

The Law Society of Upper Canada
CANDIDATES FOR BENCHER
1979

This booklet is published by The Law Society of Upper Canada for the assistance of its members in voting to elect the benchers of the Society in 1979. It is divided into two sections, the first being the list of candidates outside Metropolitan Toronto and the second being the list of candidates within Metropolitan Toronto.

The Society does not accept any responsibility for the accuracy of the biographical information contained herein which was either supplied by the candidates or prepared from information provided by the Secretary from the Society's records.

Candidates outside Metropolitan Toronto

---

AFFLECK, W. Bruce, Q.C., (Oshawa)—Graduated University of Toronto, 1953; Osgoode Hall Law School, 1957. Appointed Crown attorney for County of Ontario, 1961; appointed regional director of Crown attorneys, 1976; now in private practice. Lecturer to such groups as: National District Attorneys Association; law schools of Toronto, Queens, York and Windsor, Coroners Association, R.C.M.P. College, Alcoholics Anonymous. Author of many articles on criminal and medical-legal subjects. Counsel in forty-five murder trials. National president, Children with Learning Disabilities 1969-1971; secretary, Oshawa Generals Hockey Club; past president, Oshawa District Boy Scouts Council; director, Oshawa football, lacrosse clubs.

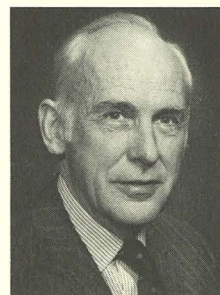

---

BAILEY, William H. C., (Aurora)—Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School and called to the bar in 1951. Served as a solicitor in the office of the Attorney General; moved to Aurora in 1953 and has practised in that community ever since. An original member and a past president of the York North Law Association; member, Canadian Bar Association, York County Law Association, Lawyers Club and Medico-Legal Society. His services to Aurora have run the gamut from councillor to beating the bass drum in the town band. Former director of the Children's Aid Society.

---

BARR, J. Roderick, Q.C., (St. Catharines)—Called June 1948; Queen's Counsel 1961. Practice: civil litigation in St. Catharines. Past president, Lincoln Law Association; director and past president, Advocates' Society; fellow, The Foundation for Legal Research; member, advisory committee to Civil Procedure Revision Committee, Canadian Bar Association, etc. Sole candidate sponsored by Lincoln Law Association; endorsed as candidate by Welland County Law Association.

BATES, R. Noel, (Burlington)—Born Sudbury; schooled in Toronto; journalist (Toronto Star, CBC, Canadian Press); articulated at Weir, Foulds; practised at Lang, Michener; moved to Barrie; in partnership Wessinger/Bates; moved to Burlington; corporation counsel, Region of Halton; counsel Mississauga Judicial Inquiry; returned to private practice (restricted to litigation) in 1975; presently a member of Ralphe, Bates & German, Burlington; director Halton County Law Association 1976-1979; American Trial Lawyers Association; Canadian Bar Association. Guest lecturer at University of Western Ontario, University of Waterloo on planning law and public administration; actively involved in community programs.

BELL, Walter E., Q.C., (London)—Born in Toronto, December 16th, 1923. Served in the Royal Canadian Navy from the fall of 1942 until March of 1946. Received degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Laws from the University of Toronto, 1948. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1962. Past president of the Canadian Club (London); past president Vimy Branch, Royal Canadian Legion; former trustee of the Middlesex Law Association; senior instructor in professional conduct, Bar Admission Course, London; member of the Chief Justice's Committee of Bench and Bar (Advocates' Society nominee). Married with four children.

BOWLBY, John D., Q.C., (Hamilton)—Graduated from McMaster University in 1948. Attended Osgoode Hall and graduated in 1951. Presently the senior partner in the law firm of Bowlby, Luchak, Martino in Hamilton. Past president of the Hamilton Lawyers Club and presently a director of the Advocates' Society. Elected bench in 1966, 1971, 1975 and presently a member of the following committees: Discipline; Public Relations; Professional Conduct; Professional Organizations; chairman of the Legal Aid Committee since 1971.

BRAGAGNOLO, Rino C., Q.C., (Timmins)—Born: Schumacher, Ontario, 1931. Graduated, University of Toronto, St. Michael's College, 1953; Osgoode Hall, 1957. Member 1957-1963, Evans & Evans; 1963-1979, Evans, Bragagnolo & Sullivan (Now Evans, Bragagnolo, Sullivan & Levesque), senior partner. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1971. Director, the Advocates' Society, 1978-1981; past president, Cochrane District Law Association; past director, Timmins-Porcupine Chamber of Commerce; past president, Porcupine Dante Club (Italo-Canadian Cultural Association); Honorary Vice-Consul of Italy for the District of Cochrane and the District of Temiskaming. Endorsed by the board of directors and membership of Cochrane District Law Association.

CALLAHAN, Robert V., (Brampton)—St. Michael's College, University of Toronto, B.A. 1959; Osgoode Hall Law School 1963; Called to bar 1965. Resident of Brampton since 1968; councillor Town of Brampton 1969-1974; alderman City of Brampton 1974 to date. Preferred area of practice, criminal and civil litigation. Deputy judge, Small Claims Court, Judicial District of Peel 1977 to date. Member Criminal Lawyers Association. Forty-one years of age. Married with four boys.

CARNWATH, James D., Q.C., (Woodstock)—Born Feb. 11, 1935, Woodstock, Ontario; admitted to bar, 1962; engaged in general practice with Carnwath, Lewonas & Beatty, Woodstock, Ontario; preparatory education: Victoria College, University of Toronto, (B.A., 1957); legal education: University of Toronto, (LL.B., 1960); served as area director, Ontario Legal Aid Plan, Oxford County, 1967-1976; appointed Queen's Counsel, 1974; elected a bencher, Law Society of Upper Canada, 1975; member of Legal Aid Committee, Professional Conduct Committee and vice-chairman, Discipline Committee.

CARTWRIGHT, Katherine E. B., (Kingston)—Graduate of Queen's University, Arts 1962, LL.B. 1965. Honourary solicitor, Big Sisters Association of Kingston. Chairman, Ontario Women's Hockey Association 1975-1978.

CASS, Ronald W., Q.C., (Belleville)—Sole practitioner with general practice in a city of 35,000 population. Born in Chesterville, Ontario, in 1920. Educated in Winchester High School, Winchester, Ontario. Graduated from Victoria College, University of Toronto, 1941. Wartime service in R.C.N.V.R. (M.O.E.F. and N.S.H.Q.). Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School and called to bar in 1948. Bencher since 1966; serving or has served on most of the major committees of the Law Society. Member of council of Canadian Bar Association; member of Hastings Law Association, Advocates' Society and Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity.

CHADWICK, James B., Q.C., (Ottawa)—B.A., St. Francis Xavier University; LL.B. University of Ottawa; called to bar 1964; practising in the field of litigation. Elected bencher Law Society of Upper Canada, 1975; chairman, Clinical Funding Committee; vice-chairman Legal Aid Committee; member of other committees. Ex-officio trustee, County of Carleton Law Association; lecturer, Bar Admission Course, continuing education and Canadian Bar courses; former member, council of the Canadian Council on Social Development; chairman, Committee on Poverty Law; local legal aid area director, Ottawa-Carleton, Renfrew County and Prescott & Russell County; active in a number of community organizations.

CHILCOTT, W. Dan, Q.C., (Ottawa)—Graduated from Dalhousie Law School 1954; called to bar of Ontario 1956; assistant Crown attorney, Ottawa, 1956-1958; entered private practice in Ottawa, 1959—six man firm involved in general practice. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1967. Incumbent bencher. President of County of Carleton Law Association 1973; endorsed as candidate for bencher by County of Carleton Law Association. Senior instructor, Bar Admission Course, Ottawa, since 1975; trustee of Grace Hospital, Ottawa; director and vice-president of Central Canada Exhibition Association; member of the Board of Commissioners of Police for Ottawa. Married, two children.

CORVESE, John, (Burlington)—39 years of age, married with two children aged 8 and 5. Graduated from York University in 1964 with a Bachelor of Arts degree, Osgoode Hall Law School in 1967 and was called to the bar in 1969. For the last eight years he has had his own practice in the City of Burlington. Member of the Chamber of Commerce and a founding member and director of the Burlington Lawyers Club. Active in writing for the Burlington Gazette, and giving public interest lectures in the community.

DIXON, N. Duane, (Smiths Falls)—Called to the bar in 1960 and purchased a law practice in Smiths Falls as of February 6, 1961; practice is related to real estate, criminal law and estates. Served as legal counsel to Ontario Jaycees and Canadian Jaycees and as a trustee on the Smiths Falls Public School Board, the Smiths Falls High School Board, Lanark County Board of Education. President of the Ontario Public School Association 1979; a governor of the Smiths Falls Community Hospital Board and a trustee of Trinity United Church.

FARQUHARSON, Gordon H. T., Q.C., (Peterborough)—Elected as a bencher in 1975 and presently serving on Finance Committee and as vice-chairman of Libraries and Reporting Committee. Partner in firm of Farquharson and Daly. Formerly an elected member of the Ontario Council of the Canadian Bar Association and chairman of Membership Committee; member of the Advocates' Society. Active in community affairs and served as a member of Peterborough City Council; past president of Kinsman Club, Peterborough Branch of Canadian Cancer Society and United Services Institute; executive member of Peterborough Theatre Guild.

FRIDMAN, Gerald H. L., (London)—B.A. (1948), M.A. (1952), B.C.L. (1949) (Oxford), LL.M. (1955) (Adelaide). Called to bar (England) 1950: Alberta (1974): Ontario (1977). Dean Faculty of Law, University of Alberta 1970-1975; professor of law, University of Western Ontario since 1975. Author: Law of Contract in Canada, Sale of Goods in Canada (two editions), Law of Agency (four editions), Introduction to the Law of Torts, Studies in Canadian Business Law. Many articles in Canadian Bar Review, other journals in Canada, England, U.S.A. and elsewhere. Involved in the practice of law and legal education for over 25 years.

FURLONG, Patrick G., Q.C., (Windsor)—Bencher 1975-79; chairman Legislation & Rules, Prepaid Legal Services committees; member Unauthorized Practice committee. Canadian Bar Association: former member National executive; past president Ontario branch; papers, Commonwealth Law Conferences, 1955 "Legal Aid In Canada", 1960 "Role of Lawyer in Community Affairs"; present appointed member Ontario Council; Essex County Law Association past president. Delegate National Conference on Law 1972; National Conference Quality of Legal Services 1978; member National Association Railroad Trial Counsel; past president Essex County Medical-Legal Society; director University of Windsor Research & Resources Program for Prepaid Legal Services; partner Furlong & Brown, Windsor.

