THE BENCHERS OF THE LAW SOCIETY IN CONVOCATION
IN TRINITY TERM, 1ST AND 2ND WM. IV., PASSED
THE FOLLOWING

RESOLUTIONS OF CONVOCATION.

1. Resolved—That the Law Society of Upper Canada was established by Act of Parliament of Upper Canada, of the 37th Geo. III., chap 13.

2. Resolved—That under that Act all persons duly entered of the Society and admitted on its Books, whether as Students or Barristers-at-Law, became by such entry and admission, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, Members of the Society.

3. Resolved—That by that Act the Society was empowered, with the approbation of the Judges of the Superior Courts as Visitors of the said Society, to make such Rules and Regulations as might be deemed necessary or proper for the government of the Society.

4. Resolved—That by a Rule of the Society of Michaelmas Term, 40th Geo. III., Cap. 2, passed by the Society on the 9th day of November, 1799, at a general meeting summoned by letter to all the members, for the express purpose of altering and adding to the Rules and Regulations of the Society, and approved of by the Judges, according to the Statute, on the 16th day of January, 1800. it was provided that the Benchers of the Society for the time being should be considered Governors of the said Society, and have full power to make such Rules and Regulations from time to time as should or might be necessary for the welfare of the Society, subject to the inspection of the Judges.

5. Resolved—That by that Rule the whole power of making Rules and Regulations, for the government of the Society was duly transferred to and vested in the Convocation of Benchers.

6. Resolved—That by the Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada of 2nd Geo. IV., Cap. 5, the Rule above mentioned and the proceedings of the Benchers' under it were recognized, and followed up by a legislative enactment incorporating that portion of the Society in which the power of legislating for the whole body had been so vested.

7. Resolved—That while this last-mentioned Act of Parliament confers corporate powers upon the Treasurer and Benchers only, under the corporate name of "The Law Society of Upper Canada," it does not interfere with the right of membership of persons duly entered of the Society and admitted on its books as Students or Barristers-at-Law, but leaves them members of the Law Society of Upper Canada, though not members of the Corporation of the Law Society of Upper Canada.

8. Resolved—That the powers conferred by this last-mentioned Act upon the Treasurer and Benchers, as well as all others with which they have been entrusted, are held by them in trust, and for the benefit of the Society at large, and not for the benefit of the Corporation of the Society only.

9. Resolved—That in fulfilling the various and important duties imposed upon it by the Constitution of the Society, the Convocation of the Benchers is frequently called upon to pass Rules for the government of the Society at large; to adopt resolutions explanatory of the sense entertained by the Benchers of existing regulations, and upon different other matters connected with the profession; to make General Orders for the regulation of its own proceedings as a body; and finally to direct by Particular Orders the executive business of the institution.

10. Resolved—That by the Act of Parliament of the 37th Geo. III., Cap. 13, it is provided that the Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Society shall be made with the approbation of the Judges, as Visitors of the Society.

11. Resolved—That the Judges have declined either to assent to, or dissent from resolutions of the Convocation, which did not contain provisions for the general government of the Society, expressly on the ground that their authority as Visitors under the statute did not extend to control any such proceedings of the Convocation.

12. Resolved—That under the Act of Parliament of the 37th Geo. III., Cap. 13, the approbation of the Judges is necessary only to the “Rules of the Society,” that is, to such regulations as provide for the general government of the Society at large, or, as being general in their operation contain provision by which persons not members of the Convocation may be directly affected, and such are in no respect binding on the Society, or any member of it, until the Judges of the Province have duly approved thereof according to law.

13. Resolved—That, to “The Resolutions of the Convocation,” that is, to such resolutions as are merely explanatory of the sense entertained by the Benchers, of existing rules or regulations, or upon other matters connected with the profession, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

14. Resolved—That, to “The Standing Orders of the Convocation,” that is, to such regulations of the Convocation as provide merely for the regulation of its own proceedings as a body, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

15. Resolved—That, to “To the Particular Orders of the Convocation,” that is, to such orders as are given by the Convocation in directing the executive business of the Institution, the approbation of the Judges is in no wise necessary, but such are in every respect effectual for the purposes intended, and binding upon the Society at large, and upon every member thereof without such approbation.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario as Visitors of the Law Society of Upper Canada approve of the Rules of the said Law Society passed in Hilary Term 1903, in so far as any of such Rules is or are subject to the approval or disapproval of the Visitors.

