MESSAGE FROM THE TREASURER

The Call to the Bar ceremony is an occasion for you, your family, your friends and your colleagues to celebrate your achievement of becoming a member of the Ontario Bar. For many of you, this will be the first time you put on the barrister's robes — the uniform of our profession, which dates back to the 15th century. Donning the barrister's robes signifies that you have crossed the threshold, from student to professional, from pupil to peer, from law graduate to member of The Law Society of Upper Canada.

For all of the participants in the Call to the Bar ceremony — candidates, family, friends, Benchers and staff of the Law Society — it is not only a happy event, but also an occasion to reflect on the meaning of the ceremony. Each candidate will already have signed the Rolls of the Court of Appeal for Ontario and the Superior Court of Justice. Each candidate is welcomed into the profession as an equal, takes the Oath of the barrister and solicitor and becomes an officer of the court. Each candidate promises to ensure access to justice, to improve the administration of justice, to champion the rule of law and safeguard the rights and freedoms of all persons. The Call to the Bar ceremony is an opportunity for us as lawyers to re-affirm the values of our profession, not only to each other as colleagues, but especially to those who have come to witness the event, family and friends, as well as members of the public.

LE MESSAGE DU TRÉSORIER

À l'occasion de cette cérémonie d'assermentation, vous célébrez avec votre famille, vos amis et vos collègues votre accession au rang de membre de la profession juridique en Ontario. Nombre d'entre vous revêtiront pour la première fois la toge d'avocat — l'uniforme de votre profession depuis le XV^e siècle. Revêtir la toge souligne votre passage d'étudiante et d'étudiant au statut de professionnel, de pupille à pair, de diplômée et diplômé en droit à membre du Barreau du Haut-Canada.

Pour toutes et tous les participants à la cérémonie d'assermentation — candidats, familles, amis, conseillers et personnel du Barreau — c'est plus qu'un événement heureux; c'est aussi une occasion de réfléchir à sa signification. Chaque candidat aura déjà signé les rôles de la Cour d'appel de l'Ontario et de la Cour supérieure de justice. Chaque candidat est accueilli dans la profession comme un égal, chacun prête le serment d'avocat et devient fonctionnaire judiciaire. Chaque candidat promet de chercher à assurer l'accès à la justice, d'améliorer l'administration de la justice, de défendre la primauté du droit et les droits et libertés de tous. La cérémonie d'assermentation offre une occasion pour nous avocates et avocats de réaffirmer les valeurs de notre profession, non seulement entre collègues, mais surtout au bénéfice de ceux et de celles qui assistent à l'événement, soit la famille, les amis et le public.

Vous avez parcouru différents chemins pour arriver à ce jour. Certains d'entre vous ont emprunté la route

You have taken different paths to arrive at this day. Some of you come to this ceremony by “conventional” means: undergraduate or graduate studies, law school at a Canadian university and articles of clerkship. Increasingly, more of you come to this day with qualifications from law schools abroad, or with experience practising in other common law jurisdictions in Canada or in other parts of the world. Perhaps today marks for you the start of a second career. For some of you, the journey has been relatively painless; for others, the personal sacrifices and the struggles have been enormous. Even though the journey for each of you has been different, each of you is here today because you have demonstrated not only the necessary academic and practical qualifications, but also the strength of character, to be admitted to the Bar. You have every right to be proud of your achievement.

Today’s ceremony marks the end of one journey and the beginning of another. No matter how hard or easy your journey has been to arrive at this day, and no matter what your background, you all begin a new journey today at the same time and in the same place, physically and figuratively. You have all taken the same oath and assumed the same obligations to your future clients, to the court and to the public we all serve. In exchange, you have been granted the privilege to practise law in Ontario as a barrister and solicitor. You start your careers as lawyers in Ontario as equals. That you wear the same « traditionnelle » : après des études de premier cycle ou de cycle supérieur, puis l’école de droit dans une université canadienne suivi d’un stage. De plus en plus, d’autres d’entre vous arrivent ici munis de diplômes en droit de l’étranger ou avec une expérience pratique dans d’autres ressorts de common law au Canada ou dans d’autres parties du monde. Peut-être que ce jour marque pour vous le début d’une nouvelle carrière. Pour certains d’entre vous, le parcours s’est fait sans trop de heurts; d’autres ont fait des sacrifices personnels et surmonté d’énormes obstacles. Même si chaque parcours est différent, vous êtes toutes et tous ici aujourd’hui parce que vous possédez manifestement non seulement des compétences théoriques et pratiques, mais aussi la force de caractère nécessaire pour être admis au barreau. Vous avez tous les droits d’être fiers du chemin parcouru.