GARBE, E. Alan, (Markham)—Born in Toronto in April 1946, graduated from the Faculty of Law, University of Windsor in 1975, and called to the bar in 1977. A partner in the firm of Gamble & Garbe practising in the Town of Markham. A member of the County of York and York North Law Associations. A director and member of the editorial board for Community Legal Education, Ontario (formerly Toronto Community Law Program).

GREER, Thomas H., Q.C., (Oshawa)—Born at Fort William 1924. Enlisted in the R.C.A.F. in 1942 and was discharged in 1945 as a pilot officer. After an Honours Business Administration degree at Western, attended Osgoode Hall and was called to the bar in 1953. In private practice in Oshawa since 1955; appointed Q.C. 1974. Activities include past president of County of Ontario Law Association; president of Chiropody/Podiatry Review Committee of OHIP; immediate past president of South Durham Unit, Canadian Cancer Society; immediate past chairman of Durham Regional Health Unit; member of the Durham Region Legal Aid Appeal Committee.

GUTHRIE, Hugh, Q.C., (Guelph)—Incumbent bencher; educated Guelph public and secondary schools; B.Comm University of Toronto, 1952; called to bar 1956; appointed Q.C. 1968; partner Hungerford, Guthrie, Berry & Hammond, Guelph; past president Guelph Y.M.-Y.W.C.A.; a director and past president of Wellington Law Association; part time lecturer in law at University of Guelph; former chairman and member of the board of managers of St. Andrew's Church, Guelph; president Guelph Figure Skating Club; member of the 1972 Dental Technologist's Advisory Committee; a director of a number of Canadian corporations.

HENDERSON, Gordon F., Q.C., (Ottawa)—Partner, Gowling & Henderson, Ottawa; bencher, Law Society since 1967; member, Advocates' Society; fellow, American College of Trial Lawyers; vice-president, Canadian Bar Association; past chairman, Canadian Law Information Council; past president, Patent and Trade Mark Institute of Canada; editor, Canadian Patent Reporter; chairman, Industrial Property Committee, Business Law Section of International Bar Association; lecturer, Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa.

IRESON, Thomas E., (Hamilton)—Niagara Region Police Association secretary, 1964, bargaining chairman, treasurer of Hamilton Police Association, 1964. A director of Federation of Civic Employees, Hamilton, 1965-1966. Attended McMaster University 1966-70. Attended Osgoode Hall Law School, graduated, 1974. Called to the bar in 1976. Chairman of education committee for Hamilton unit of Canadian Cancer Society, 1976-1977. Member of congregational board of Melrose United Church, Hamilton, 1976-1977. Director of a community credit union, 1979. Presently in general practice in Hamilton.

KURISKO, Stanley R., Q.C., (Sault Ste. Marie)—Officially supported as the local bench candidate by Algoma District Law Association. Born 1928; called 1954; Queen's Counsel 1965; married 1953, four children; general practice (emphasis civil litigation). Canadian Bar Association (Ontario) member of council and executive committee (membership chairman for Ontario); member Advocates' Society, Williston Civil Procedure Revision committee, legal aid Area committee (since inception) and Algoma District Law Association (past president). President Y.M.C.A.; past president Ontario Association for Mentally Retarded; past president local Chamber of Commerce; past director Canadian Association for Mentally Retarded; Salvation Army fund raising chairman (past).

LERNER, Samuel, Q.C., (London)—Born at London in 1916. B.A. University of Western Ontario 1936; Osgoode Hall Law School; called to bar 1939. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1967. Senior member, Lerner & Associates. Military service World War II with Royal Canadian Regiment in Mediterranean and N.W. Europe. Community service with St. John Ambulance Association, Public Library, Boy Scouts, B'Nai B'Rith, Kiwanis, Royal Canadian Legion, etc. Member, board of governors and "W" Club of U.W.O., Canadian Tax Foundation, Chamber of Commerce, St. Andrew's Chapter 238 R.A.M., Union Lodge 380 A.M. & F.M., Baconian Club, Canadian Power Squadron, Great Lakes Cruising Club, Royal Canadian Military Institute.

LINTON, Ross B., Q.C., (Newmarket)—45 years old; married, father of four daughters; residence, Aurora; practice, Newmarket; senior partner, Linton, Leck, Monteith & Carson; previously counsel-Stiver, Vale, Peppiatt & Errington for over 10 years; member—Advocates' Society, Criminal Lawyers Association, County of York Law Association, Canadian Bar Association, Medico-Legal Society of Toronto; a founding member and president for 1971 and 1974-1975 of the York North Law Association; author of Association's brief leading to construction of courthouse-registry complex in Newmarket, opening in fall; chairman of Association's courthouse liaison committee assembling brief on organizing complex and new judicial district.

LOCHEAD, George H., Q.C. (Kitchener)—A life-long resident of Kitchener and Waterloo. Graduated from Queen's University 1932; called to bar 1935; practised in Kitchener ever since save for the period 1940 to 1944 while on active service. Created Queen's Counsel 1955. First elected bench 1969. Served on several committees and chairman of the Discipline Committee since 1974. A past president of the Waterloo County Law Association and past vice-president of the Advocates' Society. A past president of many community service and cultural organizations and very active in Foster Parents Plan, International and Canada, for many years.

MARTIN, Michael E., Q.C., (London)—Graduate Manitoba Law School. Called to Manitoba bar, 1953; practised general law there until admitted to the Ontario bar in 1956. Engaged in general law practice in St. Catharines 1956-1963. Member of Lincoln Law Association and served as its secretary. Appointed assistant Crown attorney for Middlesex, 1963 and then Crown attorney in 1965. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1971. Member of Ontario Crown Attorneys' Association and served on its executive committee for some years, then as its president 1975 to 1977. Served on criminal procedure faculty, Bar Admission Course, London, 1977 to 1979.

McKAY, Nelson A., (Niagara Falls)—Legal education; LL.B. (1961) Queen's; called to bar 1963, practises as general litigation counsel; past president Niagara Falls Bar Association (1977); past president Welland County Law Association (1978); currently director of the Advocates' Society; a founding director of the Greater Niagara Big Brothers (1964); member Canadian Bar Association; endorsed as candidate for bench by Welland County Law Association and by Lincoln Law Association, and sole candidate sponsored by Welland County Law Association.

McWILLIAMS, Peter K. E., Q.C., (Milton)—Born 1926 Toronto, matriculated U.T.S. 1943; entered Harvard College; served U.S. Navy 1944-47; graduated Harvard 1949; attended Osgoode 1949-1953; in general practice at Milton five years; Crown attorney Halton County ten years; in general practice at Milton since 1968; former president of Halton County Law Association, and chairman of library committee; former member of Halton Legal Aid Area Committee; became bench April 1978; author of Canadian Criminal Evidence and numerous articles in legal publications; member of Canadian Bar Association and Criminal Lawyers Association.

MILLS, Peter A., Q.C., (Barrie)—Born in Toronto, receiving all of his education there, and graduating from Osgoode Hall in 1956. Joined the firm of Stewart, Esten and McTurk in Barrie and continues to practise with that firm, chiefly as a solicitor. His involvement outside of his law practice includes, an elected school trustee, chairman of the Barrie Planning Board, secretary-treasurer of the Simcoe County Bar Association, board member of the Barrie YM-YWCA, chairman of the Barrie Committee of Adjustments.

MORRIS, William, Q.C., (Hamilton)—Graduate of McMaster University 1956, Osgoode Hall 1960; partner, Morris & Lewis; vice-president of the Hamilton Law Association; immediate past president of Hamilton Medical-Legal Society; area director of legal aid for Hamilton-Wentworth Region; member of Advocates' Society; Canadian Bar Association and Criminal Lawyers Association; vice-chairman of National Board of Canada Israel Committee; past president of Canadian B'Nai B'Rith; past national chairman of the League for Human Rights of B'Nai B'Rith; past president and past general campaign chairman of Hamilton United Israel Appeal; past president of Hamilton Council of Jewish Organizations.

MULLIGAN, D'Arcy H., (Sudbury)—Of the firm of Miller, Maki, Inch, Mulligan, Auvinen, Dumont & Fouriezios. Born at Sudbury in 1928. Graduated from University of Toronto and St. Michaels College in 1950. Graduated from Osgoode Hall and called to bar of Ontario in 1954. Managing partner of Miller, Maki & Associates since 1961. Past president of Sudbury Law Association. Past member of National council of Canadian Bar Association. Past chairman of Sudbury Separate School Board. Former member of Sudbury High School Board.

NOBLE, C. Bruce, Q.C., (Sault Ste. Marie)—Born 1929. Graduated, U. of T. 1952; Osgoode Hall 1956. 1956-1957 Blackwell, Hilton, Treadgold & Spratt; 1958-1979 Wishart, Noble; 1967 appointed Queen's Counsel. Director, Sault Ste. Marie Chamber of Commerce, 1962-1963; president, Algoma Law Association, 1961-1962; member, board of governors, Algoma University College, 1977 to date; chairman, board of directors, Plummer Memorial Public Hospital, 1972-1974; director, Advocates' Society, 1972-1974; member, American Trial Lawyers Association, 1967 to date; chairman, Sault Ste. Marie Advisory Board, Guaranty Trust Company of Canada, 1974 to date; chairman, Board of Review (North Western Region) Mental Health Act.

PALLETT, John C., Q.C., (Mississauga)—Born 1921; graduated University of Toronto 1941; Canadian Army 1942-1946 (England, Italy, Northwest Europe); called to the bar 1948. Elected to House of Commons 1954, 1957, 1958; chairman Canadian delegation NATO Parliamentarians' Conferences, Paris 1957-1958; member NATO Parliamentarians' Conference standing committee 1958; chairman Banking and Commerce committee 23rd Parliament; parliamentary secretary to Minister of Trade and Commerce and Prime Minister; chief government whip 1959. Elected bench 1971, 1975; served various committees, chairman Finance Committee two years, presently chairman Legal Education. Partner Pallett and Pallett.

PERRAS, Robert, Q.C., (Kapuskasing)—Born 1932, at Strickland, Ontario. Graduated Sacred Heart College, Sudbury; enrolled Osgoode Hall 1954. Following call to bar 1958, associated with Evans and Evans at Kapuskasing, and practised at Kapuskasing since; now member Perras, Evans, Kukurin, Huot, with offices at Timmins, Kapuskasing and Hearst. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1971; director Ontario Share and Deposit Insurance Corporation; formerly chairman Kapuskasing Board of Education and University College, Hearst. Married with four children.

