The ceremony of Call to the Bar takes place in two separate procedures. First, the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada, who are responsible for the government of the legal profession in Ontario, are called to order on the stage in a Special Convocation, by the Treasurer who is the head of the Society. The candidates will be presented by the Chairman of the Admissions Committee to the Treasurer who will confer on them the degree of Barrister-at-Law and call them to the Bar of Ontario. Convocation will then adjourn and a Special Session of the Supreme Court of Ontario will be convened by the Registrar. The Chief Justice of the High Court of Justice for Ontario will preside over the administering of the Oath of Allegiance, the Barristers Oath and the Solicitors Oath, to the newly called members of the Bar.