La cérémonie d’aujourd’hui marque la fin d’un parcours et le début d’un autre. Peu importe si votre cheminement a été facile ou difficile pour arriver à ce jour, et peu importe d’où vous venez, vous poursuivez tous une nouvelle destination, en ce même jour, au même moment et au même endroit, au propre comme au figuré. Vous avez tous et toutes prêté le même serment et accepté les mêmes obligations envers vos futurs clients, envers les tribunaux et ce public que nous servons tous. En échange, vous avez reçu le privilège d’exercer le droit en Ontario en qualité d’avocat. Vous entamez vos carrières comme avocates et avocats en Ontario à titre d’égaux. Le fait de porter la même barrister's robes is the visible manifestation of this equality.

As you begin your careers in law, remember that the opportunities for success and professional satisfaction are as diverse as the paths that brought you to today's ceremony. Commitment to the values and ethics of our profession and your continued dedication to the advancement of your learning and legal knowledge will be the common denominator for a rewarding and successful career in law, wherever that career may lead you.

On behalf of the Benchers and staff of The Law Society of Upper Canada, we extend our heartfelt congratulations and wish you every success in your legal career.

Thomas G. Conway
Treasurer

toge est la manifestation visible de cette égalité.

À l'aube de votre carrière en droit, rappelez-vous que les visages du succès et de la satisfaction professionnelle sont aussi variés que les chemins que vous avez parcourus pour arriver ici aujourd'hui. Le respect des valeurs et de l'éthique de notre profession et un dévouement continu envers l'apprentissage et la connaissance du droit constitueront les bases d'une carrière satisfaisante et réussie, peu importe où le vent vous portera.

Au nom des membres du Conseil d'administration et du personnel du Barreau du Haut-Canada, nous vous offrons nos plus sincères félicitations et vous souhaitons du succès dans votre carrière juridique.

Le trésorier,

Thomas G. Conway

CALL TO THE BAR

The call to the Bar takes place in two separate procedures. First, the Benchers of The Law Society of Upper Canada, who are responsible for the governance of the legal profession in Ontario, are called to order on the stage in a Special Convocation by the Treasurer, who is the head of the Law Society. The candidates will be presented by members of Convocation to the Treasurer who will confer on them the degree of Barrister-at-Law and call them to the Bar of Ontario. Convocation will then adjourn and a Special Sitting of the Court of Appeal for Ontario and the Superior Court of Justice will be convened by the Court Registrar. The Chief Justice of Ontario, or designate, will preside over the administering of the Oath of Allegiance, and the Oath to the newly called members of the Bar. The Court will then adjourn. The graduates now are called to the Bar as barristers and solicitors, and are authorized to practise law in the Province of Ontario.

ADMISSION AU BARREAU

L'admission au barreau se déroule en deux temps. En premier lieu, le trésorier, qui est chef du Barreau, ouvre un conseil extraordinaire sur l'estrade des conseillers du Barreau du Haut-Canada, qui sont responsables de l'administration de la profession juridique en Ontario. Des membres du Conseil présentent les candidates et candidats au trésorier qui leur remet le diplôme d'avocat-plaideur ou d'avocate-plaideuse et les reçoit au barreau de l'Ontario. La séance du Conseil est alors levée et le greffier convoque une session extraordinaire de la Cour d'appel de l'Ontario et de la Cour supérieure de justice. Le juge en chef de l'Ontario, ou la personne désignée, préside à la prestation du serment d'allégeance et du serment par les nouveaux membres reçus au barreau. La séance de la Cour est alors levée. Les candidates et les candidats sont maintenant avocats-plaideurs ou avocates-plaideuses et procureurs ou procureures, et sont autorisés à exercer le droit dans la province de l'Ontario.