PHILP, Paul G., Q.C., (Hamilton)—Senior partner in the law firm of Evans, Philp, Gordon, Leggat & Evans in Hamilton; B.A. from McMaster University, 1948; called to the bar, 1954; Queen's Counsel, 1962. Professional service: past president, Hamilton Lawyers Club; past president, Hamilton Medical-Legal Society; director, Advocates' Society of Ontario. Community service: member, board of trustees of McMaster University Medical Centre; past member, board of directors of Rotary Club of Hamilton; past chairman board of stewards of Melrose United Church; past director, H.S.P.C.A. and Hamilton District Boy Scouts Association.

PLAXTON, Donald G. W., (Richmond Hill)—Attended University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall. Called to bar 1952. Partner, Plaxton and Mann in general practice. Former councillor, deputy reeve and reeve of Richmond Hill and regional councillor in Region of York; former trustee public school board; former trustee York Central Hospital; chairman board of governors Seneca College. Member St. Mary's Anglican Church; Richmond Hill Rotary Club; World War II veteran; candidate in three provincial elections. Family represented in legal profession in Ontario continuously since 1883. Age 53, married, five children.

RAE, Kenneth A., (Owen Sound)—Born Windsor, 1939, and raised in Ottawa. Attended Lisgar Collegiate, Carleton University, (Economics); graduated in law from Queen's University, 1964. Articled in Toronto, (Wright and McTaggart); called to the bar 1966. Began practice in Guelph with Messrs. Hungerford & Guthrie until appointed assistant Crown attorney, Waterloo County, May, 1968, remaining there until appointed Crown attorney, Grey County, 1974. Occasionally assists Crown Law Office, Toronto, by taking matters in the Court of Appeal. Served C.O.T.C. and Canadian Army (Militia) (G.G.F.G.) 1957-1964. Currently president, Owen Sound Swim Club and legal advisor, Owen Sound Historical Society.

SAMPSON, John E., Q.C., (Kingston)—Born and educated in Kingston. Married, with three grown-up children. Called in 1948, specialised in civil litigation for fourteen years. Appointed Crown attorney 1962 and Regional Crown attorney 1977 and first chairman of the Council. Past president of the Frontenac Law Association, founding director of the International Association of Prosecutors. Editor of the Bail Reform Act Manual and the Handbook for Provincial Prosecutors. Honourary past president of the Children's Aid Society and the Hotel Dieu Hospital Board, a fellow of the Royal Meteorological Society and formerly director of the Traffic Research Institute of Canada.

SHAFFER, Bernard, Q.C., (Thunder Bay)—(Endorsed by Thunder Bay District Law Association). Past chairman, Fort William Public Library Board; former member, board of governors, Lakehead College of Arts, Science and Technology; former member, board of governors and executive committee, Lakehead University; past president, Thunder Bay District Law Association; member, National Planning Committee, Canadian Bar Association (1972-73); president, Ontario Branch, Canadian Bar Association (1974-75); member, Committee on Specialization, Canadian Bar Association (Ontario); member, Legal Aid committee of Law Society of Upper Canada; member, subcommittee Area Directors' Retainers; member, subcommittee Group Applications for Legal Aid and Granting Certificates for Test Cases.

STARK, Hugh G., (Kitchener)—Called to bar Ontario 1969 and British Columbia 1976. Practice is restricted to divorce and related matters in the firm of Stark and McGee in the City of Kitchener. Member of: Family Law Section of the Canadian Bar Association; Conciliation Committee for Provincial Court, Family Division/Waterloo; Court Liaison Committee for both the Provincial Court (Family Division) and County Court of the Judicial District of Waterloo. Deputy judge Small Claims Court for Waterloo. Involved with the Big Brother Organization for approximately eight years.

TALSKY, Marvin, (Mississauga)—Age 44, married, four children; called to bar in 1960. Sole general practitioner for 16 years. Member, Canadian Bar Association and Peel County Law Association. Past president of high school and university clubs. Past president of B'Nai B'Rith Lodge; past master of masonic lodge; head coach North York Minor Football Association.

THOMAS, Eileen Mitchell, Q.C., (Ottawa)—Called 1942; admitted solicitor England 1972, Yukon, North-West Territories 1974; Queen's (philosophy), Toronto (social work), London, England; Q.C. 1959, federal 1971; Fennell, Porter 1942-1947, Lang, Michener 1957-1959, Ottawa 1949-1956, McNulty, McClenaghan 1959-1964; part time judge juvenile court 1961-1964, Department Justice 1964 to present, senior advisory counsel, director legal services, National Capital Commission; occasional lecturer, Ottawa, Carleton, McGill, Trent; Canadian Bar Association, first woman member council 1944, International Bar Association, Environmental, Town Country Planning, Consumer Affairs, sections, International Federation of Women Lawyers, Comparative Law, County Carleton Law, Women's Law; Clubs, Chelsea, Britannia Yacht, Zonta.

TOBIAS, Peter B., Q.C., (Huntsville)—Born Toronto 1930; Bachelor of Arts, Trinity College, University of Toronto; Osgoode Hall Law School and call to the bar 1959; general practice Toronto; lecturer, Bar Admission Course 1964-1968; trustee, Lawyers Club of Toronto 1963-1968; general practice Huntsville 1968; Queen's Counsel 1971; appointed chairman, Ontario Hospital Appeal Board 1972; part time Crown attorney, District of Muskoka and District of Parry Sound; elected benchler, Law Society of Upper Canada 1975; president, Muskoka Law Association 1976; member, Lawyers Club of Toronto, County of York Law Association, Muskoka Law Association, Albany Club, Rotary Club; married, three sons.

WALLACE, George E., Q.C., (North Bay)—Born and educated in City of North Bay, B.A. Queen's '33, Osgoode '36. Past president Nipissing Law Association; past president Kiwanis Club North Bay; past member of council, Ontario section, Canadian Bar Association. Queen's Counsel 1951. Juvenile and family court judge Nipissing 1953-1969. Member, Advisory Committee to Attorney General on Legal Aid 1968 to 1971. Elected benchler 1971 and 1975. Member Osler Task Force on Legal Aid 1974; vice-chairman and member Legal Aid Committee 1971 to date; member Canadian Bar Association National Committee on the Judiciary.

WARDLAW, J. James, Q.C., (Orangeville)—B.A. McMaster 1952; Osgoode Hall Law School 1956; Q.C. 1969. Partner, Wardlaw, Wardlaw & Mullin. Past president Dufferin County Bar Association. Special lecturer for Law Society on land speculation tax and Succession Law Reform Act. Bar Admission Course: head of estate planning section; instructor law office management section. Canadian Bar Association: chairman, Wills and Trusts section; member Real Property section; panelist and special lecturer at mid-winter and national meetings. Member of committees on succession law reform, surrogate rules and forms, estate administration and land speculation tax.

WELDON, E. Leonard, Q.C., (Sarnia)—B.A. Toronto, 1948; Osgoode 1951; Q.C. 1972. Past Activities: president, Lambton Law Association; chairman, St. Joseph's Hospital; president, Sarnia Chamber of Commerce; director, Ontario and Canadian Chambers of Commerce; board of governors, Lambton College; Sarnia City Council, five years. Present: secretary and general counsel, Dow Chemical of Canada, Limited; executive committee, Canadian Bar Association, Ontario Branch.

WHITE, John G. M., Q.C., (Hamilton)—Education: Holy Family and St. Augustine's Separate Schools, Hamilton; Cathedral Boy's High School, Hamilton; McMaster University, Hamilton, (B.A. 1944); Osgoode Hall Law School (1947—called to bar with Honours). Member: Canadian Bar Association; Advocates' Society (past director); Hamilton Law Association (past trustee); Hamilton Lawyers Club (past president); Hamilton Medical Legal Society (past president); Criminal Lawyers Association; International Society of Barristers; Toronto Medical Legal Society; Association of Trial Lawyers of America; St. Thomas More Lawyer's Guild. Elected bencher, 1971; re-elected 1975. Member of Admissions Committee, Library Committee and chairman of the Unauthorized Practice Committee.

WHITTEN, Alan C. R., (Owen Sound)—Born 1946; married, two children. 1968, honours B.A. Political Science and Economics, U. of T.; 1968-1969, junior economist, Ministry of Transportation; 1971, assisted in preparation The Bail Reform Act,—A Manual for Police Officers, J. E. Sampson. 1972, LL.B., Queen's University; 1972-1973 articulated to Pomerant & Greenspan, Toronto; 1974, called to the bar. 1975 to present, sole practitioner in Owen Sound, with emphasis on litigation: civil, criminal, and family law. President Children's Aid Society for Owen Sound and County of Grey; Member F.O.N., Canadian Sheep Breeders' Association, Criminal Lawyers Association, Canadian Bar Association, Grey County Law Association.

WIACEK, Joseph M., (Brantford)—Native of Brantford where he completed elementary and secondary school education. Graduate of St. Michael's College, University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall Law School; called to the bar, with honours, in 1953. Since then associated with Trepanier, Hagey, Kneale & Wiacek, in Brantford, in general practice. Chairman Brant legal aid committee since its inception and member local committee of adjustment; director St. Thomas More Lawyers Guild of the Diocese of Hamilton and has served as its president; active in education and service club work in the community.

WILLOUGHBY, L. Stuart, Q.C., (Kingston)—Education: University of Western Ontario, B.A. in History and Economics; Osgoode Hall Law School, admitted to the bar spring 1949. Professional Memberships: Law Society of Upper Canada, Canadian Bar Association, Frontenac County Bar Association, Advocates' Society of Ontario and Criminal Lawyers Association of Ontario. Law Practice: general practice since 1949, specializing in civil litigation and criminal cases. Appointed a Queen's Counsel in 1965. Bencher since 1975. Teaching Experience: member of Queen's University Faculty of Law, special lecturer since 1959. Military Service: 5½ years service, Canadian Infantry Corps from 1940 until 1945.

YACHETTI, Roger D., (Hamilton)—38 years old, married with three children; practises in Hamilton. Called to bar 1966 after having graduated from the University of Western Ontario 1964. At Western, awarded the Arthur T. Little Gold Medal and at the Bar Admission Course, the Treasurer's Medal, the Law Society First Prize and the Lawyers Club First Prize. Appointed law clerk to Honourable G. A. Gale 1966. A litigation lawyer with Yachetti, Lanza and Restivo; trustee of the Hamilton Law Association; president of the Hamilton Criminal Lawyers Association; member of the Advocates' Society and the Canadian Bar Association.