(1) Upon receipt by the said Chairman of the Discipline Committee, whether Convocation be in session or not, it shall be competent for the Discipline Committee to proceed to enquire whether or not a prima facie case is shewn.

94. Such suspension shall not preclude the adoption of proceedings by impeachment or otherwise, according to the course of the Society, before the Benchers thereof in Convocation, for disbarring and expelling such person from the Society, on the same grounds upon which either of such Courts may have proceeded to remove him from their Rolls, or any other that may render such proceeding necessary or proper in that behalf.

An Ordinance concerning Advocates, Attorneys, Solicitors and Notaries, and for the more easy collection of His Majesty's Revenues.

[Assented to 30th April, 1785.]

WHEREAS the welfare and tranquility of families, and the peace of individuals require, as an object of the greatest importance, that such persons only should be appointed to act and practice as barristers, advocates, attorneys, solicitors, proctors, and notaries who are properly qualified to perform the duties of those respective employments, and that, under certain necessary and proper regulations; be it therefore ordained and enacted by his honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Commander-in-chief of this Province, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, and by the authority of the same, it is hereby ordained and enacted, I. That from and after the publication of this ordinance, no person shall be commissioned, appointed or permitted to practice in any of His Majesty's Courts of civil jurisdiction in this Province, as a barrister, advocate, solicitor, attorney or proctor at law, who shall not have, bonâ fide, served a regular and continued clerkship, for and during the space of five years, under a contract, in writing, for that purpose made and entered into, with some advocate or attorney duly admitted and practising in the Courts of civil judicature in this Province or in some other part of His Majesty's dominions, or with some clerk or register of any Court of Common Pleas, or Court of Appeals, within this Province, for and during the space of six years, unless such person shall have been already called to the bar, or entitled so to be, and to practise as an advocate or attorney in some Court of civil jurisdiction, within some part of His Majesty's dominions, neither shall any person so entitled to be commissioned, or admitted to practise as aforesaid be commissioned or admitted to practise in any of the several capacities aforesaid, until after he shall have been examined by some of the first and most able barristers, advocates, and attorneys of the Court of judicature in this Province, in the presence of the Chief Justice, or two or more Judges of some of His Majesty's Courts of Common Pleas, and that such person, so examined, shall be, by the said Chief Justice or Judges, approved and certified to be of fit capacity and character to be admitted to practise the law, in the several Courts in this Province.

II. That no person shall hereafter be commissioned or appointed a Notary in this Province, who shall not have, bonâ fide served a regular and continued clerkship, for and during a space of five years, under a contract, in writing, for that purpose made and entered into, with some notary, duly commissioned and appointed, and practising as such: and until after such person so serving a continued clerkship shall have been examined by some of the eldest notaries and practitioners in that science, in the presence of the Chief Justice, or two or more Judges of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas of the district wherein such person may have so served his clerkship, and be approved in manner abovesaid, as a person of fit capacity and character, to be commissioned and admitted to act and practise as a Notary, in this Province. And all and every Notary with whom any person may serve a continued clerkship as abovesaid, shall give due proof, when required, of the service performed.

III. That from and after the publication of this Ordinance, all and every Notary is, and are hereby directed to collect and place, in regular and due order, all and every the minutes of acts and contracts, that may have been, or may be, passed before them, in the proper order of time in which such acts may have been, or may be passed: And shall select and put up the minutes and writings, of what nature soever, of every year's transactions and acts, in separate bundles, folded and covered with strong paper, in the manner of a register, and on the back of which shall be indorsed, the general contents of each bundle, and the year in which the same may have been made or done.

pain of being disqualified from acting and exercising the functions of a Notary as abovesaid.

And all persons who may practise in any of the said Courts as a Barrister, Advocate, Attorney, Solicitor, or Proctor, twelve months after the publication of this Ordinance, or after the choice and election abovesaid, are hereby disqualified from passing any acts or deeds, or doing any other matter or thing in the capacity of a legal Notary.

And that after his decease, the books, minutes, acts, registers, and papers of such Notary, shall become public records, in the manner prescribed by the fifth article of the present Ordinance.

