DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

Re: VICTOR PROUSKY, Mississauga

Mr. Lamek placed the matter before Convocation.

The reporter was sworn.

Mr. Robert Conway appeared for the Society and Mr. Bryan Finlay appeared for the solicitor who was present.

The Treasurer raised the issue as to whether or not the hearing in Convocation should be in camera or whether it could proceed in public. Mr. Finlay made representations asking that the matter continue in camera in part because Mr. Rosenberg was still before the criminal courts on related matters and there was a publicity ban on the evidence presented in that matter. Mr. Conway concurred on behalf of the Law Society.

It was moved by Mr. Carey, seconded by Mr. Lyons that the matter proceed in camera.

Re: HAROLD EDWIN STAFFORD, St. Thomas

Mr. Lamek placed the matter before Convocation.

The reporter was sworn.

Mr. Shaun Devlin appeared for the Society and Mr. Paul Stern appeared for the solicitor who was also present.

The Treasurer raised the issue as to whether or not the hearing in Convocation should be in camera in light of the fact that the hearing before the Committee was in camera. Mr. Stern made submissions that the hearing should continue in camera as Mr. Stafford was facing criminal charges which were still outstanding.

It was agreed that the matter would continue in camera.