This concludes the list of Candidates outside Metropolitan Toronto

Candidates within Metropolitan Toronto

---

ALLAN, A. Stephen, Q.C.—Born Athens, Greece 1925; Air Force-Army 1944-46; B.A. Toronto 1953; called to bar 1958; Q.C. 1979; employed by Ministry of the Attorney General.

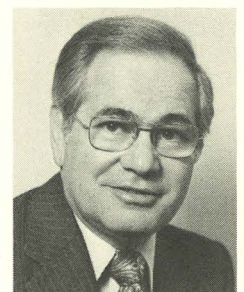

---

ARTHURS, Harry W.—Barrister and solicitor; professor and former dean (1972-1977), Osgoode Hall Law School. Education: B.A., LL.B. (Toronto); LL.M. (Harvard); articulated with Hon. Mr. Justice Robins; called to bar 1961. Member: C.B.A.; County of York Law Association. Formerly member: Law Society Council; Ontario Legal Education Council; C.B.A. special committee to draft the Code of Professional Conduct. Professional activities: arbitrator and mediator in labour disputes; member, Economic Council of Canada. Academic interests: established first Canadian law school courses on legal education and the legal profession; author of many works on these subjects, labour law, administrative law and legal history.

---

ATLIN, Gordon, Q.C.—University of Toronto (Political Science and Economics) 1949; Osgoode Hall 1953; sole practitioner 1955-1957; partner, Atlin, Goldenberg, Cohen & Armel 1961 to date; Bar Admission Course, instructor in civil procedure 1961-1965; Queen's Counsel 1969; University of Toronto Law School, practitioner participating in first year clinical programs 1973 to date; member legal aid area committee 1973 to date; president, Centre for Creative Living, United Community Fund Agency for Senior Citizens. Memberships: Canadian Bar Association; Advocates' Society; Lawyers Club.

BASTEDO, Thomas G.—Ph.D., LL.B.; call to bar 1971; partner, Bastedo, Cooper, Kluwak & Shostack since 1971; formerly part time lecturer, University of Toronto, York University, Osgoode Hall Law School; instructor Bar Admission Course since 1972 (civil procedure, family law); author, articles, digests, continuing education material; Canadian Bar Association: council member since 1972; chairman, Legal Education section 1972-1973; Family Law section 1977-1978; member: York County Area Committee, Osgoode Excellence Fund Trust Advisory Committee, Bar Advisory Committee to Civil Procedure Revision Committee; board of directors, John Howard Society and Canadian Foundation for Children and the Law.

---

BENSON, Philip W., Q.C.—Graduated from University of Toronto in 1940. After service in R.C.A.F. in World War II, entered Osgoode Hall and was called to the bar in 1949. Founded own firm in 1956, now known as Benson, McMurtry, Percival & Brown. Presently a member of the Lawyers Club, Advocates' Society, Medico-Legal Society of Toronto, International Association of Insurance Counsel and of the Special Insurance committee of the Canadian Bar Association. A past president of the County of York Law Association and a former instructor Bar Admission Course.

---

BORSKI, Norman H. R.—Born: Toronto, 1933. Education: Kent Public School (1938-1946); Bloor Collegiate Institute (1946-1951); Toronto Normal School (1951-1952); elementary schoolteacher, Ledbury Park Public School, First Township School Area of North York (1952-1955); Department of Education, Province of Ontario, permanent first class teaching certificate, 1955; University College, University of Toronto (1956-1958); Osgoode Hall Law School, LL.B. (1958-1961); Bar Admission Course (1961-1963); call to bar, 1963; University of Toronto Extension Department B.A. (1961-1963). Sole general practitioner with offices at Suite 201, 2256B Bloor Street West, Toronto, (1965-1979).

---

BRISTOW, David I., Q.C.—Graduate of University of Toronto, B.A. Victoria College, 1953; Osgoode Hall Law School, 1957. Appointed Queen's Counsel, 1970. Lieutenant, Royal Canadian Navy (R) (Ret.). Senior partner, Bristow, Swybrou & Moldaver, Toronto. Co-author Mechanics' Liens in Canada. Contributing author Chitty's Law Journal, Angers Law Digest of Canadian Law, Daily Commercial News, Criminal Law Quarterly. Instructor, Creditors' Rights, Bar Admission Course, 1968-1974. Member Canadian Bar Association, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, County of York Law Association, Toronto Lawyers Club, the Advocates' Society, Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity; fellow, Foundation for Legal Research.

---

BROLEY, M. Walker, Q.C.—Twenty-five years Toronto suburban general practice of law; an elected commissioner, Scarborough Public Utilities Commission for the past consecutive seventeen years and presently chairman for 9th term; past president district four Ontario Municipal Electric Association; ex-serviceman WW2; married, four children; member Canadian Bar Association.

---

BROWN, Constance M.—Graduated University of Western Ontario in 1964; Osgoode Hall 1967. Articled with Keith, Ganong & Roberts in Toronto; called to the bar 1969; worked for Bell Canada for three years; life insurance company for one year and in May, 1973, established a sole practice in matrimonial, criminal and juvenile law. Has been associated with Melanie Manchee since 1977.

BRULÉ, J. Albert, Q.C.—At present a bencher; vice-chairman, Legal Education Committee; vice-chairman, Finance Committee; head of administration of estates section, Bar Admission Course; lecturer in all 20 Bar Admission Courses; author of Volume 9, Wills and Trusts, O'Brien's Encyclopedia of Forms; co-editor of Estates & Trusts Quarterly. Fellow of American College of Probate Counsel; member, International Academy Estates & Trusts Law; section member of International Bar Association; representative of Canadian Bar Association to Union Internationale des Avocats.

BYNOE, B. Clive, Q.C.—Educated: primary and secondary schools, Toronto; McMaster University; Osgoode Hall. Called to the bar 1957; Q.C. 1970. Past president, Criminal Lawyers Association. Participated as instructor and lecturer in the Bar Admission Course; sometime lecturer Continuing Education program, Federation of Law Societies. Served as counsel to several Royal commissions, including the Inquiry relating to Toronto Jail. Bencher since 1975, vice-chairman Discipline. Member: Advocates' Society; Criminal Lawyers Association; County of York Law Association, Lawyers Club, Canadian Bar Association. Associated with minor hockey in executive capacity.

CARSON, John C., Q.C.—Called to the bar 1957; Q.C. 1970. Practised Tilley, Carson & Findlay 1957-1973; Carson, Poultney, 1973 to date. Lecturer business law, Ontario Ministry of Education (1964-1968); instructor Bar Admission Course, civil procedure II (1965-1970); course director, communication, public speaking, Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario (1968-1974). Ontario Council C.B.A., chairman, Legal Education section (1977- ); co-ordinator, Law Society seminar commercial arbitration (1978); founder, Canadian Arbitration Society (1970). Member County of York Law Association, Lawyers Club; past director Canadian Opera Company, director, North Toronto Ratepayers Association; St. George's United Church; married, three children.

CARTER, Robert J., Q.C.—LL.B. Osgoode Hall 1960; articled to G. Arthur Martin, Q.C. 1961; called to the bar 1962. Practised with Martin and Hartt 1962-1966; Martin and Carter 1966-1973; sole practitioner, 1973-1975; Carter and Powell 1975 to present. Practice devoted to criminal law. Former director Advocates' Society, past chairman Criminal Section Ontario branch, Canadian Bar Association. President Criminal Lawyers Association; head criminal procedure section Bar Admission Course 1967 to present. Co-chairman, continuation courses in criminal law held across Canada sponsored by the Federation of Law Societies.

CARTHY, James J., Q.C.—Bencher since 1973; currently chairman of Public Relations Committee, Sub-Committee to Review the Bar Admission Course, and the Students' Advisory Committee; member of Legal Education Committee and Practice and Insurance Committee. Editor of Ontario Annual Practice. Partner in Weir & Foulds where practice has been devoted to civil litigation and administrative law since graduation in 1958.

CASSELS, Walter G., Q.C.—Born Toronto 1926, graduated from University of Toronto in Commerce and Finance 1949 and Osgoode Hall in 1953; appointed Queen's Counsel in 1965; seminar leader in Bar Admission Course 1962-1964; chairman of Tax subsection of Canadian Bar Association 1964-1966; member of North York Municipal Council 1965-1969, chairman of building committee of Metropolitan Toronto Library Board 1968-1978; member of Canadian Bar Association, County of York Law Association and the Lawyers Club and a partner in the firm of Cassels, Mitchell, Somers, Dutton & Winkler.

CATZMAN, Marvin A., Q.C.—Called 1964. Law clerk to Chief Justices McRuer and Gale. Partner in firm of Catzman and Wahl, Toronto. Member of council, Canadian Bar Association, Ontario branch. Member of Rules committee. Secretary of Minister's advisory committee on The Personal Property Security Act. Lecturer in Law Society special lectures series on torts, contracts, employment law, and the professions; civil procedure I section, Bar Admission Course; bankruptcy and insolvency division, Osgoode Hall Master of Laws program, and York University Business Law program. Contributor of articles to Canadian Bar Review, Law Society Gazette, Chitty's Law Journal and Canadian Bankruptcy Reports.

CHARLTON, Anthony E.—Miller, Charlton & Mills; University College, University of Toronto (B.A. Philosophy and English); Osgoode Hall Law School (LL.B.); commissioned in Canadian Army; articulated with Cassels, Brock & Kelley; called in Ontario 1964; director the Advocates' Society 1973 to 1978; trustee County of York Law Association 1974 to 1979; professional member Legal Advisory Committee of Humber College 1976 to 1978; formerly an instructor in Bar Admission Course civil procedure, secretary Metropolitan Court House Committee of Bench & Bar, research director Rules Committee, Supreme Court of Ontario; an elder of St. Andrew's Church, King & Simcoe Streets.

COOPER, Austin M., Q.C.—Graduate University of Toronto, Commerce and Finance, 1949; graduate with honours from Osgoode Hall Law School, 1953 and awarded Clara Brett Martin Scholarship; has practised in field of criminal litigation in Toronto since 1953; elected a bencher of the Law Society of Upper Canada in 1971 and again in 1975 and presently chairman of Professional Conduct Committee; director of the Advocates' Society; member Canadian Bar Association (Ontario Branch) Special Committee on the Judiciary; fellow of the Foundation for Legal Research in Canada.

CRANE, J. Douglas, Q.C.—42, born Sioux Lookout; B.A. 1958 (Manitoba), LL.B. 1961 (Osgoode Hall); called to the bar 1963, Q.C. 1975, married, four sons; counsel in civil and criminal trials and appeals, and before administrative tribunals, and as a part time Crown attorney. President, Lawyers Club of Toronto 1978-1979; director and secretary of the Advocates' Society 1969-1971, Canadian Bar Association, Legal Education and Training section: Ontario chairman 1974-1977, national chairman 1978-, group instructor, Bar Admission Course: civil procedure 1971-1975, criminal procedure 1968-, member, the Advocates' Society, County of York Law Association, Criminal Lawyers Association.