X. And for the better collecting of His Majesty's rights and dues, which may arise and grow due by mutation fines, and lots et ventes, and quintes.

Be it also enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every person exercising the functions and duties of a legal Notary, within this Province, shall regularly and duly every three months in every year, commencing on the first day of August next, send, and transmit to the Receiver-General of the King's domain, (or to the person lawfully authorized to perform the duties of Receiver-General in the City of Quebec) an abstract of all and every deed of sale, or act equivalent to a sale, and deeds of exchange, and deeds of gift, subject to life rent or charge: on pain of five Pounds for every neglect, to be recovered by bill, plaint, or information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Common Pleas in this Province, to be paid to His Majesty's Receiver-General, and applied to the public uses of the Province.

And for every such abstract, the Notary making and transmitting the same shall be entitled to receive from His Majesty's said Receiver-General, one Shilling and three Pence, and no more.

Subject to any rules, regulations or by-laws made by the Benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada under The Act respecting the Law Society of Upper Canada, the following persons, and except as hereinafter provided, no others, may be admitted to practise at the Bar in Her Majesty's Courts in Ontario:—

1. Any person of the age of twenty-one years, who, having been entered of and admitted into the Law Society of Upper Canada as a student of the laws, has been standing on the books thereof for five years, and has conformed himself to the rules of the Society;

2. Any person who has been admitted into and stands on the books of the Law Society of Upper Canada, as a student of the laws for three years, and has conformed himself to the rules of said Society, and has, prior to the date of his admission to the said Society, and to the books of the said Society as a student, actually taken and had conferred upon him the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Law in any of the Universities of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any University or College in this Province, or in the Province of Quebec, having power to grant degrees;

3. Any person who has been duly called to the Bar of England, Scotland, or Ireland (excluding the Bar of Courts of merely local jurisdiction)—when the Inn of Court or other authority having power to call or admit to

4. Any person who has been duly authorized to practise as an Advocate, Barrister, Attorney, Solicitor and Procurator at Law, in all Courts of Justice in Quebec, or who has been found capable and qualified, and entitled to receive a diploma for that purpose under the provisions of the Acts respecting the incorporation of the Bar of Quebec, or who has been duly registered as a clerk and studied during the periods for study respectively required under the provisions of the said Acts, on producing sufficient evidence thereof, and also on producing testimonials of good character, and undergoing an examination in the law of Ontario, to the satisfaction of the Law Society of Upper Canada, and upon his entering himself of the said Society, and conforming to all the rules and regulations thereof;

In case a Solicitor wilfully and knowingly acts as the professional agent of any person not duly qualified to act as a Solicitor, or suffers his name to be used in any such agency on account of or for the profit of an unqualified person, or sends any process to such person, or does any other act to enable such person to practise in any respect as a Solicitor, knowing him not to be duly qualified, and in case complaint is made thereof in a summary way to the High Court, and proof is made upon oath to the satisfaction of the Court, the Solicitor so offending may, in the discretion of the Court, be struck off the Roll and disabled from practising as a Solicitor; and the Court may also commit such unqualified person so having practised as aforesaid to any common gaol or prison for any term not exceeding one year. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 24.

[For punishment for tampering with Jurors, see Cap. 61, sec. 177.]

STRIKING A SOLICITOR OFF THE ROLL FOR DEFECT IN ARTICLES.

32. Except in case of fraud, no person admitted and enrolled shall be struck off the Roll on account of any defect in the articles of clerkship, or in the registry thereof, or in his service thereunder, or in his admission and enrolment, unless application for striking him off the Roll is made within twelve months next after his admission and enrolment. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 29.

PROCEEDINGS IF STRUCK OFF THE ROLL.

33. Where a Solicitor is struck off the Roll of the High Court, one of the Registrars of the High Court shall certify the same under his hand and the seal of the Court to the Secretary of the Law Society, stating whether such Solicitor was struck off at his own request or otherwise, and the Secretary shall attach the certificate to the certified copy of the Roll on which the name of such person stands, and shall, in the book to be kept by him as aforesaid, make a note opposite the name of such person of his having been struck off such Roll. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 30.

SOLICITOR'S COSTS.

