisory Group to Attorney General's Task Force on Vandalism; member of council, Medico-Legal Society of Metropolitan Toronto (1981-82). Formerly counsel, Criminal Appeals and Special Prosecutions branch, Ministry of the Attorney General; private practice since 1969. Member, Advocates' Society, County of York Law Association.

WEISSGLAS, William, W. B.—Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1973. Articled for the law firm of Aiken, Capp and was called to the bar in March 1975. Practised law in the Borough of Scarborough until 1977 when he helped form the downtown law firm of Cohen, Weissglas & Borins which was subsequently renamed Cohen, Weissglas. Part-time lecturer to law clerks at Centennial College from 1979-1981. President of the Shaarei Shomayim Congregational Brotherhood as well as an active member in the following service organizations: Palestine Masonic Lodge, Scottish Right, Rose Croix and the Weitzman League.

WELLS, Edward J. K.—Director, Company Law branch, Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations. Called to the bar in 1976. He obtained his LL.B. from Windsor after receiving his B.A. from the University of Toronto, where he maintains an active interest, both as first vice-president of the University College Alumni and as a director of the University of Toronto Alumni Association where he is chairman of the Spring Reunion this year. Frequently contributes to education programs on new developments in corporate law sponsored by the CBA and other groups.

This concludes the list of Candidates within Metropolitan Toronto