D'ANDREA, Frank M.—Graduated from the University of Waterloo with an Arts degree in 1968; from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1971; called to the bar in 1973. Since his call, has practised as a partner in the firm of Peterson and D'Andrea with offices in midtown Toronto. Practice consists mainly of litigation, particularly criminal trial work and some real estate, corporate and commercial and matrimonial matters.

DEAKON, Walter C.—Graduate in civil engineering, University of Toronto, 1950. Employed, superintendent on power dam and bridge construction. Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School, 1955; entered private practice of law and continuing same since graduation. Served as member of Parliament, and on Justice and Legal Affairs Committee, 1968 to 1972. Member of Canadian Bar Association, County of York Law Association, Connaught Lodge A.F. & A.M., Rameses Temple, A.A.O.M.M.S. of Toronto and Kingsway Shrine Club.

DORAN, A. Burke, Q.C.—Born in Ottawa 1937; practised there with Gowling, MacTavish, Osborne & Henderson 1963-1966 after call to the bar. 1966 to the present time with Lang, Michener, Cranston, Farquharson & Wright. Director, Advocates' Society and Thomas More Lawyers' Guild. Past chairman of Family Law section (Ont.) C.B.A., former magister, Phi Delta Phi; member: Medico-Legal Society, Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association. Group instructor BAC, formerly in civil procedure II and presently in family law. Participant in numerous programs on family law and civil litigation.

DYMENT, Alexander D., Q.C.—Carries on an active general practice in Toronto with the firm of Dymont & Small; called to the bar in Ontario in 1937 after graduating from Jarvis Collegiate and the Osgoode Hall Law School; appointed an acting judge of the Division Court in 1958; a Queen's Counsel in 1960; a judge of the Division Court in 1966 and approximately three years ago a deputy judge of the small claims court.

ELLIOTT, George D.—Graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1967 and received his call to the bar in 1969. A member of the Canadian Bar Association, the York County Bar Association, the Lawyers Club and the Canadian Tax Foundation. A member of the Aquarians Club, which supports Moorelands summer camp for underprivileged children; associated with the Downtown Churchworkers Association; a director of Marina Lodge, providing occupational therapy for physically handicapped adults.

ELLIS, S. RONALD—Toronto B.A.Sc. (1956); LL.B. (1962). Professional engineer, 1956; Ontario bar, 1964; practice with Osler, Hoskin as associate and partner to 1975; faculty member, Osgoode Hall Law School 1975 to present. Teaches contracts, labour, civil procedure and legal profession. Director, Parkdale Community Legal Services (PCLS), 1975-1977. Chairman: Labour Section Ontario CBA, 1973-1974; personnel committee, Social Planning Council, Metropolitan Toronto (SPC). Co-chairman, PCLS board 1974-1975, and since January 1979. Member: CBA and York County Law Association; PCLS board, SPC board, Law Society legal aid committee.

ELLYN, Igor—Called to the bar, March, 1973; partner, Ellyn & Luftspring, Yonge-Eglinton Centre, Toronto. Member of the following: faculty, Bar Admission Course in Civil Procedure and Family Law; Canadian Bar Association, Family Section; Advocates' Society; County of York Law Association; Bench/Bar Committee, York Family Court. Deputy judge, York Small Claims Courts (ad hoc); lecturer to adult education and single parent groups on family law subjects; fluent in five languages including French and German; married and has one child. Graduated: Faculty of Law, University of Western Ontario, May 1971. Formative education and early years in Montreal, Quebec.

EVANS, Lance S., Q.C.—R.C.A.F 1942-1946. Private practice 1955 to date. Queen's Counsel 1966. Member of Evans, Keenan. Counsel, criminal, civil trials, all levels, including tribunals, boards. 1955-1958 legal officer, R.C.A.F. Reserve. 1972-1975, member of council, CBA, Ontario branch, Public Relations committee, primarily responsible for participation and liaison with Canadian Broadcasting Corporation program "On the Evidence" for three years; chairman committee on Courts' Administration. Formerly honorary solicitor, Ontario Provincial Command Royal Canadian Legion and served on Constitutional Laws committee. Associations: Medico-Legal Society of Toronto, Canadian Bar Association, York County Law Association, Lawyers Club, director, Advocates' Society.

FEIGMAN, Leonard, Q.C.—Partner, Feigman & Chernos. Called to bar in 1958. Member, Canadian Bar Association and Advocates' Society; American Trial Lawyers Association. Appointed Q.C. in 1975.

FERRIER, Lee K., Q.C.—Called: 1964. Formerly: chairman, Family Law section, International Bar Association and Canadian Bar Association; COMSOC committee on adoption records; Ontario delegate, Uniform Law Conference; board, Children's Aid Society, Metropolitan Toronto; board, Visiting Homemaker's Association; board, Parkdale Community Legal Services; project consultant, Clarke Institute of Psychiatry; editor, Infants and Children, Canadian abridgment. Currently: founding member, Advocates' Society; Bar Admission Course lecturer; council, Canadian Bar Association; co-author, MacDonald and Ferrier: Canadian Divorce Law and Practice; member, legal aid committee; Clinical Funding committee; trustee, Lawyers Club; Attorney General's committee on Representation of Children; trustee, Foundation for Legal Research.

FREESMAN, Boris G., Q.C.—Called to bar 1966; Q.C. 1978. Attended University of Toronto, Philosophy, and Faculty of Law; tri-lingual. Born Santiago, Chile; age 40; married, two children. Sole practitioner; practice restricted to counsel work.

GENEST, PIERRE, Q.C.—Partner: Cassels, Brock; B.A. University of Ottawa, 1950; graduated Osgoode Hall 1954; appointed Q.C. 1968; contributor, Holmstead & Gale, Ontario Judicature Act; lecturer, continuing education on expropriation, cross-examination expert witnesses, damages. President: Lawyers Club, 1968-69; director: Advocates' Society, 1968-70; member: Area legal aid committee 1971-78; member of council, Medico-Legal Society 1976-78; member, Attorney General's committee on Utilization of French Language Services in courts; member, C.B.A. committee on Judiciary, 1977—; member, Legislative Council Northwest Territories 1973-75; trustee, Clarke Institute of Psychiatry 1975-78; chairman, Ontario Mental Health Foundation 1975-78.

GOODMAN, Edwin A., Q.C.—A benchler since 1966; chairman, Special Committee on Professional Competence. Past chairman, Municipal Law, Administrative Law and Civil Liberties Ontario sections Canadian Bar Association; past governor, Canadian Tax Foundation; founding director, Canadian Environmental Law Association; past president, National Ballet Guild; former director, Shaw Festival; director, New Mt. Sinai Hospital, Home for the Aged and Baycrest Hospital and the YMHA; former national campaign chairman and vice-president, Progressive Conservative Party of Canada and Ontario; formerly lecturer, political economy University of Toronto. Served in Fort Garry Horse, twice wounded, mentioned in despatches.

GOODMAN, Sheldon—Age 33, married with no children. Bachelor of Arts (Brock), Bachelor of Laws (Osgoode Hall Law School) Master of Business Administration (York), chartered accountant. Called to the Ontario bar April 1976. Previously a member for two years of the Students' Administrative Council at the University of Toronto, and served on various other university committees.

GROUND, John D., Q.C.—Partner, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt; corporate/commercial practice. Elected benchler 1975; chairman, Admissions Committee; vice-chairman, Legal Education Committee, 1975-1978; member Finance Committee; Special Committees on Bar Admission Course, Incorporation of Professional Practices, Transfer Regulations, Credit Cards, Discipline Procedures, Election of Benchers; chairman, National Committee on Anti-Inflation Act, March Special Lectures, 1977, Bar Admission Course Appeals, 1976, 1977. Member, National Council, Ontario Executive and chairman 1973 Ontario Convention CBA. Director, Federation of Law Societies; head corporate/commercial section Bar Admission Course 1972-1975. Lecturer Law School 1969-1975 and executive Law Alumni U of T.

HABER, Harvey M., Q.C.—Called to the bar 1962. Leasing counsel in the shopping centre division, the Cadillac Fairview corporation. Editor-in-chief, Shopping Centre Leases. Vice-chairman, corporate lawyers section, Canadian Bar Association, Ontario branch. Member, board of directors, World Council of Synagogues; vice-president, United Synagogue of America; president, Ontario region, United Synagogue of America; Toronto president, Institute of Holocaust Studies, Bar-Ilan University, Israel; founding president, Beth Tikvah Synagogue; vice-president Canadian Council of Conservative Judaism; member, board of directors, United Synagogue Day Schools; regional committee, Canadian Jewish Congress; past worshipful Master, Mount Sinai Masonic Lodge, number 522.

HAFFEY, M. Joseph, Q.C.—Born 1923. St. Michael's College School, Jarvis Collegiate, University of Toronto, Osgoode Hall Law School; called to the bar 1949; appointed Queen's Counsel 1962. Air gunner, R.C.A.F. 1942-1945. Hughes, Agar & Thompson, specializing in civil litigation, 1949-1955; Haffey, Sherwood specializing in litigation, 1955 to present. Bar Admission Course instructor for 17 years. Married, four children.

HOGG, Derek T.—Age 37; married with two children; called to the bar in 1969; graduate of Osgoode Hall 1967; graduate of Arts U.W.O. 1964; articled to Benson, McMurtry. Sole-practitioner; part time Crown attorney; part time Small Claims Court judge. Member of Advocates' Society; Criminal Lawyers Association; County of York Law Association; Canadian Bar Association, criminal law sub-section.

HUMPHREY, David G., Q.C.—Born 1925. Osgoode Hall Law School; called to bar 1950; Q.C. 1961. Elected benchler in 1974; re-elected 1975; member of Discipline Committee (policy section); Professional Conduct Committee.

KARP, Allen—LL.B. (Toronto) 1964; LL.M. (Osgoode Hall) 1977; call to the bar 1966. Partner, Goodman and Carr, Toronto; corporate/commercial practice, special interest in franchising. Head of the corporate/commercial section of Bar Admission Course and member of advisory committee. Chairman several Law Society education programs in business law; frequent lecturer including March Special Lecture series 1975 and 1977. Author of articles on franchise problems and other corporate/commercial matters. Community activities include United Way, United Jewish Appeal, Canadian Committee of Lawyers and Jurists for Soviet Jewry and as a director of Canada College, Jerusalem.