34. No action shall be brought for the recovery of fees, charges or disbursements, for business done by a Solicitor as such, until one month after a bill thereof, subscribed with the proper hand of such Solicitor, his executor, administrator or assignee (or, in the case of a partnership, by one of the partners, either with his own name, or with the name or style of such partnership), has been delivered to the party to be charged therewith, or sent by the post to, or left for him at his counting-house, office of business, dwelling-house, or last known place of abode, or has been enclosed in or accompanied by a letter subscribed in like manner, referring to such bill. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 31.

35. Upon the application of the party chargeable by such bill within the month the High Court or a Judge thereof, or a Judge of a County Court shall, without money being brought into Court, refer the bill and the demand thereon to be taxed by the proper officer of any of the Courts in the County in which in any of the business charged for in the bill was done, whether any of such business was done in a Court or not, and the Court or Judge making such reference shall restrain the bringing any action for such demand pending the reference. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 32; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. A (33).

36. In case no application is made within the month, then the Court or Judge upon the application of either party may order a reference with such directions and conditions as he may deem proper; and may upon such terms as may be thought just restrain any action for such demand pending the reference. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 33.

37. No such reference shall be directed upon an application made by the party chargeable with such bill after a verdict or judgment has been obtained, or after twelve months from the time such bill was delivered, sent or left as aforesaid, except under special circumstances, to be proved to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge to whom the application for the reference is made. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 34; 60 V. c. 15, Sched. A (34).

38. In case either party to a reference, having due notice, refuses or neglects to attend the taxation, the officer to whom the reference is made may tax the bill ex parte. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 35; 58 V. c. 13, s. 37, part.

39. Every order for a reference shall direct the officer to whom the reference is made, to certify what, upon the reference, he finds to be due to or from either party in respect of such bill. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 36; 58 V. c. 13, s. 37, part.

40. The costs of the reference shall be in the discretion of the Court or Judge or of the taxing officer, subject to appeal, but such officer may certify specially any circumstances relating to the bill or taxation, and the Court or Judge may thereupon make such order as may be deemed right respecting the payment of the costs of the taxation. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 37; 58 V. c. 13, s. 37, part.

41. In case the reference is made when the same is not authorized except under special circumstances, as hereinbefore provided, the Court or Judge, in making the same, may give any special directions relative to the costs of the reference. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 38.

42. Where no bill has been delivered, sent or left as aforesaid, and where the bill if delivered, sent or left, might have been referred as aforesaid, any such Court or Judge may order the delivery of a bill, and may also order the delivery up of deeds or papers in the possession, custody or power of the Solicitor, his assignee or representatives, in the same manner as has heretofore been done in cases where any such business had been transacted in the Court in which such order was made. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 39.

43. In proving a compliance with this Act it shall not be necessary in the first instance to prove the contents of the bill delivered, sent or left, but it shall be sufficient to prove that a bill of fees, charges or disbursements subscribed in the manner aforesaid, or enclosed in or accompanied by such letter as aforesaid, was delivered, sent or left in manner aforesaid; but the other party may shew that the bill so delivered, sent or left, was not such a bill as constituted a bonâ fide compliance with this Act. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 40.

44. A Judge of the High Court or a County Court Judge, on proof to his satisfaction that there is probable cause for believing that the party chargeable is about to quit Ontario, may authorize a Solicitor to commence an action for the recovery of his fees, charges or disbursements against the party chargeable therewith, although one month has not expired since the delivery of a bill as aforesaid. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 41.

45. Where any person not being chargeable as the principal party is liable to pay or has paid any bill either to the Solicitor, his assignee, or representative, or to the principal party entitled thereto, the person so paying, his assignee or representative, may make the like application for a reference thereof to taxation as the party chargeable therewith might himself have made, and in like manner, and the same proceedings shall be had thereupon, as if the application had been made by the party so chargeable. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 42.

46. In case such application is made when, under the provisions hereinbefore contained, a reference is not authorized to be made except under special circumstances, the Court or Judge to whom the application is made, may take into consideration any additional special circumstances applicable to the person making it, although such circumstances might not be applicable to the party chargeable with the bill, if he was the party making the application. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 43.

47. For the purpose of such reference upon the application of the person not being the party chargeable, or of a party interested as aforesaid, the Court or Judge may order the Solicitor, his assignee or representative, to deliver to the party making the application a copy of the bill upon payment of the costs of the copy. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 44.