KEARLEY, Laurence G.—Graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1972, Bar Admission Course 1974. Currently in private practice restricted to counsel work in immigration law and other administrative areas. Currently research director for CBC television show "Ombudsman". Formerly staff lawyer, Parkdale Community Legal Services in charge of immigration and other administrative areas. Concurrently part time faculty member, Osgoode Hall Law School. Member: York County Area Legal Aid Committee; board of directors, Lamaze Childbirth Association of Ontario; former delegate, Social Planning Council of Metropolitan Toronto; lecturer, Toronto Community Law School; frequent speaker, lecturer on immigration, administrative and consumer law.

KEITH, Anthony, Q.C.—Born October 1, 1937; University of Toronto Schools (1955), University of Toronto (arts, 1957, law 1960); Q.C. 1976; articled McCarthy & McCarthy Toronto; called April, 1962. Practised with Keith, Ganong & Co., Toronto; presently partner with Keith, Katzman & Kramer, Toronto. Member C.B.A., Advocates' Society, Lawyers Club; seminar leader, Bar Admission Course, civil procedure II (since 1966); president Shadow Lakes Cottagers Association Inc.; session clerk, Rosedale Presbyterian Church, Toronto; past district & group executive, Boy Scouts Association; past director, Canadian Warplane Heritage Foundation.

KELLOCK, Burton H., Q.C.—Blake, Cassels & Graydon, Toronto; B.A. McMaster University, 1955; LL.B. University of Toronto 1958; graduate of first Bar Admission Course, 1960 (Lawyers Club Prize); past chairman City of Brantford Planning Board; past president Kiwanis Club of Brantford; past chairman Professional Conduct Committee and past chairman Supreme Court Practice and Liaison Committee of the Advocates' Society; elected benchler of Law Society of Upper Canada 1975; vice-chairman Professional Conduct Committee 1975-78; chairman Practice and Insurance Committee 1978-79; Law Society representative on the Rules Committee and the Chief Justice's Committee of Bench and Bar.

LaMARSH, Julia V., Q.C.—Called to bar 1950. General practice, Niagara Falls 1950-1957, St. Catharines 1969-1972; family law practice, Toronto 1978 to date. Minister of National Health & Welfare, 1963; Secretary of State 1965-1968. Radio hostess CKWX, Vancouver 1972-1973. Visiting professor, Osgoode Hall Law School 1973-1975. Radio hostess CBC 1974-1975. Chairman, Royal Commission, Violence in Communications Industries 1975-1977. Hostess, public affairs program, Ontario Educational Television Network 1973-1978. Author: Memoirs of a Bird in a Gilded Cage, A Very Political Lady. ACTRA award, integrity in broadcasting, 1977. Queen's Counsel 1963; LL.D. D'Youville College, 1967.

LAMEK, Paul S. A., Q.C.—partner in Fraser & Beatty in Toronto, practising civil litigation. After studying law at Oxford, taught on the faculty of Osgoode Hall Law School from 1962 until 1967 when he joined his present firm. Called to the bar in 1964 and appointed Queen's Counsel in 1977. Past president of the Lawyers Club of Toronto and has been a member of the council of the Ontario section of the Canadian Bar Association and of the council of the Medico-Legal Society of Toronto. An honorary member of Phi Delta Phi.

LAMONT, Donald H. L., Q.C.—Practises law in Toronto in partnership with his wife Mary. Has been active in various positions in the Ontario Branch of the Canadian Bar Association and is a past president. Until this year has been the head of the real estate and landlord and tenant section of the Bar Admission Course. Also lectures in general law at the University of Waterloo. Has published several books including Residential Tenancies, Real Estate Conveyancing, Conveyancing and Mortgage Forms. A past president of the Toronto Lawyers Club and of the County of York Law Association.

LEGGE, Laura L., Q.C.—Elected benchler 1975, vice-chairman, Admissions Committee, member, Unauthorized Practice, Errors & Omissions, Legislation & Rules Committees. Formerly solicitor, Ontario Department of Health; now partner of Legge & Legge. President, Soroptimist International of Toronto (1974-1975), Womens' Law Association; member, Council Canadian Bar Association (1964-1966). Member York County Law Association, Medico-Legal Society of Toronto, Kappa Beta Pi Legal Sorority; director Metropolitan Toronto Home Care Program, executive director Ontario Safety League, member Corporation of Trinity College (1969-1979), B.A., University of Western Ontario; Registered Nurse, Toronto General Hospital (1945), graduate Osgoode Hall Law School (1948).

LEVINTER, Benjamin V., Q.C.—Born 1925. Graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1952; Q.C. 1963. Fellow, International Academy of Trial Lawyers; member and past director Advocates' Society; director York Finch General Hospital.

LEVY, Earl J., Q.C.—Called to the bar in 1963 and appointed Queen's Counsel in 1977. Practice restricted to criminal law, in which field has appeared at all levels of the courts in the Province of Ontario. A founding member and a past secretary of the Criminal Lawyers Association. Participated in continuing education programs, lectured and written articles in the field of criminal law.

LIEBECK, Frank I.—Graduated from York University with a B.A. in English and received his LL.B. from the University of Western Ontario. He became a member of the bar in March, 1974 and practises law with Meagher, Shaw, Liebeck. He teaches contract law and has been involved in community affairs including a member of the board of directors of the Inner City Angels, a charity organization working with children in downtown Toronto and acted as chairman for that board of directors for 1½ years. He is a member of the board of directors of Black Theatre Canada.

LIPTON, Michael D., Q.C.—Partner in the firm of Elkind and Lipton. Law clerk to Chief Justice of Ontario (1967); instructor in Bar Admission Course since 1972; member of Advocates' Society, American Trial Lawyers Association and executive member of Family Law subsection of Canadian Bar Association (1977); president of Judges' Law Clerks Association (1975-1977); member of Medico-Legal Society of Toronto. Involved in various Toronto and Ontario community associations concerned with conservation, preservation of lakes and proper recycling of waste materials, not to mention coaching a team in the North Toronto Junior Hockey Association.

LISSAMAN, Douglas H., Q.C.—Born 1932, Toronto, married, two children. Legal Education: '55 (U.K.), '59 (Ont.), '69 (Q.C.). Bar Admission instructor; participant in continuing legal education. Council member C.B.A. (Ontario Branch). Chairman Family Law Subsection C.B.A. (Ontario). Member Criminal Injuries Board. Member Canadian Civil Liberties Association. Trustee Sir William Campbell Foundation. President John Howard Society of Ontario. Director John Howard Society of Canada. President Community Service Organization (United Way Charity). Director Visiting Homemakers Association (United Way Charity). Director and founder Regent Park Community Health Centre. Elder Bloor Street United Church. Partner, Cass and Lissaman, Toronto, a firm of four lawyers.

MacMILLAN, Charles F., Q.C.—Born, Hillsburgh, Ontario. Graduated University of Toronto, B.A., 1947; University of Manitoba, LL.B., 1951. Admitted Manitoba bar 1951 and Ontario bar 1952. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1963. Senior partner, MacMillan, Rooke, Avery & Forbes, Toronto. Royal Naval Fleet Air Arm, 1944-1945. Director, ratepayers' association, 1964-1979. Papers given to Advocates' Society on occupiers' liability and to other groups on civil litigation. Member: Canadian Bar Association, Advocates' Society, Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association, International Commission of Jurists, Defense Research Institute, Inc. and Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

MAGILL, John N.—Senior partner, Mackenzie, Wood, Magill & Blakeman, Toronto. Member, County of York Law Association, Dufferin County Law Association, Canadian Bar Association, vice-chairman Law Office Economics & Management section (Ontario); chairman, lawyers' division 1978 United Way campaign, Metropolitan Toronto (vice-chairman 1977); member, Etobicoke Historical Board and local Architectural Conservation advisory committee. (1978); member, board of directors Ontario region Canadian Automobile Sport Clubs 1977-1978; member, board of directors (national) Canadian Automobile Sport Clubs, 1979. University of Toronto, B.A. (1964) LL.B. (1967). Called to the bar 1969.

MANNING, Morris, Q.C.—Call to bar 1967, Q.C. 1979. Counsel to Attorney General for Ontario in both criminal and civil litigation 1967 to 1976. Currently sole practitioner doing counsel work in both civil and criminal fields. Lecturer and group instructor Bar Admission Course 1967 to date. Former editor of CCC's, D.L.R.'s, O.R.'s Criminal Law Quarterly, C.E.D., author of Protection of Privacy Act, Wiretap Law In Canada; and co-author of text Criminal Law. Director Advocates' Society, council member Canadian Bar Association, member Criminal Lawyers Association. Participant U. of T. Law School moot court program, Osgoode Hall Law School trial practice program.

MATHESON Donald C.—Preparatory education: Victoria College, University of Toronto (B.A. 1960). Legal education: Osgoode Hall Law School (LL.B. 1963); University of California at Berkeley (LL.M. 1967). Called to bar 1965. Member: Canadian Bar Association, York County Law Association, Canadian Tax Foundation. Partner: Miller, Thomson, Sedgewick, Lewis & Healy, Toronto.

MATLOW, P. Theodore—Thirty-eight years old, married, one child, native of Kitchener, Ontario. B.Comm. (Tor) 1962, LL.B. (Tor) 1965. Called to bar 1967. Presently enrolled in part time LL.M. program at Osgoode Hall Law School. Partner, Rosenberg, Smith, Paton, Hyman & Matlow, Toronto. Practice restricted to civil and criminal litigation. Editor of Advocates' Quarterly. Former editor of Criminal Reports and newspaper columnist. Member of Canadian Bar Association, the Advocates' Society, County of York Law Association, the Lawyers Club and the Medico-Legal Society of Toronto.

McCALLUM, A. Douglas—A partner in the firm of Kilmer, Rumball, Gordon, Davis & Smith; born 1944 in the Southwestern Ontario City of Chatham. Attended the University of Western Ontario and received Bachelor of Arts degree in 1967 then attended Queen's University and received his LL.B. in 1970. Articled with the late Willard Meredith Gordon, Q.C. and called to the bar in March 1972. Married with one child. Over the past seven years has devoted most of his time and energy to his family and the practice of law.

McGEE, Robert B., Q.C.—Born and brought up in Toronto where he attended high school, University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall Law School, called to bar in 1966. In private practice in Toronto for one year. Appointed assistant Crown attorney in 1967; deputy Crown attorney, Judicial District of York, 1977. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1979. Married with two children. 41 years old.

MORPHY, H. Lorne, Q.C.—Age, 43. Barrister; civil, administrative, criminal and intellectual property law matters. Graduated Osgoode Hall, 1960; called to Ontario bar, 1962; Queen's Counsel, 1976; associated with the firm of Kimber, Dubin, 1962-1971; sole practitioner, 1971-1973; counsel and partner, Tory, Tory, DesLauriers & Binnington; counsel to Rogers, Bereskin & Parr.

MOSCOE, Sydney, Q.C.—Called to the bar 1959. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1971. In practice together with father, Harry R. Moscoe, Q.C. in Toronto. General practice with emphasis on mortgages, business, real estate and family law. Resident of North York since 1957. Served on North York Public Library Board, 1961-1962. Trustee of North York Board of Education, 1962-1969, vice-chairman, 1969. Now involved with Canadian Lawyers & Jurists for Soviet Jewry. Member Canadian Bar Association and County of York Law Association.

NAFTOLIN, Stanley—Called to the bar, March, 1969. A partner in the firm of Merkur, Naftolin & Cappel; practice within the firm is primarily confined to litigation and he does general counsel work. Full time instructor in the creditors' rights and bankruptcy section in the Bar Admission Course and has held that position since 1972. Member of the York County Bar Association and the Canadian Bar Association.

NATHANSON, David C.—Born in Montreal; a graduate of McGill University (B.A.) and the University of Toronto (LL.B.) and a Woodrow Wilson fellow at Yale (M.A. Economics). Called to the bar in 1971, a partner of McDonald & Hayden. In connection with his tax-oriented practice he has contributed papers to the Canadian Tax Foundation, the Canadian Bar Association, the International Fiscal Association and the Law Society's Continuing Education program. He is a member of the Taxation Committee of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and has instructed in taxation in the Bar Admission Course. He is married and has three children.

O'REILLY, Miles D., Q.C.—A partner in Harries, Houser, having practised with that firm since his call to the bar in 1963. A graduate of the University of Toronto, B.A., 1957; Osgoode Hall Law School, LL.B., 1960; and York University, LL.M., 1977. Past president, Lawyers Club of Toronto; trustee, County of York Law Association; president, Delta Chi Alumni Chapter; member, the Advocates' Society and the Canadian Bar Association. In addition to participating in committees on the new bankruptcy legislation, he acts as lecturer, examiner, instructor and writer on bankruptcy and insolvency matters.

ORKIN, Mark M., Q.C.—Called to the bar 1948, Queen's Counsel 1963, benchers since March 1978. Member of the following standing committees: Legal Aid, Legal Education, Legislation and Rules (vice-chairman), Discipline, Professional Conduct (vice-chairman). Engaged in general practice as sole practitioner. Earned academic degrees: LL.M. (1967), D.Jur. (1972). Chairman Continuing Education program on Solicitor and Client Costs, 1971, chairman program on Party and Party Costs, 1972. Author, Legal Ethics (1957), The Law of Costs (1968), Speaking Canadian English (1970), Speaking Canadian French (1971), Canajan, Eh? (1973), French Canajan, He? (1975), Murrican, Huh? (1976), Sex Wars (1978). Bilingual.

OUTERBRIDGE, Ian W., Q.C.—Outerbridge, Thomas & Mueller, 390 Bay Street, Toronto. Born China, 1929. Victoria College 1951. Osgoode Hall 1955. Queen's Counsel 1969. Benchers, Law Society of Upper Canada. President, Ontario Branch C.B.A. (1978). Member: council, Toronto Medico-Legal Society; Advocates' Society; County of York Law Association; council, Law Office Management Section, American Bar Association, International Association of Insurance Counsel. Special lectures: Law Society of Upper Canada, York University, McGill University, University of Michigan. Admitted to practice: Supreme Court of United States, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Alberta. Resides on a farm at Alton, Ontario. Trustee Humber Valley United Church, Etobicoke.

PARKINSON, John G., Q.C.—Bachelor of Commerce, University of Toronto 1951; Osgoode Hall Law School; called to bar 1955; appointed Queen's Counsel 1971. Partner, since 1961, in Gardiner, Roberts specializing in municipal and administrative law and related litigation. Member Lawyers Club of Toronto (past president); Canadian Bar Association (past chairman, Administrative Law subsection); Advocates' Society and County of York Law Association. Trustee of Sir William Campbell Foundation. Lecturer to the Ontario Association of Architects in development law. Past president of Thornhill Country Club and Mansfield Ski Club. Living in Toronto with his wife and three children.

PAUL, Nicholas P., Q.C.—44, born Toronto, Ontario. B.A. 1956 University of Toronto; Osgoode Hall Law School; call to the bar, 1960; appointed Queen's Counsel 1972; married with three sons. President of Greek Orthodox community of Mississauga 1977 to 1979; legal counsel to Greek Orthodox Diocese of Canada for past 15 years; legal counsel to several parishes of Greek Orthodox Church; member of diocesan council of Greek Orthodox Church of Canada; president of Osgoode Hall Legal & Literary Society 1959-1960; member of County of York Law Association; member of Canadian Bar Association; class representative of Osgoode Excellence Campaign.

PEPPER, Barry, Q.C.—Benchers: first elected 1965; presently chairman of benchers' Finance Committee; former chairman of Admissions Committee. Born: England, 1922; preliminary education there; graduated high school, New Jersey, U.S.A. R.C.A.F. pilot overseas (423 Squadron) 1941-1945. Oxford University 1947; M.A. (Jur.) The Hague, Holland, School of International Law, 1948; Osgoode 1950; Q.C. 1959. Bar Admission instructor in initial years; sometime special lecturer to the Society. Counsel to Fraser & Beatty, Toronto; practice: civil and criminal litigation. President: Medico-Legal Society (1964-65); president: the Advocates' Society (1974-76); member of the bars of Alberta and P.E.I. Single practitioner.

PEPPER, Elliott R., Q.C.—Graduated University of Toronto Law School 1950; graduated Osgoode Hall 1954; appointed Queen's Counsel 1961. Formerly: assistant director of Public Prosecutions; Her Majesty's Proctor in Divorce; senior counsel to the Attorney General (Ontario); chairman Criminal Justice section of the Ontario Bar Association; member of council of Canadian Bar Association; member of council of Medical Legal Association; president of Lawyers Club, Toronto; part time lecturer, criminal procedure and family law, and author of articles pertaining thereto. Presently: private practice, Beaudoin & Pepper.

PICKETT, Paul B., Q.C.—Born Toronto 1931; graduated University of Toronto; called to bar 1955; married, two children; private practice in Toronto to date; appointed Queen's Counsel 1969. Served as alderman, City of Toronto 1964-1974 and member Metropolitan Council 1964-1972. Presently: vice-chairman, Metropolitan Licensing Commission; trustee, Women's College Hospital; honorary member, Royal Canadian Legion (Queen's Own Rifles of Canada). Memberships: Canadian Bar Association; County of York Law Association; Glenview Presbyterian Church; Board of Trade, Metropolitan Toronto; Waterfront Board of Metropolitan Toronto Conservation Authority; Group Life & Disability committee, Ontario Hospital Association; York Masonic Lodge.

POLIKA, Julian, Q.C.—Born: Toronto, 1941. Educated: Harbord Collegiate Institute; University of British Columbia; School of Law, University of Toronto. Called 1965. Appointed Q.C. 1979. Appointed Queen's Proctor 1976. Member, Advocates' Society, Canadian Bar Association, County of York Bar Association, Royal Canadian Military Institute. Practised as sole practitioner in Toronto to April 1973 with emphasis on civil and criminal litigation; joined the Ministry of the Attorney General as counsel in the Crown Law Office—Civil Law. Appointed director, Crown Law Office—Civil Law December 1976. Instructor Bar Admission Course, civil procedure I.

POMERANT, Joseph B., Q.C.—Bencher 1977 to present; Queen's Counsel, 1974; partner, Pomerant & Devlin; chairman, Civil Liberties Section of Ontario section, Canadian Bar Association; director, Advocates' Society, 1970-1972, chairman, Criminal Justice Section, Ontario section, Canadian Bar Association, 1965-1970; director, Civil Liberties Association, 1965-1970; special lecturer, Queen's University Law School, 1970-1974; married to Jane Devlin, barrister; two daughters, Lisa and Carrie.

RACHLIN, Theodore H., Q.C.—Rachlin, Wolfson & Malach. Born 1933. University of Toronto (B.A. 1954; LL.B. 1957); Osgoode Hall (1959). Admitted to bar 1959. Member: Canadian Bar Association; Association of Trial Lawyers of America (board of governors 1973- ); County of York Law Association; Advocates' Society (director 1977- ; secretary 1978-9); Toronto Medico-Legal Society. Instructor, civil procedure II, Bar Admission Course (1967- ). Faculty, National College of Advocacy, University of Nevada (1979). Program speaker: Law Society; Canadian Bar Association; Advocates' Society; Association of Trial Lawyers of America. Author of articles on no fault insurance and other topics.

REITER, Moishe, Q.C.—Born Toronto 1933; married two children; graduated: Hebrew Teachers Seminary Toronto 1955, University of Toronto 1956, Osgoode Hall 1960; called 1960, U of T Honour Award; legal aid: senior duty counsel (criminal), area committee, special project (Oak Ridge Hospital), acting assistant provincial director 1963; cabinet Anti-Defamation League, League for Human Rights, Christian-Jewish Dialogue chairman; appeared in British Columbia and New Brunswick. Advocates' Society, Lawyers Club, York County Law Association, Criminal Lawyers Association.

RICKABY, J. Peter, Q.C.—Graduated Osgoode Hall May, 1958; appointed assistant Crown attorney November, 1958; appointed deputy Crown attorney September, 1968; appointed Crown attorney for the Judicial District of York May, 1974; appointed Regional Crown attorney, 1975. Chairman of the board, Metropolitan Forensic Psychiatric Service October, 1977. Member: the Advocates' Society; the County of York Law Association.

ROBERTSON, Ronald N., Q.C.—Partner of Fasken & Calvin, Toronto; called to the bar 1957, Q.C. 1971. Interested in legal education, having lectured in the Bar Admission Course and appeared in various continuing education programs relating to banking, bankruptcy, receiverships and personal property security. Member of the Canadian Bar Association (member National Committee on the new Bankruptcy Act, joint-chairman National Committee on the new Bank Act, former chairman Civil Liberties' Ontario section), Advocates' Society and other professional and community organizations.