48. No bill previously taxed shall again be referred, unless under the special circumstances of the case the Court or Judge to whom the application is made thinks fit to direct a re-taxation thereof. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 45.

49. The payment of any such bill as aforesaid shall in no case preclude the Court or Judge to whom the application is made from referring such bill for taxation, if the application is made within twelve months after payment, and if the special circumstances of the case in the opinion of the Court or Judge appear to require the same, upon such terms and subject to such directions as to the Court or Judge seem right. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 46.

50. In all cases in which a bill is referred to be taxed, the officer to whom the reference is made, may request the proper officer of any other Court, to assist him in taxing any part of such bill, and the officer, so requested, shall thereupon tax the same. and shall have the same powers, and may receive the same fees in respect thereof, as upon a reference to him by the Court of which he is an officer, and he shall return the bill, with his opinion thereon, to the officer who so requests him to tax the same. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 47.

51. All applications made to refer any bill to be taxed, or for the delivery of a bill, or for the delivering up of deeds, documents and papers, shall be made In the matter of (the Solicitor); and upon the taxation of any such bill, the certificate of the officer by whom the bill is taxed shall, unless set aside or altered by order of a Judge, or by decree or order of Court, be final and conclusive as to the amount thereof, and payment of the amount certified to be due and directed to be paid may be enforced according to the practice of the Court in which the reference has been made. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 48.

52.—(1) The Judges of the Supreme Court may, from time to time in accordance with the provisions of The Judicature Act, make such General Rules or Regulations, other than the Rules or Regulations hereinbefore referred to, as to them seem necessary and meet for carrying out the provisions of this Act. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 49.

(2) Such Rules may include Rules respecting business by Solicitors connected with sales, purchases, leases, mortgages, settlements and other matters of conveyancing. 58 V. c. 13, s. 38.

53.—(1) Any such general rule may, as regards the mode of remuneration, prescribe that it shall be according to a scale of rates of commission or per-centage, varying or not in different classes of business; or by a gross sum; or by a fixed sum for each document prepared or perused, without regard to length; or in any other mode, or partly in one mode and partly in another, or others; and may, as regards the amount of the remuneration, regulate the same with reference to all or any of the following among other considerations; namely:—the position of the party for whom the Solicitor is concerned in any business, that is, whether as vendor or as purchaser, lessor or lessee, mortgagor or mortgagee, and the like; the place, district, and circumstances at or in which the business or part thereof is transacted; the amount of the capital money or of the rent to which the business relates; the skill, labour and responsibility involved therein on the part of the Solicitor; the number and importance of the documents prepared or perused, without regard to length; and the average or ordinary remuneration obtained by Solicitors in like business prior to the 25th day of March, 1886.

(2) As long as such general rule is in operation, the taxation of bills of costs of Solicitors shall be regulated thereby. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 50.

54.—(1) With respect to any business to which the preceding section relates, whether any general rule under this Act is in operation or not, it shall be competent (subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned) for a Solicitor to make an agreement with his client, and for a client to make an agreement with his Solicitor, before or after or in the course of the transaction of such business, for the remuneration of the Solicitor, to such amount and in such manner as the Solicitor and the client think fit, either by a gross sum, or by commission or per-centage, or by salary, or otherwise; and it shall be competent for the Solicitor to accept from the client, and for the client to give to the Solicitor, remuneration accordingly.

(2) The agreement shall be in writing, signed by the person to be bound thereby or by his agent in that behalf.

(3) The agreement may, if the Solicitor and client think fit, be made on the terms that the amount of the remuneration therein stipulated for either shall include or shall not include all or any disbursements made by the Solicitor in respect of searches, plans, travelling fees, or other matters.

(4) The agreement may be sued and recovered on, or impeached and set aside, in the like manner and on the like grounds as an agreement not relating to the remuneration of a Solicitor; and if, under any order for taxation of costs, such agreement being relied upon by the Solicitor shall be objected to by the client as unfair and unreasonable, the taxing master or officer of the Court may inquire into the facts, and certify the same to the Court; and if, upon such certificate, it shall appear to the Court or Judge that just cause has been shewn either for cancelling the agreement, or for reducing the amount payable under the same, the Court or Judge shall have power to order such cancellation or reduction, and to give all such directions necessary or proper for the purpose of carrying the order into effect, or otherwise consequent thereon, as to the Court or Judge may seem fit.