ROGERS, Norman MacL., Q.C.—Bencher, Law Society of Upper Canada 1973; chairman, Libraries and Reporting and member Legal Education and Discipline Committees. Educated Toronto and Montreal schools; B.A. (Hons.) Queen's University; Osgoode Hall Law School; called 1948; past president Lawyers Club; partner, Tilley, Carson & Findlay; Bar Admission Course instructor (1956-63) and section head (1972-75); past national chairman Civil Justice section; past chairman Labour Relations subsection and former member of council Canadian Bar Association; vice-chairman board of trustees Queen's University; secretary Canadian Law Information Council; preferred areas of practice: corporate commercial and labour relations.

ROMANICK, Marshall B., Q.C.—Graduated University of Toronto law course 1941, and after Osgoode Hall, called to the bar in 1944, served on active service as a lieutenant ending up as assistant adjutant S-17 Battle School, British Columbia. Practised law in Windsor until 1949 then joined his late father in practice in Toronto and carries on a general practice with increasing emphasis on litigation. Member legal aid Area committee in Toronto from outset, presently chairman Civil Law Applications section. Active in community affairs both in Windsor and in Toronto. Q.C. 1962.

ROSENBERG, Alvin B., Q.C.—Senior partner, Rosenberg, Smith, Paton, Hyman & Matlow. Practised law Toronto for 30 years. Counsel, civil litigation including Court of Appeal, Supreme Court of Canada. Author text Condominium in Canada. (Associate editor) Advocates Quarterly. Author of numerous articles and lectures on condominium and other legal subjects. Served R.C.A.F. until 1945. B.A.Sc. Toronto, 1946. Graduated Osgoode Hall, 1949. Queen's Counsel 1960. Chairman, board, Mount Sinai Hospital, Toronto. Founding director University Teaching Hospital Association. Director United Appeal. Founder and past president York Racquets Club. Honourary counsel and past president Wymbolwood Beach association. Chairman, United Jewish Appeal, 1960.

RUBY, Clayton C.—Obtained LL.B. degree from University of Toronto in 1968; LL.M. degree from University of California (Berkeley) in 1973. Practises criminal law in the firm of Ruby and Edwardh. Director: Criminal Lawyers Association; Amnesty International. Member: Chief Justice Howland's Bench and Bar committee; Advocates' Society. Author: Law, Law, Law, an explanation of legal and civil rights of laymen; Sentencing, a legal text. Bench since 1977.

SALEM, Harvey M., Q.C.—1957 B.A. University of Toronto; 1960 LL.B. Osgoode Hall; 1962 call to the bar; 1977 Queen's Counsel. Past director, Streethaven at the Crossroads, a half-way house for female offenders; director, Criminal Lawyers Association, 1974; member, County of York Bar Association; active supporter of Ontario Legal Aid Plan and past member of the area committee. Lectured to the law enforcement and social work programs at Humber College and a guest lecturer at Osgoode Hall Law School.

SAWERS, James A. J., Q.C.—Age 43, born 1936, Montreal, Quebec. Elementary education, Lindsay, Ontario. Graduated Malvern Collegiate, Toronto; B.A., University of Toronto, 1957; LL.B., Osgoode Hall, 1962; Q.C. 1976. Member: York County Law Association; Canadian Bar Association; Advocates' Society; Medico-Legal Society of Toronto; Metropolitan Toronto Board of Trade; Bayview Golf & Country Club. Partner: Thomson, Rogers. Married, two sons.

SCACE, Arthur R. A.—A graduate of the University of Toronto, Harvard University (M.A.), Oxford University (B.A.-Rhodes Scholar) and Osgoode Hall (1965-Silver Medalist). Called to the Ontario bar in 1967 with the Treasurer's Medal. Practised in the field of taxation with McCarthy & McCarthy from 1967 and has been a partner since 1972. A special lecturer in taxation at Osgoode Hall (1967-1974) and the University of Toronto (1973-1978). Currently head of the tax course in the Bar Admission; author of The Income Tax Law of Canada.

SCHOFIELD, Edmund L.—A 44 year old trial lawyer. B.A. St. Michaels College 1956; LL.B. U. of T. 1959; U.S. special agent, F.B.I. 1960-1966; Ontario Attorney General's Department (criminal appeals and special prosecutions) 1966-1969; assistant provincial director, Ontario Legal Aid Plan, 1969-1970; criminal law defense counsel 1970-1979; instructor, criminal law, Bar Admission Course 1971-1979; member Advocates' Society, Criminal Lawyers Association; married, four daughters.

SHANNON, L. Paul, Q.C.—Born 1931, Toronto; married, three children. Education: 1950, North Toronto Collegiate; 1953, McMaster University; 1957, Osgoode Hall Law School. Phelan, O'Brien (1957-1979). Partner: Phelan, O'Brien, Shannon & Lawer, civil litigation, negligence law and associated fields. 1973, Queen's Counsel. Author of Shannon On Motor Vehicle Offences and lecturer and papers to Bar Admission Course, Advocates' Society, Canadian Bar Association, Special Lectures, Ontario Motor League, Simcoe County Bar Association. Appeared as counsel in county courts, Supreme Court Of Ontario (Trial) (Appeal), Divisional Court, Federal Court, Supreme Court Of Canada.

SHIBLEY, Richard E., Q.C.—Born Port Colborne, Ontario, April 10, 1929; admitted to bar, 1953, Ontario. Preparatory education, University of Toronto (B.A., 1949); legal education, Osgoode Hall. Awarded Law Society Upper Canada Bronze Medal, 1953. Lecturer, civil procedure: Osgoode Hall Law School, 1959-1969; University of Toronto Law School, 1970-1974. Appointed Queen's Counsel, 1965. Member: Canadian Bar Association (member, Insurance Law Section, 1959-); the Advocates' Society; Medico-Legal Society of Toronto (director, 1967-1970); Law Society of Upper Canada (bencher, 1975-).

STONE, Arthur J., Q.C.—B.A. (St. F.X.); LL.B. (Dalhousie); LL.M. (Harvard); called to bar Nova Scotia 1956, Ontario 1958; McTaggart, Potts, Stone & Herridge—1957. Canadian Bar Association, member executive committee (1971-73), national and Ontario councils; chairman, National Maritime Law section, St. Laurent Fellowships, Federal Court Rules, Substantive Shipping Legislation and Demographic Survey committees. Canadian Tax Foundation, governor; Canadian Maritime Law Association, president; International Law Association, president, Toronto branch (1968-71); U. of T. lecturer, Faculty of Law (1971-76); past president, Ontario Association of Family Services Agencies; Friends of L'Arche "Daybreak", Richmond Hill; Toronto Marine Club; Harvard Law School Fund, Canadian chairman.

STRADIOTTO, Rino A., Q.C.—Born 1934; married, three sons. Bachelor of Laws, Osgoode Hall, 1960; called to the bar, 1962; practice at Borden & Elliot, litigation with emphasis on products liability; partner since 1970. Appointed Queen's Counsel, 1976. Member, Law Society Council; Canadian Bar Association; member of council, C.B.A. Ontario, 1972-1975; Law Society March Special Lectures, "Products Liability in Tort", 1973; committee member "White Paper on Courts Administration" of Advocates' Society; director Advocates' Society, Oct. 1977 to date; chairman, Products Liability seminar held by C.B.A. Ontario branch, 1978.

STRAUSS, Nathan, Q.C.—Graduated University of Toronto 1925, B.A. Graduated Osgoode Hall Law School 1928. Called to the bar of Ontario 1928. Appointed Q.C. 1950. President of the County of York Law Association 1960. Benchler of the Law Society since 1962.

SWAYZE, Robert J.—Born 1939, Welland, Ontario. University of Western Ontario, Bachelor of Arts, 1962; Osgoode Hall Law School, Bachelor of Laws, 1965; called to the bar, 1967. Partner in Rohmer & Swayze, 1970-1972; Parker & Swayze 1972-1976 and Swayze & Holmes 1976 to date. Instructor, real estate section, Bar Admission Course 1970-1975. Chairman, Legislation Sub-Committee, Board of Trade of Metropolitan Toronto 1977-1978. Has confined his personal practice primarily to municipal and land use matters.

WICKETT, Thomas H., Q.C.—Education: U. of T., Paris, Oxford; legal education, U. of T.; called to bar, 1962; Q.C. 1976. Twelve years in private practice; five years with Crown Law Office. Member: Canadian Bar Association, Advocates' Society, Lawyers Club, County of York Law Association. Instructor, civil procedure, Bar Admission Course.

WIGLE, Wendell S., Q.C.—B.A. University of Western Ontario 1953; Osgoode Hall Law School; called to the bar in 1957; partner, Hughes, Amys, Toronto, Ontario. Served as president of Advocates' Society (1978); program chairman, Advocates' Society; member, council of the Medico-Legal Society of Toronto; instructor, civil procedure II, Bar Admission Course; member:—Advocates' Society, Canadian Bar Association, Medico-Legal Society of Toronto, American Bar Association, American Trial Lawyers Association and Defense Research Institute.

YAREMKO, John, Q.C.—Born Welland 1918; Hamilton Collegiate, five scholarships; Toronto University, Law, McCrea, Fox awards; president Law Club, Osgoode; called 1944, Bronze Medal, Robinson Prize. Assistant examiner to Dean Falconbridge; lecturer, private practice—Queen's Counsel 1953. Member Canadian Bar; York County; president Lawyers Club 1957; honorary president Adult Cerebral Palsy Institute; director St. Alban's Boys' Club; associated with many community groups, 1951/1975; member Ontario Legislature; chairman Legal Bills, Private Bills. Special interests: rights, education, social services, law profession, Canadiana. 1958/1974 Minister: Transport, Provincial Secretary, Registrar; Citizenship; Social, Family Services; Solicitor General; chairman Liquor Licence Appeal Tribunal.

YOUNG, J. Eric, Q.C.—Born 1924, Bathurst N.B. Served R.C.N.V.R. 1942-1945. Attended U.N.B. and U.N.B. Law School; B.C.L. 1950. General practice in Saint John, N.B. and Bathurst, N.B. until 1952 when he moved to Toronto. Admitted to Ontario bar in 1953 and since associated with Parkinson, Gardner firm, Frame & Rodger and with Douglas & Johnston, all in general practice. Established own practice in 1961 and now in partnership of Young and Owens. Appointed Queen's Counsel 1962. Former president of York West P.C. Association; unsuccessful candidate for Etobicoke municipal council. Past president unit 212 of A.N. & A.F. Veterans in Canada.

---

ZALDIN, Donald A.—1970-1971, Windsor University Law School; 1971-1973, Osgoode Hall Law School; 1973-1974, Rosenberg, Smith, Paton & Hyman (articling); 1974-1975, Osgoode Hall-Bar Admission Course; 1975-present, Gangbar & Stancer (associate: civil litigation and criminal defence work).

---

This concludes the list of Candidates within Metropolitan Toronto