(5) "Client," for the purposes of this section, shall include any person who, as a principal, or on behalf of another or as trustee or executor or in any other capacity, has power, express or implied, to retain or employ, and retains or employs, or is about to retain or employ, a Solicitor, and any person for the time being liable to pay to a Solicitor for his services any costs, remuneration, charges, expenses, or disbursements. R.S.O. 1887, c. 147, s. 51.

(6) A solicitor or counsel whose remuneration is paid wholly or partly by salary, annual or otherwise, shall, notwithstanding have the right to recover and collect lawful costs in all actions and proceedings in the same manner as if such solicitor or counsel were not receiving a salary where the costs are payable to the solicitor or counsel as part of his remuneration in addition to his salary. 1 Edw. VII., c. 12, s. 15.

55. BETWEEN

THE LAW SOCIETY OF UPPER CANADA, of the first part,
And

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN, of the second part.

WHEREAS under and by virtue of a certain deed of Surrender dated on the First day of July in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-four, made between the said Law Society of Upper Canada of the first part, and Her Majesty the Queen of the second part, the said Law Society of Upper Canada did grant, surrender, and yield up unto Her Majesty the Queen and her successors certain portions of grounds and buildings known as the Centre Part and West Wing of the buildings in the City of Toronto, known as Osgoode Hall, with the land upon which the said building then stood and now stands, and the land North and West of the said Centre building and West Wing and the roadway South of the said land described by metes and bounds as therein is set forth and contained.

AND WHEREAS since the execution of said Deed of Surrender it has been ascertained that the boundary line which was thereby described between that portion of the said buildings and land thereby granted and surrendered to Her Majesty as aforesaid, and the portion which was retained or intended to be retained by the said Law Society, was inaccurately defined having regard to the intention of the parties to the said Deed and having regard to the position of said buildings upon the said lands.

to the said Law Society by the Treasurer of Ontario; the said Law Society doth hereby grant, surrender, yield up, and confirm to Her Majesty and her successors.

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises being composed of part of Park Lot Eleven, in the City of Toronto, and which may be more particularly known and described as follows, that is to say: Commencing where the South limit of Osgoode Street, in the said City of Toronto intersects the East limit of University Street, thence Easterly along the Southerly limit of Osgoode Street a distance of three hundred and fifty-three feet ten inches; thence Southerly parallel with University Street two hundred and fifty-four feet eleven inches to the North face of the wall of the old Boiler House; thence Westerly eight feet more or less to the face of the wall of the main building of Osgoode Hall; thence Southerly along the said face of the said wall twenty-two feet to the face of the Northerly wall of the old East Wing of Osgoode Hall; thence Westerly along the said face one foot one inch to the North-west angle of the said East Wing, thence Southerly along the Westerly line of the wall of the East Wing four feet five inches to the face of the Southerly wall of the main building; thence Westerly and along the said face two feet six inches; thence Southerly parallel with University Street eighty-one feet three inches; thence Westerly parallel with Osgoode Street to University Street; thence Northerly along the Easterly limit of University Street to the place of beginning.

TOGETHER with the buildings erected thereon the said lands, premises and buildings hereinbefore particularly described by metes and bounds, being known as the buildings and lands belonging to the said Society, and at the time of passing of the Resolution hereinbefore mentioned and now used for the accommodation of the Superior Courts, namely, the Centre Part and the West Wing of the building in the City of Toronto, known as Osgoode Hall with the land on which the said building stands, the land North and West of the said Centre building and West Wing and the roadway South of the said land.

SUBJECT, however, to the reservation by the said Law Society of the free and exclusive use by them of the rooms in the said building now commonly known as the Library, the room off the North-west corner of the Library commonly known as the Benchers' Room, the room off the North-east corner of the Library commonly known as the Librarian's Room otherwise called the Secretary's Room, and the free and unrestricted right of ingress, egress and regress to, in and from such Library, Benchers', and Librarian's Rooms as now used and enjoyed.

AND SUBJECT to the further reservation to the said Society and their successors from time to time, and at all times forever hereafter to have the free use and enjoyment of the roadways approaching to such buildings and to go, return, pass and repass with horses, waggons, and other carriages, laden or unladen, on through, along and over said roadways at all times hereafter.

AND THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH that Her Majesty doth hereby grant and confirm to the said Law Society of Upper Canada and their successors the following lands, that is to say: Commencing on the South limit of Osgoode Street in the said City of Toronto at a point distant three hundred and fifty-three feet ten inches measured Easterly from the East Limit of University Street; thence Southerly parallel with University Street two hundred and fifty-four feet eleven inches to the North face of the wall of the old Boiler House; thence Westerly eight feet more or less to face of wall of main building of Osgoode Hall; thence Southerly along the said face of the said wall twenty-two feet to the face of the Northerly wall of the old East Wing of Osgoode Hall; thence Westerly along the said wall one foot one inch to the North-west angle of the said East Wing; thence Southerly along the Westerly line of the wall of the East Wing four feet five inches to the face of the Southerly wall of the main building; thence Westerly along the said Southerly face two feet six inches; thence Southerly parallel with University Street eighty-one feet three inches; thence Westerly parallel with Osgoode Street to the East side of University Street; thence Southerly along the East side of University Street to the North side of Queen Street; thence Easterly along the North side of Queen Street to the West

AND the said Law Society for itself, its successors, and assigns hereby covenants with Her Majesty and her successors that if at any time hereafter the said Boiler House is destroyed by fire that the said Society will convey to Her Majesty and her successors that part of the land on which the said Boiler House is built lying West of the continuation Southerly to the face of the Northerly wall of said East Wing of the line hereinbefore mentioned which may be more particularly described as follows, that is to say: Commencing at a point on the North side of the old Boiler House where it is intersected by a line drawn Southerly through a point on the South limit of Osgoode Street parallel with University Street distant three hundred and fifty-three feet ten inches Easterly from the East limit of University Street; thence from the point of commencement still Southerly parallel with University Street fourteen feet six inches to the South side of said old Boiler House; thence Westerly along said South side of Boiler House eight feet to the East face of the East Wall of the main building; thence Northerly along said East face fourteen feet six inches to the intersection of the North side of old Boiler House; thence Easterly along said side eight feet more or less to the place of beginning.

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE
LIBRARY EXTENSION BUILDING
COMMITTEE TO THE HON.
THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS.

TORONTO, 6th November, 1894.

THE HON. WM. HARTY,
Commissioner Public Works,
PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS,
TORONTO.

DEAR SIR,—Referring to our conversation of to-day with reference to the proposed extension of the Library at Osgoode Hall, I beg to say that Mr. Tully will receive from Mr. Burke, the Law Society's architect, contemporaneously with this sketch copies of the plans showing the proposed extension and the structural alterations involved in the work.

I beg further to submit copies (pp. 65 to 70 inclusive, of enclosed pamphlet), of the existing deeds between the Government of the Province and the Law Society, under which, while surrendering the property to the Province, the Law Society reserved the free and exclusive use of certain rooms, including the present Library. This reservation I have marked in the original deed of surrender at p. 66, and also in the deed of confirmation at p. 68.*

What I have to suggest with regard to the proposed extension indicated by the plans is that this extension should by appropriate words, be brought within the reservation contained in the two deeds; and that the rights and obligations of the Province and of the Law Society respectively, with regard to the rooms in the building embraced in the reservation, should, from and after the completion by the Society of the proposed extension, become operative and applicable with regard also to the extension, and the room or space embraced within its limits.

*These deeds are, in the present volume, to be found at pages 145 to 155 inclusive.

I have further to suggest, with regard to the heating of the extension when completed, that the Government should, as is now the case with the Library, permit the connection of the fixtures placed by the Society in the extension for that purpose with the existing heating system, which is, I understand, entirely under Government control, and should supply the heat; and that the Society should pay therefor such annaul or other periodical sum in addition to what the Society now pays, as may from time to time be fixed by the architect placed in charge by the Government.

If these suggestions meet your approval, the Society would be obliged by the early passing of an Order-in-Council authorizing the proposed work upon the terms suggested.

If a formal agreement be considered desirable, there can be no objection to that course being taken upon the basis of such Order-in-Council. In the meantime, however, as time is of much importance, I venture to ask the immediate concurrence of the Government in the work being done, should the conditions I have suggested be deemed proper.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
GEO. F. SHEPLEY,
For the Ccmmitttee.
